Un Lun Dun By China Miéville:

Un Lun Dun China Miéville, 2008-09-04 The iron wheel began to spin slowly at first then faster and faster The room grew darker As the light lessened so did the sound Deeba and Zanna stared at each other in wonder The noise of the cars and vans and motorbikes outside grew tinny The wheel turned off all the cars and turned off all the lamps It was turning off London Zanna and Deeba are two girls leading ordinary lives until they stumble into the world of UnLondon an urban Wonderland where all the lost and broken things of London end up and some of its lost and broken people too Here discarded umbrellas stalk with spidery menace carnivorous giraffes roam the streets and a jungle sprawls beyond the door of an ordinary house UnLondon is under siege by the sinister Smog and its stink junkie slaves it is a city awaiting its hero Guided by a magic book that can't quite get its facts straight and pursued by Hemi the half ghost boy the girls set out to stop the poisonous cloud before it burns everything in its path They are joined in their quest by a motley band of UnLondon locals including Brokkenbroll boss of the broken umbrellas Obaday Fing a couturier whose head is an enormous pincushion and an empty milk carton called Curdle Winner of the Locus Award for Best Young Adult Book China Miéville's Un Lun Dun is an extraordinary vivid creation is populated by astonishing frights and delights that will thrill the imagination China Miéville Tony Venezia, Sherryl Vint, Raphael Zähringer, Dougal McNeill, Joe Sutcliffe Sanders, Paul March-Russell, Ben De Bruyn, Matthew Sangster, Anthony F. Lang, Jr., Mark P. Williams, Roger Luckhurst, 2015-12-01 The chapters in this collection respond to the range of interests that have shaped Miéville's fiction from his influential role in contemporary genre debates to his ability to pose serious philosophical questions about state control revolutionary struggle regimes of apartheid and the function of international law in a globalized world This collection demonstrates how Miéville's fictions offer a striking example of contemporary literature's ability to imagine alternatives to neoliberal capitalism at a time of crisis for leftist ideas within the political realm Art and Idea in the Novels of China Miéville Carl Freedman, 2015-09-07 This book offers in the first six chapters critical readings of six novels by China Miéville which are followed in the seventh chapter by a theoretical meditation on some of the conceptual issues raised by and engaged in the Miéville oeuvre There comes a moment in The City the City though it is not necessarily the same moment for every reader when you realise that Beszel and Ul Qoma are not separate realms but the same space divided Likewise art and idea are often subject to absurd partition but then along comes an author such as China Miéville who shows them to be in truth indissoluble So argues Freedman's inordinately readable and just as rigorous account of Miéville's major novels Highly recommended Mark Bould University of the West of England Freedman offers a compelling interpretation of Miéville's novels informed equally by an impressive range of literary influences and a carefully documented exploration of historical antecedents Seeing Miéville's genre hybridity as an illustration of the power of dialectical thinking Freedman illuminates the complex utopian project of Miéville's fiction Freedman is one of our finest critical voices on Miéville one of the most important speculative writers of the 21st century

Judas Iscariot known for his betrayal of Jesus is a key figure in the Gospel narratives As an insider become outsider Judas demarcates Christian boundaries of good and evil Three Versions of Judas examines the role of Judas in Christian myth making The book draws on Jorge Luis Borges Three Versions of Judas to present three Judases in the Gospels a Judas necessary to the divine plan a Judas who is a determined outsider denying himself for God s glory and a Judas who is demonic Exploring the findings of biblical criticism and artistic responses to Judas Three Versions of Judas offers an analysis of the evil necessarily inherent in Christian narratives about Judas Reading Children's Literature: A Critical Introduction - Second Edition Carrie Hintz,Eric L. Tribunella,2019-03-28 Reading Children's Literature offers insights into the major discussions and debates currently animating the field of children s literature Informed by recent scholarship and interest in cultural studies and critical theory it is a compact core text that introduces students to the historical contexts genres and issues of children s literature A beautifully designed and illustrated supplement to individual literary works assigned it also provides apparatus that makes it a complete resource for working with children s literature during and after the course The second edition includes a new chapter on children s literature and popular culture including film television and merchandising and has been updated throughout to reflect recent scholarship and new offerings in children s media Urban Fantasy Stefan Ekman,2024-08-13 The first book length historical and theoretical analysis of the urban fantasy genre Posthumanism in Young Adult Fiction Anita Tarr,Donna R. White,2018-04-27 Contributions by Torsten Caeners Phoebe Chen Mathieu Donner Shannon Hervey Angela S Insenga Patricia Kennon Maryna Matlock Ferne Merrylees Lars Schmeink Anita Tarr Tony M Vinci and Donna R White For centuries humanism has provided a paradigm for what it means to be human a rational unique unified universal autonomous being Recently however a new philosophical approach posthumanism has questioned these assumptions asserting that being human is not a fixed state but one always dynamic and evolving Restrictive boundaries are no longer in play and we do not define who we are by delineating what we are not animal machine monster There is no one aspect that makes a being human self awareness emotion artistic expression or problem solving since human characteristics reside in other species along with shared DNA Instead posthumanism looks at the ways our bodies intelligence and behavior connect and interact with the environment technology and other species In

Posthumanism in Young Adult Fiction Finding Humanity in a Posthuman World editors Anita Tarr and Donna R White collect twelve essays that explore this new discipline s relevance in young adult literature Adolescents often tangle with many issues raised by posthumanist theory such as body issues The in betweenness of adolescence makes stories for young adults ripe for posthumanist study Contributors to the volume explore ideas of posthumanism including democratization of power body enhancements hybridity multiplicity plurality and the environment by analyzing recent works for young adults including award winners like Paolo Bacigalupi s Ship Breaker and Nancy Farmer s The House of the Scorpion as well as the works of Octavia Butler and China Mi ville

Revisiting Imaginary Worlds Mark Wolf,2016-12-08 The concept of world and the practice of world creation have been with us since antiquity but they are now achieving unequalled prominence In this timely anthology of subcreation studies an international roster of contributors come together to examine the rise and structure of worlds the practice of world building and the audience s reception of imaginary worlds Including essays written by world builders A K Dewdney and Alex McDowell and offering critical analyses of popular worlds such as those of Oz The Lord of the Rings Star Trek Star Wars Battlestar Galactica and Minecraft Revisiting Imaginary Worlds provides readers with a broad and interdisciplinary overview of the issues and concepts involved in imaginary worlds across media platforms

Constructing the Adolescent Reader in Contemporary Young Adult Fiction Elisabeth Rose Gruner,2019-05-17 This book examines the way young adult readers are constructed in a variety of contemporary young adult fictions arguing that contemporary young adult novels depict readers as agents Reading these novels suggest is neither an unalloyed good nor a dangerous ploy but rather an essential occasionally fraught by turns escapist and instrumental deeply pleasurable and highly contentious activity that has value far beyond the classroom skills or the specific content it conveys After an introductory chapter that examines the state of reading and young adult fiction today the book examines novels that depict reading in school gendered and racialized reading reading magical and religious books and reading as a means to developing civic agency These examinations reveal that books for teens depict teen readers as doers and suggest that their ability to read deeply critically and communally is crucial to the development of adolescent agency

London post-2010 in British Literature and Culture ,2017-07-03 London post 2010 in British Literature and Culture explores cultural and literary representations of London since around 2010 and focuses on a period in which a string of celebratory national and global media events but also riots and anti capitalist protests have cemented London s status as a paradigmatic world city This collection of articles brings together a wide variety of topics such as the 2011 London riots the London Olympics of 2012 royal festivities the Tube anniversary memorials and London in recent novels and blockbuster films The contributions look at the way in which cultural and literary texts articulate competing versions of the contemporary city oscillating between either supporting or subverting the hegemonic narrative of London as a place of cosmopolitan harmony and inclusion The Intelligible Metropolis Nora Pleške, 2014-08-15 Writings on the metropolis generally foreground illimitability stressing thereby that the urban ultimately remains both illegible and unintelligible Instead the purpose of this interdisciplinary study is to demonstrate that mentality as a tool offers orientation in the urban realm Nora Pleške develops a model of urban mentality to be employed for cities worldwide Against the background of the Spatial Turn she identifies dominant urban specific structures of London mentality Limpár, 2017-01-06 Monster studies dystopian literature and film studies have become central to research on the now proliferating works that give voice to culture specific anxieties This new development in scholarship reinforces the notion that the genres of fantasy and science fiction call for interpretations that see their spaces of imagination as reflections of reality not as spaces invented merely to escape the real world In this vein Displacing the Anxieties of Our World discusses fictive spaces of literature film and video gaming The eleven essays that follow the Introduction are grouped into four parts I Imagined Journeys through History Gaming and Travel II Political Anxieties and Fear of Dominance III The Space of Fantastic Science and Scholarship and IV Spaces Natural and Spaces Artificial The studies produce a dialogue among disciplinary fields that bridges the imagined space between sixteenth century utopia and twenty first century dystopia with analyses penetrating fictitious spaces beyond utopian and dystopian spheres This volume argues consequently that the space of imagination that conjures up versions of the world's frustrations also offers a virtual battleground and the possibility of triumph coming from a valuable gain of cognizance once we perceive the correspondence between spaces of the fantastic

Discourses of Postcolonialism in Contemporary British Children's Literature Blanka Grzegorzczak, 2014-10-03 This book considers how contemporary British children's books engage with some of the major cultural debates of recent years and how they resonate with the current preoccupations and tastes of the white mainstream British reading public A central assumption of this volume is that Britain's imperial past continues to play a key role in its representations of race identity and history The insistent inclusion of questions relating to colonialism and power structures in recent children's novels exposes the complexities and contradictions surrounding the fictional treatment of race relations and ethnicity Postcolonial children's literature in Britain has been inherently ambivalent since its cautious beginnings it is both transgressive and authorizing both undercutting and excluding Grzegorzczak considers the ways in which children's fictions have worked with and against particular ideologies of race The texts analyzed in this collection portray ethnic minorities as complex hybrid products of colonialism global migrations and the ideology of multiculturalism By examining the ideological content of these novels Grzegorzczak demonstrates the centrality of the colonial past to contemporary British writing for the young London in Contemporary British Fiction Nick Hubble, Philip Tew, Matthew Beaumont, 2018-01-25 Contemporary writers such as Peter

Ackroyd J G Ballard John King Ian McEwan Will Self Iain Sinclair and Zadie Smith have been registering the changes to the social and cultural London landscape for years This volume brings together their vivid representations of the capital Uniting the readings are themes such as relationship between the country and the city the capacity of satirical forms to encompass the real London spatio temporal transformations and emergences the relationship between multiculturalism and universalism the underground as the spatial equivalent of London s unconsciousness and the suburbs as the frontier of the future The volume creates a framework for new approaches to the representation of London required by the unprecedented social uncertainties of recent years an invaluable contribution to studies of contemporary writing about London The Oxford Companion to Fairy Tales Jack Zipes,2015 This Oxford companion provides an authoritative reference source for fairy tales exploring the tales themselves both ancient and modern the writers who wrote and reworked them and related topics such as film art opera and even advertising The Actual Jesus Tina Pippin,2025-07-29 This book moves away from the traditional historical and theological studies of Jesus to incorporate a variety of theoretical and material approaches across centuries and diverse global cultures Through fiction and film the connections are made with contemporary issues such as borders asylum seekers farmworker activism colonialism violence misogyny civil war and nuclear proliferation with a focus on the appearances of the actual Jesus in these worlds The Jesus in this study is explored in particular connections with the stories of baptism wilderness experience ascension and apocalypse What is found is often confusing challenging surprising and disturbing like the Jesus of the gospels
