The Sensitive's Circle Finding Balance Creating Hope By Michael Sortomme:

The Sensitive's Circle Michael Sortomme, 2011-11-06 Michael Sortomme takes a brave step forward into a world where angels fear to tread with her newest leap into the literary field. She not only takes many sacred cows to task but ultimately puts them out to pasture in this painfully honest and personally revealing guidebook for empathic people in modern society. Katrina Rasbold Diva Digest The world is changing faster and faster day to day. Life and society with it is careening out of control. As our present grows more complicated, smaller and linked in the most unexpected of ways, our common histories are being reinvented, our past recreated in washed-out images or discarded all together. Our future is unclear. Many are caught in a psychic limbo, unable to move, plan or weigh opportunities for growth, not knowing where to turn for support or who to call in case of emergency. Lurking in every group, society, nationality, gender and race are people more similar than different, with gifts misunderstood but craved by others. They are the sensitive people, kept separate, used as others' anchors and commodities to be exploited but discarded by the whole as freaks of nature. Millions of international sensitives have lost their voice in this new age of violent earth changes, disintegrating social and government structures and rampant fear, especially within the construct of organized religion and the medical establishment. The Sensitive's Circle reaches out to the growing group of disenfranchised psychics, caretakers and conscious healthcare providers overwhelmed by the weight of responsibility and overloaded by the call to save the planet. It provides a helping hand to the keepers of balance too overworked to fulfill their own needs and provide their inner beings and Higher Selves with nourishment. The book is divided into three sections. The preface and introduction seeks out first contact, recognizing universal need and connection. The first ten chapters define what a sensitive is and outlines the challenges and similarities that bond seemingly diverse individuals together from around the world. It also tells the author's childhood story from a Reincarnationist's point of view and includes the changing belief structures that have shaped her life-long spiritual practice. The final six chapters offer skills for creating balance, health and spiritual protection through introspection, meditation, ritual, changing negative physical routines and behavior patterns and embracing positive change on all levels: body, mind and soul. The words are uplifting and edifying; the art draws the soul's recognition of truth to the surface and the prayers are relevant for our time. It is written not for the novice nor the adept but geared for all people of many professions that feel give and express until it hurts. If you're a Sensitive and you'll find out on Page 1 if you have a doubt, you need this book. Michael Sortomme has condensed her considerable talents, wisdom and delicious anecdotes into readable and most importantly executable solutions regardless of where you find yourself on your Path. Linda Goodspeed Dodds Anticipating 2012 Founder of The Quantum Possibility It is high time that someone broke through the glass ceiling and addressed the very real and sacred issues that are too often carefully avoided by professionals who teach sensitives how to use their energy productively. Michael Sortomme takes on that task with great enthusiasm and tremendous wisdom. Katrina Rasbold Journalist Life Coach Oracle Energyworker Founder of
