Neobaroque in the Americas Monika Kaup, 2012. In a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of modern and postmodern literature, film, art, and visual culture, Monika Kaup examines the twentieth century's recovery of the baroque within a hemispheric framework embracing North America, Latin America, and U.S. Latino culture. As neobaroque comes to the forefront of New World studies, attention to transcultural dynamics is overturning the traditional scholarship that confined the baroque to a specific period, class, and ideology in the seventeenth century. Reflecting on the rich, nonlinear genealogy of baroque expression, Neobaroque in the Americas envisions the baroque as an anti-proprietary expression that brings together seemingly disparate writers and artists and contributes to the new studies in global modernity.

Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present Marie Diamond, 2020-07-01. In recent years, schools have started introducing more inclusive syllabi, emphasizing the works and ideas of previously overlooked or underrepresented writers. Readers of all ages can now explore the rich contributions of writers from around the world. These writers have various backgrounds, and unlike most writers from the U.S. or the United Kingdom, information on them in English can be difficult to find. Encyclopedia of World Writers, 1800 to the Present covers the most important writers outside of the U.S., Britain, and Ireland since 1800. More than 330 insightful A to Z entries profile novelists, poets, dramatists, and short story writers whose works are anthologized in textbooks or assigned in high school English classes. Entries range in length from 200 to 1,000 words each and include a biographical sketch, synopses of major works, and a brief bibliography. Dozens of entries are new to this edition, and many existing entries have been updated and significantly expanded with new Critical Analysis sections. Coverage includes Chinua Achebe, Margaret Atwood, Roberto Bolaño, Albert Camus, Khalid Hosseini, Victor Hugo, Mohammad Iqbal, Franz Kafka, Stieg Larsson, Mario Vargas Llosa, Naghib Mahfouz, Gabriel García Márquez, Kenzaburo Oe, Marcel Proust, Leo Tolstoy, Emile Zola, and more.

Inez Carlos Fuentes, 2012-08-16. Dazzling. The translation by Margaret Sayers Paden is elegant. New York Times Book Review: A complex, focused novel. The Times: Passionate, a paean to music and musical genius, to romantic love, and the mysterious sources of language and creativity. Newsday: In this magical story of love and art, life and death, Carlos Fuentes entwines two narratives: one tells of the passion of orchestra conductor Gabriel Atlán Ferrara for red-haired Mexican diva Inez Prada; the other, of the first encounter in human history between a man and a woman: Berlioz's music for The Damnation of Faust brings Atlan Ferrara and Inez together and continues to resound on every page of this haunting work. At the same time the emergent love of neh el and ah nel the original lovers reminds us of the Faustian pact of love and death. The link between these two stories is a beautiful crystal seal that belongs to Atlan Ferrara who is obsessed by its meaning. Maybe this ancient and seductive object gives its bearer the ability to read unknown languages and hear music of impossible beauty.

Border Transits, 2007-01-01 What constitutes a border situation? How translatable and portable is the border? What are the borders of words surrounding the border? In its five sections Border Transits: Literature and Culture across the Line intends to address these issues as it brings together visions of border dynamics from both sides of the Atlantic Ocean. The volume opens with Part I: Borders and Lines: A Theoretical Intervention which explores the circle and the cross as spatial configurations of two contradictory urges to separate and divide on the one hand and to welcome and allow passage on the other. Part II: Visions of the Mexican/US Border zooms in onto the Mexican/United States border as it delves into the border transits between the two neighboring countries. But what happens when we situate the border on the cultural terrain? How well does the border travel? Part III: Cultural Intersections expands the border encounter as it deals with the different ways in which texts are encoded, registered, appropriated, mimicked and transformed in other cultural texts. Part IV: Trans Nations addresses instances of trans-American relations stemming from experiences of uprooting and intercultural contacts in the context of mass migration and migratory flows. Finally Part V: Translations deals with the ways in which the cultural borderlands suffuse other discourses and cultural practices. The volume is of interest for scholars and researchers in the field of Border studies, Chicano studies, Ethnic Studies as well as American Literature and Culture.

Faith-Based War T. Walter Herbert, 2014-12-05 The American invasion of Iraq was largely governed by faith-based policy. The shock and awe strategy alongside a grossly mismanaged occupation led to the loss of American lives. Faith-Based War presents an analysis of the imperialist Christian militarism behind the Bush Administration. America's self-perception as God's Chosen is examined and its catastrophic results detailed. The book offers an ethical, political and theological perspective on the perversion of Christian teaching behind the war in Iraq and the moral culpability of the American empire.

Mutual Impressions Ilan Stavans, 1999 It is commonly assumed that the United States and Latin America culturally so different move artistically to very different rhythms. Also common is the assumption that with rare exception the literary figures on one side of the global North-South divide have had little interest in the work of their counterparts. With Mutual Impressions Ilan Stavans dispels these notions by showing how solid the bridges between writers and across borders have been at least since the early days of this century and how crucial they are likely to become as we enter the next millennium. Divided into symmetrical halves, South reading North and North reading South, the book presents essays by leading novelists, poets and other writers that focus on the work of another literary figure from across the divide. Borges for example finds in Hawthorne the perfect precursor to his own interest in allegories. Katherine Anne Porter examines Jos Joaquín Fernández de Lizardi as a rascal.
