The Wicked Day Arthurian Saga 4 By Mary Stewart:

Arthurian Literature XXXIX Megan G. Leitch, K. S. Whetter, 2024-06-04 Delivers fascinating material across genres periods and theoretical issues TIMES LITERARY SUPPLEMENT This volume is a special issue dedicated to Professor Elizabeth Archibald who has had such an impact on and made so many significant contributions to the field of Arthurian Studies It maintains its tradition of diverse approaches to the Arthurian tradition albeit on this occasion with a particular focus on Malory appropriately reflecting one of Professor Archibald's main interests It starts with the essay awarded this year's D S Brewer Prize for a contribution by an early career scholar which considers the little known debt owed by early modern sailors to Arthurian knighthood and pageantry The essays that follow begin with a wide ranging account of manuscript decorations and annotations in Geoffrey of Monmouth's Historia before turning to the Evil Custom trope in Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Further contributions explore the formalities of requests and conditions in Malory's Tale of Gareth emotional excess and magical transformation in several scenes across the Morte Darthur tensions between public and private and self and identity in Malory's Sankgreal and friction between the external and imposed law and internal and subjective but honourable code of chivalry especially apparent in Malory's final Tales The last article examines the ways in which Mordred's origins in modern Arthurian fiction build on Malory's false or forgotten promise to relate Mordred's upbringing The volume closes with a short tribute to Elizabeth Archibald highlighting her leadership in the field and her encouragement of scholarly collaboration and community
