Turkish Delight Jan Wolkers, 2017-03-21 The story of a tempestuous love affair and the basis for Paul Verhoeven's Oscar nominated film Wolkers's controversial masterpiece comes alive in a new translation Upon its original publication in 1969 Turkish Delight was a sensation and a scandal Its graphic language and explicit sex scenes had an explosive effect but just as revolutionary was its frank colloquial style The more straightlaced critics condemned the book but readers saw a novel that reflected the way that they spoke thought and felt Turkish Delight opens with a screed a sculptor in his studio raging against the love he lost and describing in gory detail the state of his life since she left him Our narrator alternates between the story of his relationship with Olga its passion and affection but also its obsessiveness and abuse and the dark days that followed as he attempts to recapture what they had when they lived together happy as beasts The two only reunite during Olga's inexorable and tragic decline into cancer the chemo having taken her hair and rotted her teeth she will only eat the soft sweet Turkish Delight that her ex lover brings to her bedside In a new translation by Sam Garrett Herman Koch's The Dinner readers get a sense of Wolkers's revolutionary style and musical prose Turkish Delight's particular balance of naked impulse and profound longing Tin House Books gratefully acknowledges the support of the Dutch Foundation for Literature whose generous subsidy made this new translation possible Turks fruit, 1975 Turks fruit / druk 1 Jan Hendrik

Astrid Erll,Ann Rigney,2009-07-14 This collection of essays brings together two major new developments in cultural memory studies firstly the shift away from static models of cultural memory where the emphasis lies on cultural products in the direction of more dynamic models where the emphasis lies instead on the cultural and social processes involved in the ongoing production of shared views of the past and secondly the growing interest in the role of the media and their role beyond that of mere storage within these dynamics The specific concern of this collection is linking the use of media to the larger socio cultural processes involved in collective memory making The focus rests in particular on two aspects of media use the basic dynamics of mediation and remediation The key questions are What role do media play in the production and circulation of cultural memories How do mediation remediation and intermediality shape objects and acts of cultural remembrance How can new emergent media redefine or transform what is collectively remembered The essays of this collection focus on social historical religious and artistic media memories The authors analyze the memory making impact of news media the mediation and remediation of lieux de m moire the medial representation of colonial and postcolonial of Holocaust and Second World War memories and finally the problematization of these very processes in artistic media forms such as novels and movies Turkish Delight Jan Wolkers,1974 Historical Dictionary of the Netherlands Joop W.
