Wild Dogs By Helen Humphreys:

Wild Dogs Helen Humphreys, 2005-07-25 The author of the bestseller The Lost Garden returns with a luminous novel of intertwining stories that meet in a haunting moving climax Each evening at dusk six people gather at the edge of the woods calling their dogs to come back to them dogs that have turned wild and vanished from their lives Drawn together by need the group forms its own small community until violence strikes unexpectedly Humphreys graceful writing her superb eye for detail her sensitivity and intelligence combine to produce an unforgettable story about the wild in all of us And a Dog Called Fig Helen Humphreys, 2025-09-23 And a Dog Called Fig is the story of one writer's life with dogs including a frisky new puppy how they are uniquely ideal companions for building a creative life and some delightful tales about dogs and their famous writers Into my writer's isolation will come a dog to sit beside my chair or to lie on the couch while I work to force me outside for a walk and suddenly although still lonely this writer will have a companion An artist's solitude is a sacred space one to be guarded from the chaos of the world where the sparks of inspiration can be kindled into fires of creation But within this quiet also lie loneliness self doubt the danger of collapsing too far inward An artist needs a familiar a companion with emotional intelligence innate curiosity an enthusiasm for the world beyond but also the capacity to rest contentedly for many hours What an artist needs Helen Humphreys would say is a dog And a Dog Called Fig is a memoir of the writing life told through the dogs Humphreys has lived with and loved over a lifetime including Fig her new Vizsla puppy Interspersed are stories of other writers and their own irreplaceable companions Virginia Woolf and Grizzle Gertrude Stein and Basket Thomas Hardy and Wessex who walked the dining table at dinner parties taking whatever he liked and many more A love song to the dogs who come into our lives and all that they bring sorrow mayhem reflection joy this is a book about steadfast friendship and loss creativity and craft and the restorative powers of nature Every work of art is different so too is every dog with distinctive needs and lessons And if we let them guide us they will show us many worlds we would otherwise miss Includes Black and White Photographs Nightwood Theatre Shelley Scott, 2010 Nightwood Theatre is the longest running and most influential feminist theatre company in Canada Since 1979 the company has produced works by Canadian women providing new opportunities for women theatre artists It has also been the home company for some of the biggest names in Canadian theatre such as Ann Marie MacDonald In Nightwood Theatre Scott describes the company's journey toward defining itself as a feminist theatre establishment highlighting its artistic leadership based on its relevance to diverse communities of women She also traces Nightwood's relationship with the media and places the theatre in an international context by comparing its history to that of like companies in the U K and the U S The Harp Lesson Emma Tennant, 2005 At a young age Pamela Sims is taken from her humble home in England to the French court where she is brought up on a life of luxury as the illegitimate daughter of the beautiful Madame de Genlis Recounted through the voices of the woman who was to become known as La Belle Pamela and her daughter this novel vividly tells how her past shaped their extraordinary lives capturing the atmosphere of eighteenth century France and the complexity of a world where your origins create your identity

BOOK JACKET The Evening Chorus Helen Humphreys, 2015-02-03 A delicate and incandescent novel of love loss escape and the ways the natural world can save us amid the chaos of war

San Francisco Chronicle World War II Downed during his first mission James Hunter is taken captive as a German POW To bide his time he studies a nest of redstarts at the edge of camp Some prisoners plot escape some are shot And then one day James is called to the Kommandant's office Meanwhile back home James's new wife Rose is on her own free in a way she has never known Then James's sister Enid loses everything during the Blitz and must seek shelter with Rose In a cottage near Ashdown Forest the two women jealously guard secrets but form a surprising friendship Each of these characters finds unexpected freedom amid war's privations and discover confinements that come with peace Beautifully written and extremely controlled The Washington Post Lyrical Humphreys is a metaphysical novelist for her intricate emotional content finds specific analogues in the made world The New Yorker With her trademark prose exquisitely limpid Humphreys convinces us of the birdlike strength of the powerless Emma Donoghue This riveting novel is a song Listen Richard Bausch

Brick, 2005 Coventry: A Novel Helen Humphreys, 2010-02-22 Elegant illuminates the impact of war on ordinary people an elegy and a celebration Ann Hood author of The Knitting Circle On the evening of November 14 1940 Harriet Marsh stands on the roof of the historic Coventry cathedral and marvels at the frost glittering beneath a full moon But it is a bomber's moon and the Luftwaffe is coming to unleash destruction on the city For Harriet for the young fire watcher Jeremy standing beside her and for his artist mother Maeve hiding in a cellar this single night of horror will resonate for the rest of their lives Coventry is a testament to the power of the human spirit an honest and ultimately uplifting account of heartache transformed into compassion and love

Earned Wisdom Julie Simmons,2011-11-23 EARNED WISDOM BECOMING AN ELDER IN TIMES OF CHAOS is a guidebook for women age 50 and up It takes the reader on a symbolic journey into and through the elder years taking into account these times of intense change and unpredictability in which we live It focuses on the inner and outer experiences of women using the ancient symbolic language of astrology This book offers exercises and meditations to support both the personal and universal transitions experienced at this stage in life Using basic and easily accessible information about the astrological make up of an individual EARNED WISDOM focuses on consciously integrating our awareness of any and all of the experiences of childhood and adulthood to aid in living fully as an elder in these challenging and difficult times To work with the information in this book it is not necessary to have an astrological chart It is enough to know the day and year you were born EARNED WISDOM Part Two will address this transition for men Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title

Sea Change Michael Arditti, 2006-09-01 The enthralling story of a refugee from Nazi Germany and his voyage to a new life across the Atlantic A moving and heartening story in which spirit triumphs over political barbarity Edna O'Brien Brilliant use of a momentous journey A gripping and adroit fusion of history with personal drama Rose Tremain This is the story of how I became a man In May 1939 the SS St Louis left Hamburg for Havana carrying almost a thousand refugees from Hitler's Germany Over the following weeks the ship crisscrossed the ocean buffeted alternately by hope and disappointment as it sought asylum in a friendly port and war drew inexorably closer Based on actual events Michael Arditti's enthralling novel is the memoir of one of the passengers fifteen year old Karl heir to a department store fortune He recounts both the horror and excitement of the trip along with his personal voyage of discovery as he learns the truth about his family battles Nazi crew members and plans mutiny Most momentously he describes his first passionate love affair with the beautiful young Johanna

Animal Subjects 2.0 Jodey Castricano, Lauren Corman, 2016-12-10 Animal Subjects An Ethical Reader in a Posthuman World WLU Press 2008 challenged cultural studies to include nonhuman animals within its purview While the question of the animal ricochets across the academy and reverberates within the public sphere Animal Subjects 2.0 builds on the previous book and takes stock of this explosive turn It focuses on both critical animal studies and posthumanism two intertwining conversations that ask us to reconsider common sense understandings of other animals and what it means to be human This collection demonstrates that many pressing contemporary social problems how and why the oppression and exploitation of our species persist are entangled with our treatment of other animals and the environment Decades into the interrogation of our ethical and political responsibilities toward other animals fissures within the academy deepen as the interest in animal ethics and politics proliferates Although ideological fault lines have inspired important debates about how to address the very material concerns informing these theoretical discussions Animal Subjects 2.0 brings together divergent voices to suggest how to foster richer human animal relations and to cultivate new ways of thinking and being with the rest of animalkind This collection demonstrates that appreciation of difference not just similarity is necessary for a more inclusive and compassionate world Linking issues of gender disability culture race and sexuality into species Animal Subjects 2.0 maps vibrant developments in the emergent fields of critical animal studies and posthumanist thought

Cyborg Saints Carissa Smith, 2019-09-02 Saints are currently undergoing a resurrection in middle grade and young adult fiction as recent prominent novels by Socorro Aciole Julie Berry Adam Gidwitz Rachel Hartman Merrie Haskell Gene Luen Yang and others demonstrate Cyborg Saints Religion and Posthumanism in Middle Grade and Young Adult Fiction makes the radical claim that these holy medieval figures are actually the new cyborgs in that they dethrone the autonomous subject of humanist modernity While young people navigate political and personal forces as well as technologies that threaten to fragment and thingify them saints show that agency is still possible outside of the humanist construct of subjectivity The saints of these neomedievalist novels through living a life vulnerable to the other attain a distributed agency that accomplishes miracles through bodies and places and things relics icons pilgrimage sites and ultimately the hagiographic text and its reader spread across time Cyborg Saints analyzes MG and YA fiction through the triple lens of posthumanism neomedievalism and postsecularism Cyborg Saints charts new ground in joining religion and posthumanism to represent the creativity and diversity of young people's fiction

Reclaiming Calliope Fides Krucker, 2022-08-02 The practice and politics of the unfettered female voice reclaiming your power through voice song and opera inspired exercises For centuries opera has used women's voices to convey male stories Within an art form dominated by men the female voice is a means to an end controlled denatured and crafted to carry words and intentions that belie the true depth and complexity of the female experience Here author and opera singer Fides Krucker shows readers what it means to find and use our authentic voice to sing wildly and uninhibited from the depths of our bodies and spirits Part memoir part radical vocal guide and part feminist call to action Reclaiming Calliope offers an intriguing look at the rarified world of opera with fascinating behind the scenes details to which outsiders don't typically have access Through incisive critique personal stories and intriguing expos Krucker razes the male gaze that packaged characters like Carmen Tosca and La traviata's Violetta for viewer consumption and radically envisions an empowered new way of finding and fueling the authentic female voice Through a series of breathing and vocal prompts that anyone not just singers can do Krucker helps readers reconnect to their authentic primal voices she takes the reader inside her vocal studio to learn new methods of breath voicework and embodiment to uncover and access personal and social truths Each chapter includes a theme related exercise an act of expression release self discovery or resistance that guides readers to develop voices unbound from anyone else's storytelling boldly and without apology

The French Dancer's Bastard Emma Tennant, 2006 Adele Varens is eight when she goes to live with Mr Rochester who may or may not be her father She longs to return to Paris and to her mother who has been lost to her Her loneliness would be complete were it not for the young governess who arrives to care for her although Adele at first regards her with suspicion and dislike
