The White Feather Sir Pelham Grenville Wodehouse, 1922-01-01 With apologies to gent opposite said Clowes I must say I don t think much of the team Don t apologise to me said Allardyce disgustedly as he filled the teapot I think they re rotten They ought to have got into form by now too said Trevor It s not as if this was the first game of the term First game Allardyce laughed shortly Why we ve only got a couple of club matches and the return match with Ripton to end the season It is about time they got into form as you say Clowes stared pensively into the fire They struck me he said as the sort of team who d get into form somewhere in the middle of the cricket season That s about it said Allardyce Try those biscuits Trevor They re about the only good thing left in the place School isn t what it was inquired Trevor plunging a hand into the tin that stood on the floor beside him No said Allardyce not only in footer but in everything The place seems absolutely rotten It s bad enough losing all our matches or nearly all Did you hear that Ripton took thirty seven points off us last term And we only just managed to beat Greenburgh by a try to nil We got thirty points last year he went on Thirty three and forty two the year before Why we ve always simply walked them It s an understood thing that we smash them And this year they held us all the time and it was only a fluke that we scored at all Their back miskicked and let Barry in Barry struck me as the best of the outsiders today said Clowes He s heavier than he was and faster He s all right agreed Allardyce If only the centres would feed him we might do something occasionally But did you ever see such a pair of rotters The man who was marking me certainly didn t seem particularly brilliant I don t even know his name He didn t do anything at footer in my time said Trevor He s a chap called Attell He wasn t here with you He came after the summer holidays I believe he was sacked from somewhere He s no good but there s nobody else Colours have been simply a gift this year to anyone who can do a thing Only Barry and myself left from last year s team I never saw such a clearance as there was after the summer term Where are the boys of the Old Brigade sighed Clowes I don't know I wish they were here said Allardyce Trevor and Clowes had come down after the Easter term had been in progress for a fortnight to play for an Oxford A team against the school The match had resulted in an absurdly easy victory for the visitors by over forty points Clowes had scored five tries off his own bat and Trevor if he had not fed his wing so conscientiously would probably have scored an equal number As it was he had got through twice and also dropped a goal The two were now having a late tea with Allardyce in his study Allardyce had succeeded Trevor as Captain of Football at Wrykyn and had found the post anything but a sinecure For Wrykyn had fallen for the time being on evil days It was experiencing the reaction which so often takes place in a school in the year following a season of exceptional athletic prosperity With Trevor as captain of football both the Ripton matches had been won and also three out of the four other school matches In cricket the eleven had had an even finer record winning all their school matches and likewise beating the M C C and Old Wrykinians It was too early to prophesy concerning the fortunes of next term's cricket team but if they were going to resemble the fifteen Wrykyn was doomed to the worst athletic year it had experienced for a decade

P G Wodehouse - The White Feather P G Wodehouse, 2020-04-28 Pelham Grenville Wodehouse was born on 15th October

1881 in Guildford England to distinguished parents who were visiting the UK from Hong Kong where his father was a magistrate After two years in Hong Kong Wodehouse and his two brothers were sent back to England to live and be schooled Failing family finances meant that Wodehouse did not go on to University but began work straight away He wrote in the evenings and during a two year stint as a bank clerk managed to have over 80 pieces published With the publication of his first book The Pothunters in 1902 he devoted himself full time to writing His career was both prolific and commercially successful Whether it was novels short stories or plays everything seemed to be a hit His wonderful characterisation of the English upper classes combined with his mastery of prose left a lasting legacy most notably in his series of the humorous and sometimes hilarious Jeeves and Wooster stories that are at the pinnacle of comic writing and continue to be widely read and enjoyed Despite controversy over his broadcasts for the Germans during World War Two which stemmed more from naivety than any possible Nazi sympathies but which left a lingering stain against his name he continued to write although with diminishing success P G Wodehouse died on 14th February 1975 in the United States The White Feather P.g.
