The Incredible Adventures of Professor Branestawm Norman Hunter, 1970 The Incredible Adventures of Professor Branestawm Norman Hunter, 2013 The Professor Branestawm stories really made me laugh when I was a boy I rediscovered them recently and have greatly enjoyed reading them to my own kids It's brilliant that a book written in 1933 can still make a modern kid laugh like a drain Charlie Higson Poor Mrs Flittersnoop It's not easy being Professor Branestawm's housekeeper People may say he's a genius but all his inventions always make life more complicated alarming and extraordinary than it was before An innocent bottle of old cough mixture turns out to be an elixir that makes all the waste paper in the bin come to life the burglar catcher and the pancake maker operate just a little too efficiently and about the spring cleaning machine the less said the better You could write a book about it but nobody would believe it The Incredible Adventures of Professor Branestawm ... With 76 Illustrations by W. Heath Robinson Norman HUNTER (Writer of Tales.), 1946 Professor Branestawm the Incredible Adventures of Norman Hunter, 1933 Knowledges in Publics Lorraine Locke, Simon

Locke, 2013-10-30 This book presents a series of cutting edge research studies in the field of public understanding of science with particular focus on aspects of informal science education In addition to providing up to date overviews of current thinking about how best to conceptualise the field it offers a range of primary research studies examining informal public venues of science and mediations of scientific knowledge and representation With contributions from some leading international researchers the book provides discussions and case studies addressing the USA UK and Europe Africa and India offering insight and assessment of key issues on a global footing Challenging extant notions of science public relations in terms of deficiency engagement and knowledge transfer the book taken as a whole argues for approaches that take seriously the multiplicity of publics and that recognise the centrality of social relations and social contexts to forms of knowledge and ways of knowing The Ultimate Book of Saturday Science Neil A. Downie,2012-05-13 The best backyard experiments for hands on science learning The Ultimate Book of Saturday Science is Neil Downie s biggest and most astounding compendium yet of science experiments you can do in your own kitchen or backyard using common household items It may be the only book that encourages hands on science learning through the use of high velocity air driven carrots Downie the undisputed maestro of Saturday science here reveals important principles in physics engineering and chemistry through such marvels as the Helevator a contraption that s half helicopter half elevator and the Rocket Railroad which pumps propellant up from its own track The Riddle of the Sands demonstrates why some granular materials form steep cones when poured while others collapse in an avalanche The Sunbeam Exploder creates a combustible delivery system out of sunlight while the Red Hot Memory experiment shows you how to store data as heat Want to learn to tell time using a knife and some butter There s a whole section devoted to exotic clocks and oscillators that teaches you how The Ultimate Book of Saturday Science features more than seventy fun and astonishing experiments that range in difficulty from simple to more challenging All of them are original and all are guaranteed to work Downie provides instructions for each one and explains the underlying science and also presents experimental variations that readers will want to try Starcombing David Langford,2009-05-01 Starcombing contains eighty five newly collected pieces of David Langford s witty commentary on the SF fantasy scene columns articles reviews essays even a few short short stories from the famous Futures page in Nature Compulsive reading crammed with insights and laughs Sylvie and Bruno Ray Dyer PhD,2015-10-29 Lewis Carroll s late life final children s story ignored and all but forgotten owing to it s great internal complexities Is here removed from its distracting asides to be presented initially for specialist scholars as a simpler and annotated didactic new edition Exploding Disk Cannons, Slimemobiles, and 32 Other Projects for Saturday Science Neil A. Downie,2006 Presents thirty four science experiments of varying difficulty that can be completed in one day including a rope ratchet motor exploding laser spots and a calculator communicator Puffin Good Reading Guide for Children Ruskin Bond,2006-05 A comprehensive guide to fiction in English for readers aged four to sixteen The Puffin Good Reading Guide for Children is divided into three sections to suit every age group It has entries listing over 1000 books and is divided into categories with cross references so that children can read more in genres they like It includes both classics and the best of contemporary works and books from all over the world With an introduction by Ruskin Bond India s best known children s writer in English The Puffin Good Reading Guide is an invaluable resource for children who love books as well as for parents and friends looking for the right book for the young people in their lives Historical Identities Euthalia Lisa Panayotidis,Paul James Stortz,2006-01-01 As intellectual engines of the university professors hold considerable authority and play an important role in society. By nature of their occupation they are agents of intellectual culture in Canada. Historical Identities is a new collection of essays examining the history of the professoriate in Canada. Framing the volume with the question 'What was it like to be a professor?' editors Paul Stortz and E. Lisa Panayotidis, along with an esteemed group of Canadian historians, strive to uncover and analyze variables and contexts such as background, education, economics, politics, gender, and ethnicity in the lives of academics throughout Canada's history. The contributors take an in-depth approach to topics such as academic freedom, professors and the state, faculty development, discipline, construction, and academic cultures, religion, biography, gender, and faculty wives' images of professors and background and childhood experiences. Including the best and most recent critical research in the field of the social history of higher education and professors, Historical Identities examines fundamental and challenging topics, issues, and arguments on the role and nature of intellectualism in Canada.

The Golden Age of Children's TV Tim Worthington, 2024-10-24 For decades British children's TV was surely the finest entertainment in the world. From Thunderbirds to The Clangers, Blue Peter to Magpie, Camberwick Green to Tiswas and Captain Pugwash to The Magic Roundabout, there was a huge variety on offer for kids and adults to enjoy. Now in The Golden Age of Children's TV, Tim Worthington brings back the joy of those times and the programmes we loved, sharing a deep dive behind the scenes of key programmes, how they came about, and the stories behind the shows. From Saturday morning telly to teatime favourites, discover everything you never knew about the programmes you loved, as well as the gossip from behind the scenes. Written with affection but also with a wry appreciation of the shortcomings of the times, this is the hugely engaging and entertaining story of a key part of our pop culture from a time long before streaming and the internet, when we sat down together to watch brilliant British telly.

The Incredible Adventures of Professor Branestawm Norman Hunter, 2011 Professor Branestawm is madly sane and cleverly dotty. He simply hasn't got the time to think about ordinary things; his head is too full of brilliant ideas and wild inventions. Yet the professor's absent-mindedness means that his devices rarely seem to work as they should, and wacky mishaps are never far behind.
