Colossians and Philemon Marianne Meye Thompson,2005-11-02 Colossians and Philemon have traditionally been overshadowed by other New Testament texts thought to express Pauline theology more clearly In this notable commentary however Marianne Meye Thompson shows how these two epistles provide a unique formulation of the gospel in terms of creation and reconciliation rather than justification by faith In Colossians she finds an overarching narrative of the Bible s grand creation redemption story and an important emphasis on the relationship between creation and Christology while her exploration of Philemon casts brighter light on the significance of Paul s familial metaphors for the church and the meaning of new humanity in Christ Throughout her work on these two epistles Thompson continually connects her insights to theological concerns making this volume an excellent addition to the Two Horizons series

The Bible Without Chapters and Verses Christopher R. Smith,2007-06 While millions of Bibles are distributed in North America every year most of them are never read One significant reason for this is that the Bible has been shaped over time in a way that makes it difficult to read and understand But the Scriptures are now being released in a new format designed to help readers overcome the problems that the traditional presentation creates In this new edition The Books of The Bible chapters and verses have been removed the books appear in a new order and longer works that were divided over time have been restored to unity Christopher R Smith is a member of the team that worked with the International Bible Society to develop this new edition In this book he traces the history and effects of the traditional elements that have shaped the customary presentation of the Scriptures He describes how the new format was developed to help overcome these effects And he explains how The Books of The Bible can be used effectively for personal devotions group studies sermon preparation and the other disciplines by which we apply the teachings of Gods word to our lives The Rev Dr Christopher R Smith is pastor of the University Baptist Church of East Lansing Michigan He has a B A in literature from Harvard University an M A T S in church history from Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary and a Ph D in theology from Boston College His articles have appeared in such publications as The Journal for the Study of the Old Testament New Testament Studies Novum Testamentum and Vigiliae Christianae
