A Literary Cavalcade-VII Robert A. Parker, 2017-04-19 Writer and editor Robert A Parker has followed up his six volume A Literary Cavalcade with a seventh volume This volume of criticism covers mainly the fiction he has read from 2013 to early 2017 His comments are informed by his Jesuit upbringing but also by an independent critical view that balances a moral and literary sensibility The writers here represent a broad range of writing styles cultural influences and moral philosophies And all are rated on their literary achievement the effectiveness of plot character and setting plus their recognition of the moral ethical and spiritual values of mankind Here is a unique critical perspective that measures the meaning of literature against the meaning of life

The New Irish Studies Paige Reynolds, 2020-09-24 The New Irish Studies demonstrates how diverse critical approaches enable a richer understanding of contemporary Irish writing and culture The early decades of the twenty first century in Ireland and Northern Ireland have seen an astonishing rate of change one that reflects the common understanding of the contemporary as a moment of acceleration and flux This collection tracks how Irish writers have represented the peace and reconciliation process in

Northern Ireland the consequences of the Celtic Tiger economic boom in the Republic the waning influence of Catholicism the increased authority of diverse voices and an altered relationship with Europe The essays acknowledge the distinctiveness of contemporary Irish literature reflecting a sense that the local can shed light on the global even as they reach beyond the limited tropes that have long identified Irish literature The collection suggests routes forward for Irish Studies and unsettles presumptions about what constitutes an Irish classic The Novel Cure Ella Berthoud, Susan Elderkin, Indrajit

Hazra, 2014-08-01 Whether you have a stubbed toe or a stubborn case of the blues within these pages you ll find a cure in the form of a novel or a combination of novels to help ease your pain You ll also find advice on how to tackle common reading ailments such as what to do when you feel overwhelmed by the number of books in the world or if you have a tendency to give up halfway through When read at the right moment in your life a novel can quite literally change it and The Novel Cure is a reminder of that power Written with authority passion and wit here is a fresh approach to finding new books to read and an enchanting way to revisit the books on your shelves Re-Imagining the First World War Anna Branach-Kallas, Nelly

Strehlau, 2015-09-18 In the Preface to his ground breaking The Great War and Modern Memory 1975 Paul Fussell claimed that the dynamics and iconography of the Great War have proved crucial political rhetorical and artistic determinants on subsequent life Forty years after the publication of Fussell s study the contributors to this volume reconsider whether the myth generated by World War I is still part of the fiber of people s lives in English speaking countries What is the place of the First World War in cultural memory today How have the literary means for remembering the war changed since the war Can anything new be learned from the effort to re imagine the First World War after other bloody conflicts of the 20th century A variety of answers to these questions are provided in Re-Imagining the First World War New Perspectives in Anglophone Literature and Culture which explores the Great War in British Irish Canadian Australian and post colonial contexts The contributors to this collection write about the war from a literary perspective reinterpreting poetry fiction letters and essays created during or shortly after the war exploring contemporary discourses of commemoration and presenting in depth studies of complex conceptual issues such as gender and citizenship Re-Imagining the First World War also includes historical philosophical and sociological investigations of the first industrialised conflict of the 20th century which focus on responses to the Great War in political discourse life writing music and film from the experience of missionaries isolated during the war in the Arctic and Asia through colonial encounters exploring the role of Irish Chinese and Canadian First Nations soldiers during the war to the representation of war in the world famous series Downton Abbey and the 2013 album released by contemporary Scottish rock singer Fish The variety of themes covered by the essays here not only confirms the significance of the First World War in memory today but also illustrates the necessity of developing new approaches to the first global conflict and of commemorating new victims and agents of war If modes of remembrance have changed with the postmodern ethical shift in historiography and cultural studies which encourages the exploration of other subjectivities in war so far concealed affinities and reverberations are still being discovered on the macro and micro historical levels the Western and other fronts the battlefield and the home front Although it has been a hundred years since the outbreak of hostilities there is a need for increased sensitivity to the tension between commemoration and contestation and to re member re conceptualise and re imagine the Great War

Charles Dickens as an Agent of Change Joachim Frenk, Lena Steveker, 2019-03-15 Sixteen scholars from across the globe come together in Charles Dickens as an Agent of Change to show how Dickens was and still is the consummate change agent His works bursting with restless energy in the Inimitable s protean style registered and commented on the ongoing changes in the Victorian world while the Victorians fictional and factional worlds kept and keep changing The essays from notable Dickens scholars Malcolm Andrews Matthias Bauer Joel J Brattin Doris Feldmann Herbert Foltinek Robert Heaman Michael Hollington Bert Hornback Norbert Lennartz Chris Louttit Jerome Meckier Nancy Aycock Metz David Paroissien Christopher Pittard and Robert Tracy suggest the many ways in which the notion of change has found entry into and is negotiated in Dickens works through four aspects social change political and ideological change literary change and cultural change An afterword by the late Edgar Rosenberg adds a personal account of how Dickens changed the life of one eminent Dickensian

Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty-First-Century Irish Novel Kathleen Costello-Sullivan, 2018-05-07 The desire to engage and confront traumatic subjects was a facet of Irish literature for much of the twentieth century Yet just as Irish society has adopted a more direct and open approach to the past so too have Irish authors evolved in their response to and literary uses of trauma In Trauma and Recovery in the Twenty First Century Irish Novel Costello Sullivan considers the ways in which the Irish canon not only represents an ongoing awareness of trauma as a literary and cultural force but also how this representation has shifted since the end of the twentieth and beginning of the twenty first century While earlier trauma narratives center predominantly on the role of silence and the individual and or societal suffering that traumas induce twenty first century Irish narratives increasingly turn from just the recognition of traumatic experiences toward exploring and representing the process of healing and recovery both structurally and narratively Through a series of keenly observed close readings Costello Sullivan explores the work of Colm T ib n John Banville Anne Enright Emma Donohue Colum McCann and Sebastian Barry In highlighting the power of narrative to amend and address memory and trauma Costello Sullivan argues that these works reflect a movement beyond merely representing trauma toward also representing the possibility of recovery from it

Prizing Debate Anna Auguscik, 2017-06-15 This book offers a study of the literary marketplace in the early 2000s Focusing on the Man Booker Prize and its impact on a novel s media attention Anna Auguscik analyses the mechanisms by which the Prize both recognises books that trigger debates and itself becomes the object of such debates Based on case studies of six novels by Aravind Adiga Margaret Atwood Sebastian Barry Mark Haddon DBC Pierre Zadie Smith and their attention profiles this work describes the Booker as a problem driven attention generating mechanism the influence of which can only be understood in relation to other participants in literary
