Faris, 2004 Ordinary Enchantments investigates magical realism as the most important trend in contemporary international fiction defines its characteristics and narrative techniques and proposes a new theory to explain its significance In the most comprehensive critical treatment of this literary mode to date Wendy B Faris discusses a rich array of examples from magical realist novels around the world including the work not only of Latin American writers like Gabriel Garcia Marguez but also of authors like Salman Rushdie Gunter Grass Toni Morrison and Ben Okri Faris argues that by combining realistic representation with fantastic elements so that the marvelous seems to grow organically out of the ordinary magical realism destabilizes the dominant form of realism based on empirical definitions of reality gives it visionary power and thus constitutes what might be called a remystification of narrative in the West Noting the radical narrative heterogeneity of magical realism the author compares its cultural role to that of traditional shamanic performance which joins the worlds of daily life and that of the spirits Because of that capacity to bridge different worlds magical realism has served as an effective decolonizing agent providing the ground for marginal voices submerged traditions and emergent literatures to develop and create masterpieces At the same time this process is not limited to postcolonial situations but constitutes a global trend that replenishes realism from within In addition to describing what many consider to be the progressive cultural work of magical realism Faris also confronts the recent accusation that magical realism and its study as a global phenomenon can be seen as a form of commodification and an imposition of cultural homogeneity And finally drawing on the narrative innovations and cultural scenarios that magical realism enacts she extends those principles toward issues of gender and the possibility of a female element within magical realism The Labyrinth Harold Bloom, Blake Hobby, 2009 In literature labyrinths can represent many things complication and difficulty interconnectedness creativity and even literature itself. This new title discusses the role of the labyrinth in The Garden of Forking Paths Great Expectations Ulysses and many others The Labyrinth unravels this theme for literature students through 19 critical essays Isabel Allende Tim McNeese, 2013 A biography of Chilean American novelist Isabel Allende discussing her youth and family in Lima her marriage to Michael her work as a journalist her clashes with the government her career as a writer and the death of her daughter Paula The House of the Spirits (SparkNotes Literature Guide) SparkNotes, 2014-08-12 The House of the Spirits SparkNotes Literature Guide by Isabel Allende Making the reading experience fun Created by Harvard students for students everywhere SparkNotes is a new breed of study guide smarter better faster Geared to what today's students need to know SparkNotes provides chapter by chapter analysis explanations of key themes motifs and symbols a review quiz and essay topics Lively and accessible these guides are perfect for late night studying and writing papers Postcolonial literature and the biblical call for justice, 1994 These writers from postcolonial lands express readings of individual biblical texts as well as theoretical discussion of such issues as the challenge biblical justice makes to poststructuralism the tensions in synthesizing Christianity and indigenous cultures and the ethical dilemmas faced by writers opposing injustice A Study Guide for Isabel Allende's House of the Spirits Magical Realism Lois Parkinson Zamora, Wendy B. Faris, 1995 On magical realism in Cengage Learning Gale, 2015 literature Antigone's Daughters Marta L. Wilkinson, 2008 Antigone's Daughters presents various readings of the classical myth of Antigone as interpreted through modern feminist and psychoanalytic literary theories Topics such as femininity education and establishing selfhood amidst the restrictions of the patriarchal society presented by Sophocles provide the foundation for the modern novel This study serves as a model for the comparative interpretation of literary works of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries including the writings of George Sand Indiana Karolina Pavlova A Double Life Nikolai Chernyshevsky What Is to Be Done Emile Zola L Assommoir and Nana Mar a Luisa Bombal La amortajada and Isabel Allende The House of the Spirits Each chapter isolates an aspect of Antigone's struggle within both the public and domestic spheres as she negotiates her independence and asserts her voice A valuable tool for the study of modern literature the universality of Antigone presented in this study prompts the investigation of many classical motifs while providing a thorough study of various national literatures within their own contemporary contexts The Spirit of Carnival David Danow, 2021-05-11 The world of literature responds to the spirit of carnival in ways that are both social and cultural mythological and archetypal Literature provides a mirror in which carnival is reflected and refracted through the multifarious perspectives of verbal art In his original wide ranging book David K Danow catches the various reflections in that mirror from the bright life affirming magical side of carnival as revealed in the literature of Latin American writers to its dark grotesque death embracing aspect as illustrated in numerous novels depicting the dire experience of the Second World War The remarkable meshing of these two diametrically opposed yet inextricably intertwined facets of literature and of life makes for an intriguing sphere of investigation for the carnival spirit is animated by a human need to dissolve borders and eliminate boundaries including symbolically those between life and death in an ongoing effort to merge opposing forces into new configurations of truth and meaning Expanding upon the seminal ideas of Mikhail Bakhtin carnival argues Danow is designed to allow one extreme to flow into another to provide for one polarity official culture to confront its opposite unofficial culture much as individuals engage in dialogue In this case the result is dialogized carnival or carnivalized dialogue In their artmaking Danow claims human beings are animated by a periodic predisposition toward the bright side of carnival matched by an equally strong far darker predilection Carnival forms of thinking are firmly embedded within the human psyche as archetypal patterns In this engaging exploratory book we are shown the distinctive imprint of these primordial structures within a multitude of seemingly disparate literary works Paths of Individuation in Literature and Film Phyllis B. Kenevan, 1999-01-01 In his account of the individuation process Carl G Jung describes a spiritual goal for the individual as well as the collective That process as exemplified through archetypes in both literature and film offers the reader insight into the variety and richness those paths may take In this highly original book Phyllis Berdt Kenevan provides an analysis of individuation and then explores four different individual paths of characters from the stories of Zorba the Greek House of the Spirits Crime and Punishment and Bagdad Cafe Kenevan then explores ways in which individuation can become a path for the collective analyzing My Dinner With Andre Wings of Desire and various Dostoevsky novels An engaging and thought provoking look at archetypes as vehicles for interpretation Paths of Individuation in Literature and Film is a must read for courses in personal and social psychology literary or film interpretation Jung and philosophy and psychology
