and western North Carolina to scour the mountains for the song's beginnings. He found Homer Callahan who learned it in the mountains during a corn shucking; he discovered connections to Clarence Tom Ashley who traveled as a performer in a 1920s medicine show. He went to Daisy Kentucky to visit the family of the late high lonesome singer Roscoe Holcomb and finally back to Bourbon Street to see if there really was a House of the Rising Sun. He interviewed scores of singers who performed the song. Through his own journey he discovered how American traditions survived and prospered and how a piece of culture moves through the modern world propelled by technology and globalization and recorded sound.
