Ferocious Minds Damien Broderick, 2005-01-01 Two centuries ago the first Enlightenment failed when its dream of reason smashed into the passions and fury of stubborn humans Without a deep broad understanding of the world the emerging Enlightenment was left floundering its best impulses perverted into the bloody excess of the French Revolution Arguably its idealism and noble goals led directly and shockingly to the 20th century's totalitarian nightmares Now the 21st century is learning anew the Faustian hunger to know everything that can be known But Enlightenment values of reason and tolerance enriched by new knowledge face a complex world no less eager to embrace medieval terrorism and ancient superstitions a world bizarrely denying itself many of the fresh opportunities and insights availed by science Can we find cures for poverty unhappiness ignorance the ruination of the planet aging and perhaps for death itself If so should we Damien Broderick's own ferocious mind invites you to explore today's unexpected treasure house of understanding and provides enticing glimpses of tomorrow's The Cambridge Companion to Science Fiction Edward James, Farah Mendlesohn, 2003-11-20 Science fiction is at the intersection of numerous fields It is a literature which draws on popular culture and which engages in speculation about science history and all types of social relations This volume brings together essays by scholars and practitioners of science fiction which look at the genre from these different angles After an introduction to the nature of science fiction historical chapters trace science fiction from Thomas More to more recent years including a chapter on film and television The second section introduces four important critical approaches to science fiction drawing their theoretical inspiration from Marxism postmodernism feminism and queer theory The final and largest section of the book looks at various themes and sub genres of science fiction A number of well known science fiction writers contribute to this volume including Gwyneth Jones Ken MacLeod Brian Stableford Andy Duncan James Gunn Joan Slonczewski and Damien Broderick
