The Temple Of My Familiar By Alice Walker:

The Temple of My Familiar Alice Walker, 2011-12-29 A romance of the last 500 000 years from the Pulitzer prize winning author of THE COLOR PURPLE A visionary cast of characters weave together their past and present in a brilliantly intricate tapestry of tales It is the story of the dispossessed and displaced of peoples whose history is ancient and whose future is yet to come Here we meet Lissie a woman of many pasts Arveyda the great guitarist and his Latin American wife who has had to flee her homeland Suwelo the history teacher and his former wife Fanny who has fallen in love with spirits Hovering tantalisingly above their stories are Miss Celie and Shug the beloved characters from THE COLOUR PURPLE

Alice Walker Sterling Professor of Humanities Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a selection of criticism devoted to the fiction of African American author Alice Walker New York Magazine, 1989-05-08 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Alice Walker's Womanist Fiction Iman Hami, 2023-04-26 A theory formulated by Alice Walker womanism focuses on the unification of men and women with Nature and Earth This book explores womanism with regards to its specific concerns with African American women's rights identities and self actualisation and points towards its more overarching concerns with human relations and sexual freedom as expressed in each of Walker's seven novels Although Walker introduced the term womanism in 1983 this book traces the development of the concept across her canon of fictional works By analysing the novels written in the 1970s this book establishes how the term came to be coined and demonstrates how womanism went on to be further developed and complexly wrought throughout Walker's literary career

From Women's Experience to Feminist Theology Linda Hogan, 2016-10-06 What are the implications of adopting a primacy of praxis position in feminist theology How can we respect the diversity of women's experience while retaining it as a useful analytic category Do these twin resources of women's experience and praxis together imply that feminist theology is ultimately relativist Through an analysis of the work of some of today's key feminist theologians Christian womanist and post Christian Linda Hogan considers these and other methodological questions

The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Bigger Thomas Coffin Ed Johnson Kunta Kinte Sula Peace as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima Brer Rabbit John Henry Stackolee and the trickster Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali John Coltrane Marcus Garvey Jackie Robinson John Brown and Harriet Tubman Here too are general articles on poetry fiction and drama on autobiography slave narratives Sunday School literature and oratory as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics Compact yet thorough this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women s clubs making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing exciting world of African American literature Stories of Women Elleke

Boehmer,2005-09-03 This text combines Boehmer s keynote essays on the mother figure and the postcolonial nation with incisive new work on male autobiography daughter writers the colonial body the trauma of the post colony and the nation in a transnational context Alice Walker's Metaphysics Nagueyalti Warren,2019-01-16 Catapulted to fame in 1982 with the publication of her third novel the Pulitzer Prize winning The Color Purple Alice Walker has become one of America s most celebrated and divisive authors With books such as Meridian and The Third Life of Grange Copeland Walker s writing has frequently been cited for messages in support of civil rights and feminism Above all however Walker is a spiritual seeker Her works are dominated by the search for truth wholeness and the spirit that connects everyone and everything In Alice Walker s Metaphysics Literature of Spirit Nagueyalti Warren examines the philosophy and worldview present in all of Walker s writing Warren contends that Walker is a literary theologian citing the transformative changes that take place in the author s fictional characters Warren also points to Walker s bravery in approaching taboo subjects her generosity of spirit and her love for humanity which are represented throughout her poems novels short stories children s books and essays This analysis is further supplemented by primary sources from Walker s unpublished material including notes and scrapbooks By exploring the spirituality evident throughout the author s work this volume shows how Walker challenges readers to recognize and understand their responsibility to the earth and to one another Providing a fresh accessible look at one of the twentieth century s most prolific women writers Alice Walker s Metaphysics Literature of Spirit will appeal to both academics and fans of the author s varied literature The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr,1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation's creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity

The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential

Alice Walker Gerri Bates, 2005-10-30 Alice Walker born in Eatonton Georgia in 1944 overcame a disadvantaged sharecropping background blindness in one eye and the tense times of the Civil Rights Movement to become one of the world's most respected African American writers While attending both Spelman and Sarah Lawrence Colleges Walker began to draw on both her personal tragedies and those of her community to write poetry essays short stories and novels that would tell the virtually untold stories of oppressed African and African American women providing readers with hope and inspiring activism Perhaps best known for her novel The Color Purple 1982 which won the Pulitzer Prize in 1983 and became a controversial film three years later Walker has introduced and developed womanist theory criticism and practice and continues to champion the causes of women of color by encouraging their strength and liberation in her life and her writings Literary works analyzed in this volume The Third Life of Grange Copeland Meridian The Color Purple The Temple of My Familiar Possessing the Secret of Joy By the Light of My Father's Smile The Way Forward Is With a Broken Heart Now is the Time to Open Your Heart
