

AUSTRALIA'S FIRST GREAT WINEMAKER was a pioneer. He walked over a ridge covered in the dense, bushy scrub of the south coast of New South Wales and in a few rugged vineyards he laid a vine that, when finally opened in 1850, and only some 100 years later, would make people gasp. He made these wines without electricity, without one kind of personal or professional convenience, and with a broken back. What he managed to win was not a medal, the first without favouring of the liquid he put his sweat would become. The Wine Hunter is the story of BARTE PAUL, creator of Australia's first fine wine.

This is the best book on wine to be published in Australia for many years now.
