When I Was A Child I Read Books By Marilynne Robinson

J. Gordon McConville

When I Was A Child I Read Books By Marilynne Robinson:

When I Was A Child I Read Books Marilynne Robinson, 2012-03-22 From the author of the magnificent award winning novels GILEAD HOME and LILA comes this wonderful heart warming collection of essays about reading Grace and intelligence her work defines universal truths about what it means to be human Barack Obama Marilynne Robinson is not only a writer of sharp subtly moving fiction but also a rigorous thinker and incisive essayist In this luminous collection she returns to the themes which have preoccupied her bestselling novels the place literature has in life the role of faith in modern living the contradictions inherent in human nature Clear eyed and forceful as ever Robinson demonstrates once again why she is regarded as one of our best loved writers The Elusive Everyday in the Fiction of Marilynne Robinson

Laura E. Tanner, 2021 A study of the fiction of Pulitzer Prize winning novelist Marilynne Robinson It uses a variety of critical approaches to explore the way that the novelist plays her large theme of loss into the meticulously created everyday world of her characters

The Beauty of Souls Mark S. M. Scott, 2025-03-18 What is beauty What is the soul What facilitates our apprehension of beauty in ourselves others and the world and what impedes it In The Beauty of Souls Mark S M Scott explores these spiritual questions through a dynamic synthesis of theology philosophy and literature Focusing on Pulitzer Prize winning novelist Marilynne Robinson s novels and essays Scott gleans transformational insights about the life of the soul Scott argues that Robinson s writings spiritually sensitize her readers preparing them for deeper levels of soul discovery and soul formation Excavating Robinson s conception of beauty and its relation to the soul Scott traces themes of perception contemplation growth loss brokenness wonder and redemption through Robinson s writings particularly her magisterial Gilead saga The Beauty of Souls guides readers through the complexity of the spiritual life in critical and creative dialogue with Robinson s signature works It shows that Robinson s fiction does more than simply display and evoke beauty it offers a philosophical theological framework to discover and express the beauty of our own souls Take and Read Paul G.

Doerksen, 2016-09-22 Take and Read is a collection of essays first presented as oral theological reflections on books written to stimulate conversations among diverse groups of readers which included farmers physicians teachers poets novelists scientists people involved in business finance relief work and many other walks of life ranging in age from twenty something to eighty These reflections introduce and offer samples of theological readings of a variety of books The result is a collection of essays addressing a wide range of topics from food security to violence from dementia to indigenous issues Perhaps this book is best described as an invitation to joining a conversation about books and more importantly about God ETHICAL

REALISM: NUMINOUS VISIONARY EXPERIENCE IN MARILYNNE ROBINSON'S SELECT WORKS Dr. M.

HERMINA, 2023-04-24 American writing in English has been acclaimed around the world for its radical innovative approaches towards novel writing The American writers match with the pace of the world with their individuality creativity and ideology The women novelists are recognized from their originality and versatility of their works They mirror the realistic picture of their contemporary world with the revolutionary spirit These women writers have shaped their literary endeavors to establish American literature as an inextricable part and have highlighted the new dimension and depth of American fiction The twentieth century novelists have played a noteworthy part in modern fiction and have viewed the society from a realistic attitude and humanistic concern Philosophy psychology and theology frame the method of characterization and plots The American culture is presented at the exploration of the psychological state of human mind They portray individuality within the social and political realities especially among the familial relationships According to feminist writers their writing is a process of discovering reality and an attempt to fathom and communicate the true significance of humanity fecundity of Robinson's art and thought The book begins with an annotated timeline and concludes with a substantive written interview with Robinson wherein she reflects on her work and its reception A tremendous resource for Robinson enthusiasts and for readers interested in the questions she raises in her fiction and non fiction The Other Journal: Evil Andrew Shutes-David, 2012-10-25 THE OTHER JOURNAL EVIL Description This world is a fallen place rife with suffering oppression and violence a land of tsunamis and earthquakes genocide and crime sprees We are surrounded on all sides by brokenness yet we have difficulty spotting its source We see the effects of evil yet we rarely grasp its true nature and breadth In issue 20 of The Other Journal our contributors analyze the haunting opacity of evil and call us to name and resist its insidious influence The issue features essays and reviews by Brian Bantum Gregory A Boyd Andrew W E Carlson Jacob H Friesenhahn David Kline Agustin Maes Rebecca Martin Branson Parler Anthony B Pinn Dan Rhodes and Lauren Wilford interviews by Allison Backous Brandy Daniels Chris Keller Ronald A Kuipers and David Kline with Richard Beck J Kameron Carter Richard Kearney C Melissa Snarr and Christian Wiman and fiction and poetry by Mark Fleming Chad Gusler Jennifer Strange and Kali Wagner Other Issues of The Other Journal The Other Journal The Food Issue The Other Journal The Celebrity Issue Other Books by The Other Journal Sects Love and Rock Roll by Joel Heng Hartse The Spirit of Food edited by Leslie Leyland Fields Jesus Girls edited by Hannah Faith Notess God Is Dead and I Don't Feel So Good Myself edited by Andrew David Christopher J Keller Jon Stanley Remembering the Future edited by Chris Keller Andrew David The Sentimental Mode Jennifer A. Williamson, Jennifer Larson, Ashley Reed, 2014-02-28 This collection of new essay examines how authors of the 20th and 21st centuries continue the use of sentimental forms and tropes of 19th century literature Current literary and cultural critical consensus seems to maintain that Americans engaged in a turn of the century refutation of the sentimental mode an analysis of 20th and 21st century narratives however reveals an ongoing use of sentimental expression that draws upon its ability to instruct and influence readers through their emotions While these later narratives employ aspects of the sentimental mode many of them also engage in a critique of the failures of the sentimental deconstructing 19th century perspectives on race class and gender and the ways they are promoted by sentimental ideals A Political Companion to Marilynne Robinson Shannon L. Mariotti, Joseph H. Lane Jr., 2016-11-08 Marilynne Robinson is arguably one of the most important writers of our time Her voice resonates across the richly imagined American landscapes within which she grounds her stories of love and loss alienation and belonging injustice and redemption Robinson's award winning body of work including Gilead winner of the 2005 Pulitzer Prize for Fiction and the National Book Critics Circle Award Home winner of the Orange Prize and the Los Angeles Times Book Prize and Lila winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award has cultivated admiration all over the world offering readers new and profound interpretations of the meanings of transience presence convention and resistance In A Political Companion to Marilynne Robinson Shannon L Mariotti and Joseph H Lane Jr assemble both rising and established political theorists to explore the juxtaposition of Robinson's nonfiction works and her novels and to examine their connections to contemporary political issues The collection analyzes Robinson's writings on American democracy, community, and freedom and it includes an engrossing interview with the author specifically conducted for this volume From an exploration of the democratic potential in being a housekeeper of homelessness to a study of models of action against racial injustice this volume provides fascinating new insights into Robinson's work and how it reflects and reassesses American political culture and theory

Paper Minds Jonathan Kramnick, 2018-09-07 How do poems and novels create a sense of mind What does literary criticism say in conversation with other disciplines that addresses problems of consciousness In Paper Minds Jonathan Kramnick takes up these vital questions exploring the relations between mind and environment the literary forms that uncover such associations and the various fields of study that work to illuminate them Opening with a discussion of how literary scholarship's particular methods can both complement and remain in tension with corresponding methods particular to the sciences Paper Minds then turns to a series of sharply defined case studies Ranging from eighteenth-century poetry and haptic theories of vision to fiction and contemporary problems of consciousness to landscapes in which all matter is sentient to cognitive science and the rise of the novel Kramnick's essays are united by a central thematic authority This unified approach of these essays shows us what distinctive knowledge that literary texts and literary criticism can contribute to discussions of perceptual consciousness, created and natural environments, and skilled engagements with the world

American Literature Krishna Sharma, This book provides the knowledge of American literature from American Renaissance to post-modern era

The Matter of High Words Robert Chodat, 2017 In a world of matter how can we express what matters This book examines a constellation of post-WWII authors who pose this question through both art and argument Seeking to dramatize our highest words these postwar sages raise essential questions about meaning, language, science, and modernity

Discrepant Solace David James, 2019 Consolation has always played an uncomfortable part in the literary history of loss But in recent decades its affective meanings and ethical implications have been recast by narratives that appear at first sight to foil solace altogether Illuminating this striking archive Discrepant Solace considers writers who engage with consolation not as an aesthetic salve but as an enduring problematic one that unravels at the centre of emotionally challenging works of late twentieth and twenty-first-century fiction and life writing The book understands solace as a generative yet conflicted aspect of style where microelements of diction, rhythm, and syntax capture consolation's alternating desirability and contestation With a wide-angle lens on the contemporary scene David James examines writers who are rarely considered in conversation including Sonali Deraniyagala, Colson Whitehead, Cormac McCarthy, W.G. Sebald, Doris Lessing, Joan Didion, J.M. Coetzee, Marilynne Robinson, Julian Barnes, Helen Macdonald, Ian McEwan, Colm Toibin, Kazuo Ishiguro, Denise Riley, and David Grossman These figures overturn critical suppositions about consolation's kinship with ideological complaisance, superficial mitigation, or dubious distraction, producing unsettling perceptions of solace that shape the formal and political contours of their writing Through intimate readings of novels and memoirs that explore seemingly indescribable experiences of grief trauma remorse and dread James demonstrates how they turn consolation into a condition of expressional possibility without ever promising us relief He also supplies vital traction to current conversations about the stakes of thinking with contemporary writing to scrutinize affirmative structures of feeling revealing unexpected common ground between the operations of literary consolation and the urgencies of cultural critique

Discrepant Solace makes the close reading of emotion crucial to understanding the work literature does in our precarious present

Being Human in God's World J. Gordon McConville, 2016-08-16 A Biblical Perspective on What It Means to Be Human This major work by a widely respected Old Testament scholar and theologian unpacks a biblical perspective on fundamental questions of what it means to be human J Gordon McConville explores how a biblical view of humanity provides a foundation for Christian reflection on ethics economics politics and church life and practice The book shows that the Old Testament's view of humanity as earthed and embodied plays an essential part in a well rounded Christian theology and spirituality and applies the theological concept of the image of God to all areas of human existence

Reading Genesis Marilynne Robinson, 2024-03-14 A brilliant and dramatic close reading of the first book of the Bible focussing on the complex relationship with humankind A work of exceptional wisdom and imagination DR ROWAN WILLIAMS DAILY TELEGRAPH Rich and provoking Robinson has masterfully traced a sense of wonder back to its ancient remarkable source JULIAN COMAN OBSERVER Reading Genesis is alive with questions of kindness community and how to express what we so often struggle to put into words NEW YORK TIMES MAGAZINE For generations the Book of Genesis included in its entirety here has been treated by scholars as a collection of documents by various hands expressing different factional interests with borrowings from other ancient literatures that mark the text as derivative In other words academic interpretation of Genesis has centered on the question of its basic coherence just as fundamentalist interpretation has centered on the question of the appropriateness of reading it as literally true Marilynne Robinson's approach is different Hers is one of an appreciation of Genesis for its greatness as literature for its rich articulation and exploration of themes that resonate through the whole of Scripture She illuminates the importance of the stories of among others Adam and Eve Noah and his ark the rivalry of Cain and Abel and the father and son drama of Abraham and Isaac to consider the profound meanings and promise of God's enduring covenant with humankind Her magisterial book radiates gratitude for the constancy and benevolence of God's abiding faith in Creation
