People Do All Day these joyous portraits of Black men engaged in everyday life celebrate the deep roots and rich cultures of African American communities Have you ever wondered What do brothas do all day Brothas drive Brothas dance Brothas places jobs and activities that defined the daily lives of grown ups Author illustrator Ajuan Mance created What Do Brothas Do All Day like Scarry in response to children's innate curiosity about the activities and experiences of others but also to meet the longing many kids have for characters and communities that look and feel like the people and places they know This joyous reflection of real Black men and boys engaged in everyday life is a gift for Black kids who rarely see themselves reflected in the pages of a book and an affirmation of their world and the people who populate it From grocery shopping and affirming the enduring strength of the Black community DIVERSE BOOKS FOR KIDS This picture book features real Black men the author has observed in the world everyday people not models or stereotypes One fan describes it as just a rainbow of Black men a beautiful rainbow of Black men LIBRARIAN LOVE What Do Brothas Do All Day began as an all ages zine but the author began to conceive of it as a children's book after being approached by two children's librarians INSPIRED BY A CLASSIC As the author notes in the book I first encountered Richard Scarry's work in the early 1970s when I was about six years old The world of adults with its grocery lists PTA meetings shopping trips and dinner parties seemed both tantalizingly exotic and impossibly complex Today those same descriptors can be applied to the ways that many people of all ages perceive Black men AN INVITATION The book ends with an invitation perhaps even a call to action What will you do today Perfect for Parents and grandparents seeking engaging read aloud and read along picture books Teachers and librarians looking for books featuring Black communities Gift for readers of Jacqueline Woodson Kwame Alexander Cedella Marley and Derrick

Worldbuilding for Game Designers Steve Dee,2025-06-02 Our modern world is dominated by giant media companies and increasingly they don t so much sell story characters or gameplay as they do their setting Fictional worlds are big business and represent big value to companies and audiences alike and they are increasingly expected and demanded by both As yet however the art of building worlds has been only taught to writers of novels or films The same worlds are frequently used across different modes of media but successfully adapting them to games or building them for this purpose requires a specific approach Unlike all other artforms games mandate participation with the audience stepping into the world of the game and taking on the roles that the rules and pieces demand of them Likewise whenever an audience engages with a fictional world they are inherently playing a game of make believe and imagining themselves within a different context This makes world building and gaming a perfect match with each element giving more power to the other This book unlocks exactly how the two disciplines are entwined and work together and how a designer can harness that synergy to the best effect The text is composed of short focused chapters that explain every step of building a compelling world from getting your first ideas to moving towards publication It also provides a deeper understanding of the how and why of world creation and why worlds have so much power over us as players and as people Covers every step of world creation from getting ideas to seeking publication A comprehensive analysis of the field Inspirational tricks to break blocks or find new angles Practical exercises at the end of every chapter Simple and accessible for every kind of game or game designer Richard Scarry's Great Big Schoolhouse Richard Scarry,2025-07-01 Go back to school with Huckle Cat Lowly Worm and all their friends in this Busytown book Learn about numbers letters colors and more A great way to introduce young children to Richard Scarry s

Hester, Jr.,2010-09-24 Shows how to combine the forces of ecological science and participatory democracy to design urban landscapes that enable us to act as communities are resilient rather than imperiled and touch our hearts Over the last fifty years the process of community building has been lost in the process of city building City and suburban design divides us from others in our communities destroys natural habitats and fails to provide a joyful context for our lives In Design for Ecological Democracy Randolph Hester proposes a remedy for our urban anomie He outlines new principles for urban design that will allow us to forge connections with our fellow citizens and our natural environment He demonstrates these principles with abundantly illustrated examples drawn from forty years of design and planning practice showing how we can design cities that are ecologically resilient that enhance community and that give us pleasure Hester argues that it is only by combining the powerful forces of ecology and democracy that the needed revolution in design will take place Democracy bestows freedom ecology creates responsible freedom by explaining our interconnectedness with all creatures Hester s new design principles are founded on three fundamental issues that integrate democracy and ecology enabling form resilient form and impelling form Urban design must enable us to be communities rather than zoning segregated enclaves and to function as informed democracies A simple bench at a centrally located post office for example provides an opportunity for connection and shared experience Cities must be ecologically resilient rather than ecologically imperiled adaptable to the surrounding ecology rather than dependent on technological fixes Resilient form turns increased urban density for example into an advantage And cities should impel us by joy rather than compel us by fear good cities enrich us rather than limit us Design for Ecological Democracy is essential reading for designers planners environmentalists community activists and anyone else who wants to improve a local community
