The Zone of Interest Martin Amis, 2014 Shortlisted for the 2015 Walter Scott Prize Surely his masterpiece Intelligent terrifying and comic Amis has tackled the biggest questions with imagination and intelligence and the ultimate strength of this masterly novel is that he knows and shows that although there is no answer to the questions Auschwitz poses we must never stop asking them Read it ponder it revel in it indeed then read it again Allan Massie Scotsman There was an old story about a king who asked his favourite wizard to create a magic mirror This mirror didn't show you your reflection Instead it showed you your soul it showed you who you really were But the king couldn't look into the mirror without turning away and nor could his courtiers No one could What happens when we discover who we really are And how do we come to terms with it Fearless and original The Zone of Interest is a violently dark love story set against a backdrop of unadulterated evil and a vivid journey into the depths and contradictions of the human soul

Perpetrators in Holocaust Narratives Joanne Pettitt, 2017-04-19 This study provides a comprehensive analysis of representations of Holocaust perpetrators in literature Such texts often rather controversially seek to undo the myth of pure evil that surrounds the Holocaust and to reconstruct the perpetrator in more human banal terms Following this line of thought protagonists frequently place emphasis on the contextual or situational factors that led up to the genocide A significant consequence of this is the impact that it has on the reader who is thereby drawn into the narrative as a potential perpetrator who could in similar circumstances have acted in similar ways The tensions that this creates especially in relation to the construction of empathy constitutes a major focus of this work Making use of in excess of sixty primary sources this work explores fictional accounts of Holocaust perpetration as well as Nazi memoirs It will be of interest to anyone working in the broad areas of

Howard Jacobson's Novels in the Context of Contemporary British Jewish Literature Anténe, Petr, The novelist Howard Jacobson who received the 2010 Booker Prize for The Finkler Question has often been characterized as the British Philip Roth although he himself prefers to be viewed as the Jewish Jane Austen This monograph concludes that both comparisons may be used to comment on various features of Jacobson's oeuvre Like Roth Jacobson tends to focus on male Jewish protagonists and intimate relations between the sexes Like Austen he portrays a certain social class whether it be the British Jewish minority or the social world of British writers and university professors Apart from reflecting on the tension between Britishness and Jewishness as inseparable aspects of his characters' identities Jacobson's novels contribute to the traditions of British and Jewish humour

Shameless Tanya Gold, 2025-08-21 The Shoah is everywhere in popular culture but as it really was it is nowhere Tanya Gold In novels film and popular culture the Holocaust genre is booming Streaming hits and bestsellers are playing a vital role in shaping our understanding of the past But as Tanya Gold shows in this excoriating essay the creators of these works all too often engage in crass or self-serving exploitation In this new wave of Shoah blockbusters the destruction of the Jews becomes a plot device Auschwitz a readymade backdrop and the truth is elided or erased They pretend to be looking but they are looking away Shameless is a moral reckoning It traces the link between the glibness of these representations and the persistence of the hatred that fuelled the Shoah and warns of the dangers when memory is distorted and history is turned into spectacle

Gurdjieff Was Wrong But His Teaching Works Orest Stocco, 2016-02-07 Gurdjieff was wrong but his teaching works is the story of one man's remarkable journey of self-discovery which dispels the Gurdjieffian premise that man is not born with an immortal soul With his own quest Orest Stocco illustrates that we are all born with a spark of divine consciousness but not until we take evolution into our own hands which Gurdjieff's teaching helped him to do will we realize our true self

Clio's Bastards Curtis R. McManus, 2016-06-22 Clio's Bastards uses an examination of the discipline of history in Canadian universities as the point of entry for a much larger exploration of the intellectual spiritual and moral crisis confronting Western civilization today Over the past four decades academic history was slowly perverted as historians adopted new sociological approaches to the study of the past Historians altered the content purpose and goals of the discipline as they sought not Truth but Justice as part of a larger ideological program of radical social change And today the pervasive sociological way of seeing understanding and explaining our world has become the new common sense right across the Western world both inside and outside the academy Sociological thought however is neither new nor advanced nor is it progressive as its adherents claim it is simply recrudescence Sophistry and Cynicism destructive philosophies which ruined and fouled ancient Athens the source and inspiration for Western civilization

The Routledge Handbook to Auschwitz-Birkenau Sarah M. Cushman, Joanne Pettitt, Dominic Williams, 2025-08-12 This handbook examines Auschwitz Birkenau as both a site and a symbol of Nazi genocide Scholars from a range of disciplinary perspectives consider Auschwitz's history by engaging with Holocaust historiography and its place in Holocaust memory and representation illustrating their mutual influence The chapters bring new insights to topics that other studies of Auschwitz have explored before such as the Sonderkommando the Czech family camp and literary representations of Auschwitz Other chapters cover recent developments and more neglected areas such as the experience and memory of Romani prisoners the fate of Soviet prisoners of war and Auschwitz's presence on social media The handbook also responds to a number of recent trends and new paradigms in Holocaust Studies including contributions from the fields of Environmental Studies Spatial Studies and Gender Studies As a crucial overview of the topic of Auschwitz Birkenau and an introduction to its most recent and fruitful scholarly approaches this handbook will be a valuable resource for undergraduates from second year and up as well as for graduate students and researchers seeking a survey of the field

Mattering Spiritualities Silvia Battista, David Mason, 2025-03-31 Mattering Spiritualities brings together an array of international scholars and practitioners to explore spirituality in embodiment through the lens of performance performative writing and performance studies The book concerns spirituality and takes the body as the site of whatever it is we call spirituality The methodological assumption is that the opposition of body and spirit is a false binary that calls for re-examination and revision It stems from the argument that people can deliberately shift their boundaries of perception and knowing through practice technologies and performative techniques that can alter the way in which they perceive the ecologies in which they are embedded This approach understands that careful attention to which bodies are performing in any given scenario is crucial as is a sensitivity to the ramifications of any body's race gender class and biological ability Performance can therefore be regarded as anything through which individuals and collectives experiment with bodies as technologies Each chapter engages with such experiments to explore how bodies experience and relate to other bodies human and other than human but also how by mobilizing bodies and changing relationships between them practitioners can transform people spaces and places objects ecologies large and small and shift the borders of the known Such experiments can also reveal intersectional dynamics within given social political and biological borders offering new perspectives and angles of analysis This collection intends to serve transdisciplinary studies and to support varied learning and teaching environments for undergraduate postgraduate and PhD students

The Pearl of Great Price Orest Stocco, 2015-03-05 Stories bear the truth of the human condition and the human condition is the story of our becoming but not until we solve the riddle of our becoming will literature resolve the issue of the human condition This makes literature endlessly fascinating because every writer speaks to their place in the entangled process of man's becoming which Jung called individuation and in their stories they stake out the geography of man's soul whether it be the happy country of one's being the unhappy country of one's non being or that miserable place of being stuck between two countries the no man's land of one's soul Chapter 18 The Dust on a Butterfly's Wings Reception of Northrop Frye, 2021-09-23 The Reception of Northrop Frye takes a thorough accounting of the presence of Frye in existing works and argues against Frye's diminishing status as an important critical voice Psychoanalysis, Historiography, and the Nazi Camps Dan Stone, 2024-07-10 In the postwar years Dutch survivors Eddy de Wind Louis Micheels and Elie A Cohen who went on to become practicing psychoanalysts penned accounts of their survival of the Nazi camps Their sober assessments contrast sharply with those by Bruno Bettelheim and Viktor Frankl which emphasized decisiveness positive thinking and resistance missing the fact that many Holocaust victims with those characteristics or other qualities did not survive De Wind's Micheels and Cohen's accounts are more sober self critical and shaped by analytical practice By analyzing them anew and comparing them with accounts by female doctors who survived Block 10 in Auschwitz this book argues that their theories of survival accord with contemporary sensibilities in psychoanalysis and Holocaust historiography Psychoanalytic concepts have changed over time in response to greater understanding of the Holocaust and recent Holocaust historiography makes us more receptive to insights that were unfashionable in the first postwar decades The Palgrave Handbook of Testimony and Culture Sara Jones, Roger Woods, 2023-04-19 This Palgrave Handbook examines the ways in which researchers and practitioners theorise analyse produce and make use of testimony It explores the full range of testimony in the public sphere including perpetrator testimony testimony presented through social media and virtual reality A growing body of research shows how complex and multi layered testimony can be how much this complexity adds to our understanding of our past and how creators and users of testimony have their own complex purposes These advances indicate that many of our existing assumptions about testimony and models for working with it need to be revisited The purpose of this Palgrave Handbook is to do just that by bringing together a wide range of disciplinary theoretical methodological and practice based perspectives

The Broken Voice Robert Eaglestone, 2017 Robert Eaglestone explores the interweaving of complicity responsibility temporality and the often problematic powers of narrative which make up some part of the legacy of the Holocaust He examines a range of texts by significant writers as well as work by victims and perpetrators of the Holocaust and of atrocities in Africa October 7th: Searching for the Humanitarian Middle Marsha Lederman, 2025-08-19 In this emotional missive from the diaspora Globe and Mail columnist Marsha Lederman gathers her columns searching for the humanitarian middle of the Israel Palestine conflict Since 2023 the best selling and award winning author and journalist has been reflecting with deep empathy on the horrific October 7th attacks on Israeli citizens rising anti-Semitism and the brutal violence against civilians in Gaza in her column for the Globe and Mail As one of the leading Canadian voices on Jewish identity Lederman's impassioned work in the Globe has been a lifeline for readers since October 7th 2023 The work collected in this book captures the pain of so many Marsha's prose has a way of cutting through the noise and capturing the humanity behind the headlines. She makes room for the reader to be conflicted, grieving, angry, and unsure, and is with them through that process as she like all of us grapples with a new reality. As someone who is firmly against Netanyahu and firmly in favour of Palestinian rights, believes in a two-state solution, and is a daughter of Holocaust survivors terrified by the rise in anti-Semitism, Marsha's writing has captured the full complexity of the experience of reconciling an abhorrence of the violence against Israelis and Palestinians with the trauma and fear of rising prejudice around the world. These columns are a contemporaneous look at the year that followed Oct 7th 2023, reminding us of the pain and confusion. This collection is a crucial archive capturing in real time a period of deep division with care, empathy, and grief.

Thoughtful Cinema Thomas E. Wartenberg, 2025. Anyone who has seen a film and then followed up with a cup of coffee or glass of wine as they discuss it with friends knows that films can inspire thoughtful conversation and further reflection, sometimes long after their initial screening. Thoughtful Cinema explores how films raise and suggest answers to philosophical questions through an in-depth analysis of how seven films engage with various philosophical traditions ranging from the nineteenth-century German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche to the twentieth and twenty-first-century American philosopher Judith Jarvis Thomson. Films can do philosophy, this book argues, as a result of their ability to illustrate philosophical claims and theories. However, the films discussed in this book do much more than that; they also supplement the philosophies they illustrate by expanding their claims and criticizing their assumptions. Films therefore can make their own independent contributions to philosophical theory. Thoughtful Cinema shows how films grapple with philosophical ideas such as personal identity, the banality of evil, authenticity, euthanasia, third-party killing, and the power of attention. This book makes an important contribution to the debate about cinematic philosophy that has engaged both philosophers of film and film theorists for decades, and it also proves that philosophy is not just a narrow specialty accessible only to trained practitioners. Films that do philosophy address the essential concerns of human life, and it is this characteristic, their philosophical attention, that makes them appeal to a wide audience.
