Family (1945-1954) Richard Perceval Graves, 2024-08-28 Richard Perceval Graves who has written acclaimed biographies of A E Housman Richard Hughes the Powys Brothers and his uncle Robert Graves has now turned the spotlight on his own life and what it was like being brought up in a professional family in those far off days of the 1940s and 1950s Noel

Streatfeild Nancy Lyman Huse, 1994 In this comprehensive analysis of a woman hailed by her fellow Britons as a National Monument Nancy Huse argues that Streatfeild's work challenges the status of girls books described in most criticism as ephemeral or constituting a category separate from great books Huse attributes the appeal of Streatfeild's books to their contemporary themes and traditional values and finds that in exploring the tensions of heredity and environment Streatfeild anticipated many contemporary questions about the role of women the structure of the family and the implications of the class system In particular Huse notes Streatfeild in both her children's and adult novels used the poverty of women and their work in the domestic sphere to link the public with the private worlds shaping children Streatfeild's conservative upbringing rebellious youth and complex life long relationship with her family provided material for her novels according to Huse Streatfeild developed a conscious perspective on childhood that she used to defend child adult boundaries while sharpening story forms At the same time Huse contends her multifaceted talent admitted new subjects character types themes and information into the children's book because she assumed competence and intelligent curiosity as the basis of children's contributions to the family and to society In this vibrant portrait of the life and work of such an innovative children's writer Huse suggests some meaningful ways to evaluate the family novel the role of a children's novelist in preserving and constructing a historical record and the implications of formulaic patterns that derive from female experience Mental

Spaces in Grammar Barbara Dancygier, Eve Sweetser, 2005-07-07 Conditional constructions have long fascinated linguists grammarians and philosophers In this pioneering new study Barbara Dancygier and Eve Sweetser offer a new descriptive framework for the study of conditionality broadening the range of richly described conditional constructions They explore theoretical issues such as the mental space building processes underlying conditional thinking and the form meaning relationship involved in expressing conditionality Using a broad range of attested English conditional constructions the book examines inter constructional relationships Within the framework of Mental Spaces Theory shared parameters of meaning are shown to be relevant to conditional constructions generally as well as related temporal and causal constructions This significant contribution to the field will be welcomed by a wide range of researchers in theoretical and cognitive linguistics

the definitive collection of timeless stories for every child. Now a major production at the National Theatre. We three Fossils vow to try to put our name into history books because it's our very own and nobody can say it's because of our grandfathers. Pauline Petrova and Posy Fossil are sisters with a difference. All three were adopted as babies by Great Uncle Matthew, an eccentric and rich explorer who then disappeared, leaving them in the care of his niece Sylvia. When Sylvia starts to run out of money, they hit on an inspired idea: Pauline Petrova and Posy will attend Madame Fidolia's Children's Academy of Dance and Stage Training and take to the stage. But it's not long before the Fossils learn that being a star isn't as easy as they first thought. Ballet Shoes is the magical, warm-hearted and much-loved classic tale of three very different girls who work hard to master their talents.

A Necessary Fantasy? Dudley Jones, Tony Watkins, 2021-10-28 This book addresses a variety of issues through the examination of heroic figures in children's popular literature, comics, film and television.
