grandfather's death With little time left in her own life Josephine begs for Janeway's promise he must find her grandfather's collection It's a virtually impossible task Janeway suspects as the books will no doubt have been sold and separated over the years but how can he say no to a dying woman It seems that her grandfather Charlie Warren traveled south with Burton in the spring of 1860 just before the Civil War began Was Burton a spy for Britain What happened during the three months in Burton's travels for which there are no records How did Charlie acquire his unique collection of Burton books What will the journal if it exists reveal When a friend is murdered possibly because of a Burton book Janeway knows he must find the answers Someone today is willing to kill to keep the secrets of the past and Janeway's search will lead him east To Baltimore to a Pulitzer Prize winning author with a very stuffed shirt and to a pair of unorthodox booksellers It reaches a fiery conclusion at Fort Sumter off the coast of Charleston South Carolina What's more a young lawyer Erin d Angelo and ex librarian Koko Bujak have their own reasons for wanting to find the journal But can Janeway trust them Rich with the insider's information on rare and collectible books that has made John Dunning famous and with meticulously researched detail about a mesmerizing figure who may have played an unrecognized role in our Civil War The Bookman's Promise is riveting entertainment from an extraordinarily gifted author who is as unique and special as the books he so clearly loves
