years He is co author of Quirk Books Geek Wisdom The Sacred Teachings of Nerd Culture and his work has been featured in Q News Illume and The Huffington Post EXCERPT FROM THE BOOK Chbosky s epistolary novel begins with our anonymous narrator letter writer calling himself Charlie to avoid being identified and recounting a series of events ignited by the mysterious suicide of fellow student Michael Dobson The letters are addressed to someone who may have known Dobson but who Charlie has not personally met He chooses the addressee because he hears that the former had decided not to sleep with someone even though they could have Dobson is a cipher whose death allows Charlie to engage for the first time with his fellow pupils in a compulsory group counselling session held by the school Dobson was also his only friend in middle school and the wide emotional reaction to his death makes Charlie keenly aware of the hypocritical attitude of the other students On the cusp of being a freshman Charlie writes to the unknown figure about his own family and the quiet unspoken grievances he notes between them Most poignantly he feels even more isolated by the fact that his older brother and sister are entering into the real world college and relationships respectively Privately Charlie still finds himself missing his Aunt Helen who had lived briefly with the family during what he recalls as the happiest years of his young life BOOK OUTLINE About the Book About the Author Synopsis Key Terms and Definitions Chapter By Chapter Commentary Summary Additional Resources
