is for these reasons that researchers teachers and other key constituents involved in the education of young adolescents must devote themselves to the critical examination and understanding of the historical and current socio cultural factors affecting all young adolescents The chapters in this volume serve as a means to open an intentional and explicit space for providing a critical lens on early adolescence a lens that understands that both developmental and cultural needs of young adolescents need to be emphasized to create a learning environment that supports every young adolescent learner inherent to the individual some kind of generalization will have to be constructed which will contribute enough in terms of novelty and progress to make it innovative enough for the purposes of teaching and learning This volume will serve to provoke cognitive dissonance and intellectual unease as it explores cognitive theories and inspires researchers and teachers to update and invigorate some of the theories that have been embedded in their minds since their own school years In order for this to happen the book provides readers with many valuable insights and introduces new experiences resulting from alternative teaching practices
