Whitley, 1981 The Dain Curse, The Glass Key, and Selected Stories Dashiell Hammett, 2007-09-04 A compilation of works by one of the most popular writers of American hard boiled crime fiction features the tough antihero detective the Continental Op who narrates four linked stories and the novel The Dain Curse Dashiell Hammett and the Movies William H. Mooney, 2014-11-03 As the father of the hardboiled detective genre Dashiell Hammett had a huge influence on Hollywood Yet it is easy to forget how adaptable Hammett's work was fitting into a variety of genres and inspiring generations of filmmakers Dashiell Hammett and the Movies offers the first comprehensive look at Hammett's broad oeuvre and how it was adapted into films from the 1930s all the way into the 1990s Film scholar William H Mooney reveals the wide range of films crafted from the same Hammett novels as when The Maltese Falcon was filmed first as a pre Code sexploitation movie then as a Bette Davis screwball comedy and finally as the Humphrey Bogart classic He also considers how Hammett rose to Hollywood fame not through the genre most associated with him but through a much fizzier concoction the witty murder mystery The Thin Man To demonstrate the hold Hammett still has over contemporary filmmakers the book culminates in an examination of the Coen brothers pastiche Miller's Crossing Mooney not only provides us with an in depth analysis of Hammett adaptations he also chronicles how Hollywood enabled the author's own rise to stardom complete with a celebrity romance and a carefully crafted public persona Giving us a behind the scenes look at the complex power relationships cultural contexts and production concerns involved in bringing Hammett's work from the page to the screen Dashiell Hammett and the Movies offers a fresh take on a literary titan Adaptation and the New Art Film William H. Mooney, 2021-04-21 Since the 1990s the expropriation of canonical works of cinema has been a fundamental dimension of art film exploration Rainer Werner Fassbinder provides an early model of open adaptation of film classics followed ever more boldly by the Coen Brothers Chantal Akerman Alex Carax Todd Haynes Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck Baz Luhrmann and Olivier Assayas This book devotes chapters to each of these directors to examine how their films redeploy landmark precursors such as City Lights 1931 Citizen Kane 1941 Rome Open City 1945 All About Eve 1950 and Vertigo 1958 in order to probe our psychological philosophical and historical situations in a postmodern soci t du spectacle In broadly diverse ways each of these directors complicates received notions of the past and its representation while probing the transformative media evolution and dislocation of the present in film art and in society The Senate, 1789-1989: Addresses on the history of the United States Senate Robert C. Byrd,1988 Hollywood's Melodramatic Imagination Geoff Mayer,2021-12-23

Melodrama is the foundation of American cinema It is however a poorly understood term While it is a pervasive and persuasive dramatic mode it is not tied to any specific moral or ideological system It is not a singular genre rather it operates as a genre generating machine capable of determining the aesthetics and structure of the drama within many genres Melodrama centers the conflict around the clash between good and evil and provides a sense of poetic justice but the specific values embedded in notions of good and evil are determined by the culture and they shift from nation to nation region to region and period to period This book explores the populist westerns of the 1930s the propaganda films that followed the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and the popularity of Sax Rohmer's master villain Fu Manchu Melodramas of passion and film noir also offer a challenge to melodrama with its seemingly alienated protagonists and downbeat endings Yet with few exceptions Hollywood was able to assimilate these genres within its melodramatic imagination AFI Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute,1971 A Companion to Film Noir Andre Spicer,Helen Hanson,2013-06-27 An authoritative companion that offers a wide ranging thematic survey of this enduringly popular cultural form and includes scholarship from both established and emerging scholars as well as analysis of film noir's influence on other media including television and graphic novels Covers a wealth of new approaches to film noir and neo noir that explore issues ranging from conceptualization to cross media influences Features chapters exploring the wider noir mediascape of television graphic novels and radio Reflects the historical and geographical reach of film noir from the 1920s to the present and in a variety of national cinemas Includes contributions from both established and emerging scholars close study of four novels by Boris Vian It aims to show how L'été des jours, L'Automne, Plein, L'Herbe rouge and L'Arrache-cœur form a unified and coherent tetralogy By establishing close links between these four texts it becomes possible to achieve a more comprehensive understanding not only of the significance of the tetralogy in exposing a complex and multi-layered novelistic strategy at the heart of the vianesque but of the individual novels as autonomous creations An examination of the novels reveals that they are not merely joined to one another via a superficial network of textual similarities that which I refer to as intratextuality but that this intertwining is emblematic of a common method of narrative construction Each Vian novel is dependent for a thorough understanding of the text to be possible upon the multiple lines of external influence running through it The sources of this influence which I refer to as intertextuality are located in various major texts of twentieth century literature anglophone as well as francophone Thus in each instance the narrative is driven by a complicated interaction of intratextuality and intertextuality
