Brown, Valerie Smith, 2015 Race and Real Estate brings together new work by architects sociologists legal scholars and literary critics that qualifies and complicates traditional narratives of race property and citizenship in the United States

Rather than simply rehearsing the standard account of how blacks were historically excluded from homeownership the authors of these essays explore how the raced history of property affects understandings of home and citizenship While the narrative of race and real estate in America has usually been relayed in terms of institutional subjugation dispossession and forced segregation the essays collected in this volume acknowledge the validity of these histories while presenting new perspectives on this story Recharting the Black Atlantic Annalisa Oboe, Anna Scacchi, 2011-04-13 This book focuses on the migrations and metamorphoses of black bodies practices and discourses around the Atlantic particularly with regard to current issues such as questions of identity political and human rights cosmopolitics and mnemo history Inward Battle Benjamin Hart Fishkin, Bill F. Ndi, Festus Fru Ndeh, 2013 This book is a timely humanistic touch to memory studies It uses literature as a laboratory for the workings of the mind and characters as the subjects of human experimentation and diagnostics This book considers authors from different societies and historical periods The book is a refreshing illumination on the functioning of human memory It complements the work of neuroscientists who seek to rationalize the workings of the same Drawing from various ideas on memory this rich and authoritative volume results from wide ranging endeavors centered on the common fact that tracking memory in literature provides an astounding vista of orientations covered in its separate chapters The writers examined in the various chapters become mediums for unleashing memory and its reconfiguration into artistic images The ten separate chapters investigate different aspects of memory in such memoric associations as power music resistance trauma and identity It is therefore no surprise that the editors should consider this book as a veritable menu for everything needed for an unforgettable memory banquet Moral Injury and the Humanities Andrew I. Cohen, Kathryn McClymond, 2023-08-11 This book brings together leading interdisciplinary scholars to broaden and deepen the conversation about moral injury In the original chapters the contributors present new research to show how the humanities are crucial for understanding the expressions meaning and significance of moral injury Moral injury is the disorientation we suffer when we are complicit in some moral transgression Most existing works address moral injury from a clinical or neuroscientific perspective. The chapters in this volume show how the humanities are crucial for understanding the meaning and significance of moral injury as well as suggesting how to grapple with its lived challenges The chapters address the conceptual sociological historical and ritualistic dimensions of moral injury across three thematic sections Section 1 explores how tools of the humanities provide new lenses for understanding conceptual and genealogical themes about moral injury Section 2 highlights the experiences of moral injury in combat soldiers law enforcement and noncombatants such as photojournalists These chapters examine the power and limits to theorizing moral phenomena by appeals to lived experience Section 3 considers how humanistic inquiry illuminates important dimensions of the aftermath of moral injury beyond the scope of clinical research These chapters consider how ritual relationship repair and atonement might shape the ways people navigate moral injury and consider how such responses shape our understanding of what we owe to one another Moral Injury and the Humanities Interdisciplinary Perspectives is an essential resource for researchers and advanced students in philosophy religious studies literature journalism and the arts who are interested in moral injury

Identity, Diaspora and Return in American Literature Maria Antònia Oliver-Rotger, 2014-09-19 This volume combines literary analysis and theoretical approaches to mobility diasporic identities and the construction of space to explore the different ways in which the notion of return shapes contemporary ethnic writing such as fiction ethnography memoir and film Through a wide variety of ethnic experiences ranging from the Transatlantic Asian American Latino a and Caribbean alongside their corresponding forms of displacement political exile war trauma and economic migration the essays in this collection connect the intimate experience of the returning subject to multiple locations historical experiences inter subjective relations and cultural interactions. They challenge the idea of the narrative of return as a journey back to the untouched roots and home that the ethnic subject left behind Their diacritical approach combines on the one hand a sensitivity to the context and structural elements of modern diaspora and on the other an analysis of the individual psychological processes inherent to the experience of displacement and return such as nostalgia memory and belonging In the narratives of return analyzed in this volume space and identity are never static or easily definable rather they are in process and subject to change as they are always entangled in the historical and inter subjective relations ensuing from displacement and mobility This book will interest students and scholars who wish to further explore the role of American literature within current debates on globalization migration and ethnicity Approaches to Teaching the Works of Edwidge Danticat Celucien Joseph, Suchismita Banerjee, Marvin Hobson, Danny Hoey, Jr., 2019-09-20 Providing an intellectual interpretation to the work of Edwidge Danticat this new edited collection provides a pedagogical approach to teach and interpret her body of work in undergraduate and graduate classrooms Approaches to Teaching the Works of Edwidge Danticat starts out by exploring diasporic categories and postcolonial themes such as gender constructs cultural nationalism cultural and communal identity and moves to investigate Danticat's human rights activism the immigrant experience the relationship between the particular and the universal and the violence of hegemony and imperialism in relationship with society family and community The Editors of the collection have carefully compiled works that show how Danticat's writings may help in building more compassionate and relational human communities that are grounded on the imperative of human dignity respect inclusion and peace American Secrets José Liste-Noya, Eduardo Barros-Grela, 2011-09-16 Predicated upon the principles of political freedom cultural openness religious tolerance individual self reliance and ethnic diversity the United States of America has been tempted recurrently by the lures of the secret American Secrets explores this political historical and cultural phenomenon from many often surprisingly overlapping angles in these analyses of the literary and cultural uses and abuses of secrecy within a democratic culture Through analyses of diverse literary works and cultural manifestations from Mark Twain's anti imperialist prophecies to 9 11 conspiracy theories from the traumas of the Vietnam war to the homophobia of the American military establishment from the unresolved dilemmas of nuclear politics to the secret ecologies shunted aside by the exploitation of the environment from the questionings of national identity on the ethnic and trans sexual margins to the confessional modes of poetry and the poetics of the unspeakable and unrepresentable these essays reveal the politics within the poetics and indissociably the poetics fueling the politics of secrecy in its ambivalent deployment Secrecy often seems to be a question without an answer or an answer that either seems to beg the question or to be a question itself. These essays address this paradox with their own questioning explorations. In answering such questions the volume as a whole provides an illuminating overview of the pervasiveness of the secret and its modalities in American culture while also dealing specifically with the poetics of the secret in its various historically recurrent literary manifestations The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edwidge Danticat Jana Evans Braziel, Nadège T. Clitandre, 2021-01-28 Edwidge Danticat's prolific body of work has established her as one of the most important voices in 21st century literary culture Across such novels as Breath Eyes Memory Farming the Bones and short story collections such as Krik Krak and most recently Everything Inside essays and writing for children the Haitian American writer has throughout her oeuvre tackled important contemporary themes including racism imperialism anti immigrant politics and sexual violence With chapters written by leading and emerging international scholars this is the most up to date and in depth reference quide to 21st century scholarship on Edwidge Danticat's work The Bloomsbury Handbook to Edwidge Danticat covers such topics as The full range of Danticat's writing from her novels and short stories to essays life writing and writing for children and young adults Major interdisciplinary scholarly perspectives including from establishing fields fields of literary studies Caribbean Studies Political Science Latin American Studies feminist and gender studies African Diaspora Studies and emerging fields such as Environmental Studies Danticat's literary sources and influences from Haitian authors such as Marie Chauvet Jacques Roumain and Jacques St phen Alexis to African American authors like Zora Neale Hurston Toni Morrison and Caribbean American writers Audre Lorde to Paule Marshall Known and unknown Historical moments in experiences of slavery and imperialism the consequence of internal and external migration and the formation of diasporic communities The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of Danticat's work and key works of secondary criticism and an interview with the author as well as and essays by Danticat herself Transnational Narratives from the Caribbean Elvira Pulitano, 2016-03-10 This book offers a timely intervention in current debates on diaspora and diasporic identity by affirming the importance of narrative as a discursive mode to understand the human face of contemporary migrations and dislocations Focusing on the Caribbean double diaspora Pulitano offers a close reading of a range of popular works by four well known writers currently living in the United States Jamaica Kincaid Michelle Cliff Edwidge Danticat and Caryl Phillips Navigating the map of fictional characters testimonial accounts and autobiographical experiences Pulitano draws attention to the lived experience of contemporary diasporic formations. The book offers a provocative re thinking of socio scientific analyses of diaspora by discussing the embodied experience of contemporary diasporic communities drawing on disciplines such as Caribbean Postcolonial Diaspora and Indigenous Studies along with theories on border thinking and coloniality modernity Contesting restrictive national and linguistic boundaries when discussing literature originating from the Caribbean Pulitano situates the transnational location of Caribbean born writers within current debates of Transnational American Studies and investigates the role of immigrant writers in discourses of race ethnicity citizenship and belonging Exploring the multifarious intersections between home exile migration and displacement the book makes a significant contribution to memory and trauma studies human rights debates and international law aiming at a wide range of scholars and specialized agents beyond the strictly literary circle This volume affirms the humanity of personal stories and experiences against the invisibility of immigrant subjects in most theoretical accounts of diaspora and migration
