implement his own plan to make an escape for his family from these government prisons and get word to the resistance that a rebellion is necessary He soon realized that the only possible way of escape for his family may end in his own demise Choosing to sacrifice himself if necessary Alex decides that for the good of the American people and the safety of his family Outside, America Hikaru Fujii, 2013-04-25 The idea of the outside as a space of freedom has he would take the risk always been central in the literature of the United States This concept still remains active in contemporary American fiction however its function is being significantly changed Outside America argues that among contemporary American novelists a shift of focus to the temporal dimension is taking place No longer a spatial movement the guest for the outside now seeks to reach the idea of time as a force of difference a la Deleuze by which the current subjectivity is transformed In other words the concept is taking a temporal turn Discussing eight novelists including Don DeLillo Richard Powers Paul Theroux and Annie Proulx each of whose works describe forces of given identities masculine identity historical temporality and power etc which block guests for the outside Fujii shows how the outside in these texts ceases to be a spatial idea With due attention to critical and social contexts the book aims to reveal a profound shift in contemporary American fiction Churchill & His Generals Raymond Callahan, 2007 On the eve of World War II the British army was more an international police force than a combat ready fighting force This book examines its transformation in a look at Great Britain's top commanders in the field
