The House of

Secrets Varda Polak-Sahm, 2009 The first inside look at the experiences of women who visit traditional mikvehs ritual baths used to achieve purity For Orthodox Jews immersion in the mikveh a ritual cleansing bath for women based on purity laws is the cornerstone of family life All Orthodox women must immerse in the mikveh before marriage and Ashkenazi women must immerse every month after their menstrual cycle before sexual relations with their husbands may resume But while the mikveh has been a tool for the exclusion of women it has also surprisingly become an instrument of women's power a place men cannot enter and thus cannot control Roused by her own experiences of immersion for eleven years Varda Polak-Sahm patiently observed and interviewed Jewish women using the mikveh gaining unprecedented access to the entirely hidden feminine culture and sensual atmosphere within traditional mikvehs The result is a richly nuanced uncensored look at an experience that is for some holy and for others coercive The House of Secrets gives voice to women from all branches of Judaism as they open up about what the mikveh means to them how it fits in with their attitudes toward religion its effect on their marriages and families as well as on their sexual physical and spiritual self perception and on their relationship with God Already widely praised in Israel this English translation provides a firsthand account of the power of ritual immersion for the growing number of American Jews interested in reclaiming this practice A Voice of Reason Sherry

Petro-Surdel, 2013-05-28 What you are about to read began in my heart and found its way to hand written words on 3 ring note book paper These thoughts that turn into the spoken word I call Reasonings The words were often spoken to a small group of seekers Churches often call them sermons or messages but I call them Reasonings in reference to a biblical passage in Isaiah 1:18 Come now and let us reason together saith the Lord This infers to me that it is a co creation experience I also appreciate the Rasta spiritual perspective that calls this co creation process Reasonings to understand or as Rastafarians say to overstand the ways of God
