Acquainted With The Night Excursions Through The World After Dark:

Acquainted with the Night Christopher Dewdney, 2008-12-06 Weaving together science and storytelling art and anthropology Dewdney takes readers on a fascinating journey through the nocturnal realm In twelve chapters corresponding to the twelve hours of night he illuminates night's central themes including sunsets nocturnal animals bedtime stories festivals of the night fireworks astronomy nightclubs sleep and dreams the graveyard shift the art of darkness and endless nights With infectious curiosity a lyrical intimate tone and an eye for nighttime beauties both natural and man made Christopher Dewdney paints a captivating portrait of our hours in darkness Christopher Dewdney is the author of three books of nonfiction Last Flesh The Secular Grail and The Immaculate Perception as well as eleven books of poetry A three time nominee for Governor General's Awards and a first prize winner of the CBC Literary Competition Dewdney lives in Toronto Ontario As you read these pages your life will change because the way you see half of it will change The night we're all familiar with will emerge as a fresh thing deeper fuller older younger more evocative more intimate larger more spectacular and yes more magical and much more thrilling Margaret Atwood Globe and Mail A felicitous literary gambol from dusk till dawn Dewdney throws himself headlong into the deep pool of his subject Sue Halpern Newsday An enjoyable and instructive read Sven Birkerts Boston Globe Also available HC 1 58234 396 9 24 95 Scanning the Hypnograph Nathaniel Wallace, 2016-09-07 Nathaniel Wallace's Scanning the Hypnograph chronicles a contemporary genre that exploits sleep's evocative dimensions While dreams sleeping nudes and other facets of the dormant state were popular with artists of the early twentieth century and long before sleep experiences have given rise to an even wider range of postmodern artwork Scanning the Hypnograph first assesses the modernist framework wherein the sleeping subject typically enjoys firm psychic grounding As postmodernism begins subjective space is fragmented the representation of sleep reflecting the trend Among other topics this book demonstrates how portrayals of dormant individuals can reveal imprints of the self Gender issues are taken up as well Mainstream heterosexual representations are considered along with depictions of gay lesbian and androgynous sleepers Night Passages Elisabeth Bronfen, 2013 In the beginning was the night All light shapes language and subjective consciousness as well as the world and art depicting them emerged from this formless chaos In fantasy we seek to return to this original darkness Particularly in literature visual representations and film the night resiliently resurfaces from the margins of the knowable acting as a stage and state of mind in which exceptional perceptions discoveries and decisions play out Elisabeth Bronfen follows nocturnal spaces in which extraordinary events unfold enabling the irrational exploration of desire transformation ecstasy transgression spiritual illumination and moral choice She begins with classical myths depicting the creation of the world and moves through nocturnal scenes in Shakespeare and Milton Gothic figurations Hegel's romantic philosophy and Freud's psychoanalysis In modern times she shows how literature and film particularly film noir transmit that piece of night the modern subject carries within From Mozart's Queen of the Night to Virginia Woolf's oscillation between day and night life and death and chaos and aesthetic form Bronfen renders something visible conceivable and tellable from the dark realms of the unknown Children of the Outer Dark Christopher Dewdney, 2009-10-21 A four time Governor General's award nominee for both poetry and non fiction Christopher Dewdney is celebrated internationally as a writer and a visionary and is best known for his particular imagining of place and memory Beginning with Paleozoic fossil formations in southwestern Ontario and moving through eons of natural history to cityscapes and the digital present Dewdney's poetics encapsulate often surreal experiences from radical and epiphenomenal perspectives His writing vibrates in a standing wave between science and art reason and myth embedding geology neurophysiology linguistics and post digital technology within a play of transitory viewpoints Children of the Outer Dark provides a geological survey of Dewdney's poetic strata The poems selected along with their order of presentation serve a critical function to mine diverse layers of development in Dewdney's career This collection will reward all those who seek inspiration and will provide teachers students and other writers with a short natural history of one of Canada's essential poetic minds The Dome of Eden Stephen H. Webb, 2010-01-01 What would biology look like if it took the problem of natural evil seriously This book argues that biological descriptions of evolution are inherently moral just as the biblical story of creation has biological implications A complete account of evolution will therefore require theological input The Dome of Eden does not try to harmonize evolution and creation Harmonizers typically begin with Darwinism and then try to add just enough religion to make evolution more palatable or they begin with Genesis and pry open the creation account just wide enough to let in a little bit of evolution By contrast Stephen Webb provides a theory of how evolution and theology fit together and he argues that this kind of theory is required by the internal demands of both theology and biology The Dome of Eden also develops a theological account of evolution that is distinct from the intelligent design movement Webb shows how intelligent design properly discerns the inescapable dimension of purpose in nature but like Darwinism itself fails to make sense of the problem of natural evil Finally this book draws on the work of Karl Barth to advance a new reading of the Genesis narrative and the theology of Duns Scotus to provide the necessary metaphysical foundation for evolutionary thought The Art of City Making Charles Landry, 2012-05-16 City making is an art not a formula The skills required to re-enchant the city are far wider than the conventional ones like architecture engineering and land use planning There is no simplistic ten point plan but strong principles can help send good city making on its way The vision for 21st century cities must be to be the most imaginative cities for the world rather than in the world This one change of word from in to for gives city making an ethical foundation and value base It helps cities become places of solidarity where the relations between the individual the group outsiders to the city and the planet are in better alignment Following the widespread success of The Creative City this new book aided by international case studies explains how to reassess urban potential so that cities can strengthen their identity and adapt to the changing global terms of trade and mass migration It explores the deeper fault lines paradoxes and strategic dilemmas that make creating the good city so difficult

Dark Places Barry Curtis, 2009-02-15 Horror films revel in taking viewers into shadowy places where the evil resides whether it is a house a graveyard or a dark forest These mysterious spaces foment the terror at the heart of horror movies empowering the ghastly creatures that emerge to kill and torment With Dark Places Barry Curtis leads us deep inside these haunted spaces to explore them and the monstrous antagonists who dwell there In this wide ranging and compelling study Curtis demonstrates how the claustrophobic interiors of haunted spaces in films connect to the dark places of the human psyche He examines diverse topics such as the special effects ranging from crude to state of the art used in movies to evoke supernatural creatures the structures projections and architecture of horror movie sets and ghosts as symbols of loss amnesia injustice and vengeance Dark Places also examines the reconfiguration of the haunted house in film as a motel an apartment a road or a spaceship and how these reimagined spaces thematically connect to Gothic fictions Curtis draws his examples from numerous iconic films including Nosferatu Psycho The Texas Chainsaw Massacre and The Shining as well as lesser known international works which allow him to consider different cultural ideas of haunting Japanese horror films and their Hollywood remakes such as Ringu and The Ring or Juon and The Grudge come under particular scrutiny as he explores Japanese cinema's preoccupation with malevolent forces from the past Whether you love the splatter of blood or prefer to hide under the couch Dark Places cuts to the heart of why we are drawn to carnage

Reverse Meditation Andrew Holecek, 2023-07-11 Disruptive practices to revolutionize your relationship with meditation and fully engage with the full breadth of your experience Why do we meditate The main reason most modern people start meditating is because it helps us feel better reducing anxiety improving sleep decluttering the mind and so forth But where does your meditation go when things go bad asks Andrew Holecek Where is your spirituality when rock meets bone as they say in Tibet when the crap hits the fan Reverse Meditation is for anyone who wants to bring the challenges of life onto the path of awakening When things get hard it's time to turn your practice on its head and throw out any assumption that meditation exists to insulate you from the confusion difficulties and uncertainty of life By putting your meditation into reverse Holecek teaches you'll actually find yourself going forward Step into your pain and you can step up your evolution With his signature blend of depth and accessibility Holecek invites you to explore Three core forms of meditation mindfulness open awareness and the boundary smashing reverse meditations How to know when you're ready to engage with reverse meditation On the spot practices for snapping into a meditative mindset in difficult situations Contraction and expansion how to dismantle habits of avoidance to become more open resilient and fully alive How reverse meditation opens you to a direct experience of the fundamental perfection of reality just as it is These unique meditations are designed to reverse our relationship to unwanted experiences which means going directly into them instead of avoiding them says Andrew Holecek It's not an easy journey yet this path leads to the discovery of unconditional happiness basic goodness and true freedom in the most turbulent situations

Hinterland Dreams Eric J. Morser, 2011-11-29 In the 1840s La Crosse Wisconsin was barely more than a trading post nestled on the banks of the Mississippi River But by 1900 the sleepy frontier town had become a thriving city Hinterland Dreams tracks the growth of this community and shows that government institutions and policies were as important as landscapes and urban boosters in determining the small Midwestern city's success The businessmen and women of La Crosse worked hard to attract government support during the nineteenth century Federal state and municipal officials passed laws issued rulings provided resources vested aldermen with financial and regulatory power and created a lasting legal foundation that transformed the city and its economy As historian Eric J Morser demonstrates the development of La Crosse and other small cities linked rural people to the wider world and provided large cities like Chicago with the lumber and other raw materials needed to grow even larger He emphasizes the role of these municipalities as well as their relationship to all levels of government in the life of an industrializing nation Punctuated with intriguing portraits of La Crosse's early citizens Hinterland Dreams suggests a new way to understand the Midwest's urban past one that has its roots in the small but vibrant cities that dotted the landscape By mapping the richly textured political economy of La Crosse before 1900 the book highlights how the American state provided hinterland Midwesterners with potent tools to build cities and help define their region's history in profound and lasting ways Book Review Index, 2006

Restless in Sleep Country Paul Huebener, 2024-05-14

Sleep and the lack of it is a public obsession and an enormous everyday quandary Troubled sleep tends to be seen as an individual problem and personal responsibility to be fixed by better habits and tracking gadgets but the reality is more complicated Sleep is a site of politics culture and power In Restless in Sleep Country Paul Huebener pulls back the covers on cultural representations of sleep to show how they are entangled with issues of colonialism homelessness consumer culture technology and privacy the exploitation of labour and the effects of the Covid 19 pandemic Even though it almost entirely evades direct experience sleep is the subject of a variety of potent narratives each of which can serve to clarify and shape its role in our lives In Canada cultural visions of slumber circulate through such diverse forms as mattress commercials billboards comic books memoirs experimental poetry and bedtime story phone apps By guiding us through this imaginative landscape Huebener shows us how to develop a critical literacy of sleep Lying down and closing our eyes is an act that carries surprisingly high stakes going beyond individual sleep troubles Restless in Sleep Country illuminates the idea of sleep as a crucial site of inequity struggle and gratification

Media are incorporated into our physical environments more dramatically than ever before literally opening up new spaces of interactivity and connection that transform the experience of being in the city Public gatherings and movement even the capabilities of democratic ideology have been redefined Urban Screens mobile media new digital mappings and ambient and pervasive media have all created new ecologies in cities How do we analyze these new spaces Recognition of the mutual histories and research programs of urban and media studies is only the beginning Cartographies of Place develops new vocabularies and methodologies for engaging with the distinctive situations and experiences created by media technologies which are reshaping augmenting and expanding urban spaces The book builds upon the rich traditions and insights of a post war generation of humanist scholars media theorists and urban planners Authors engage with different historical and contemporary currents in urban studies which share a common concern for media forms either as research tools or as the means for discerning the expressive nature of city spaces around the world All of the media considered here are not simply free floating but are deeply embedded in the geopolitical economic and material contexts in which they are used Cartographies of Place is exemplary of a new direction in interdisciplinary media scholarship opening up new ways of studying the complexities of cities and urban media in a global context The Three Hardest Words Leonard Sweet, 2010-05-26 Three simple words I love you capture the heart of Jesus' life and ministry These three words form the bottom line and top drawer of all his teachings And they remain the three hardest words in the world to get right Two pronouns and a verb have never been so difficult to grasp much less to practice Popular culture has ruined love's reputation by redefining it first as romance and then as lust But it's not just the meaning of the word love that causes so much confusion To fully understand love we also need to find out who we are in God's eyes and whom we are commanded to love Following Jesus can be described as the daily practice of all three words I Love You There is nothing more rewarding and nothing more risky Join Leonard Sweet in this eye opening life altering exploration of three simple one syllable words After all the lifestyle of love is the only life that Jesus calls you to live There is nothing more challenging than adopting the three word lifestyle of Jesus as your own Perhaps you have wondered why love seems to work for everyone else but not for you Or maybe you've done your best to love those around you but it seems that life has drained your last drop of trust and affection Nothing is better than love when it's right and nothing is more destructive than attempts at love that fail to follow the Jesus prescription for a healthy life Jesus devoted his earthly life to saying these three words I love you and teaching us how to say them As Jesus defined love it takes everything you've got and then even more which only God can give The lifestyle of love is not something you can master on your own but Jesus is ready to show you how Starting today you can learn to live I love you the three hardest words in the world to get right Leonard Sweet PhD serves as the E Stanley Jones Professor of Evangelism at Drew Theological School in Madison New Jersey He is also a Distinguished Visiting Professor at George Fox University in Newberg Oregon and founder and president of SpiritVenture Ministries He has written many books including Out of the Question Into the Mystery and the trilogy SoulTsunami AquaChurch and SoulSalsa
