Hansen, 2024-12-10 Twenty years after The Event reshaped humanity the world is a scaled down version of itself Shrunk to less than two inches tall to combat overpopulation and environmental collapse people live in miniaturized cities and use advanced technology to navigate their world Eric Brice the son of a hero lost to a bird attack is part of the first generation born into this miniaturized world On a class field trip to Cape Canaveral disaster strikes when their toy sized bullet train is stopped by a branch and giant birds descend upon them From tornadoes towering ruins and colossal threats like cockroaches and snakes Eric and his friends must fight to survive In the process they discover a shocking truth about The Event and the powers behind it Perfect for middle grade readers and adults alike Alan D Hansen s PROJECT LILLIPUT is a fast paced survival adventure set in a world where the tiniest mistakes can have gigantic consequences The Marginalized in Death Jennifer F. Byrnes, Iván Sandoval-Cervantes, 2022-08-31 This volume bridges the gap between forensic and cultural anthropology in how both disciplines describe and theorize the dead highlighting the potential for interdisciplinary scholarship As applied disciplines dealing with some of the most marginalized people in our society forensic anthropologists have the potential to shed light on important and persistent social issues that we face today Forensic anthropologists have successfully pursued research agendas primarily focused on the development of individual biological profiles time since death recovery and identification Few however have taken a step back from their lab bench to consider how and why people become forensic cases or place their work in a larger theoretical context Thus this volume challenges forensic anthropologists to reflect how we can use our toolkit and databases to address larger social issues and quandaries that we face in a world where some are spared from becoming forensic anthropology cases and others are not As witnesses to violence crimes against humanity and the embodied consequences of structural violence we have the opportunity and arguably the responsibility to transcend the traditional medico legal confines of our small sub discipline by synthesizing forensic anthropology casework into theoretically grounded social science with potentially transformative impacts at a global scale Movies Made for Television, 1964-2004: 1980-1989 Alvin H.
