The work critically examines the writings of acclaimed travel writers like VS Naipaul William Dalrymple Amitav Ghosh Sudeep Chakravarti and Alice Albinia Each of these writers is chosen for their distinct historical perspectives and political stances on Indian and South Asian politics Moreover it meticulously examines how these authors interpret and engage with the socio political realities of post independence India through the optics of travel The book offers a comprehensive exploration of how ethical interests historical orientations and critical political insights converge to shape contemporary travel writing By illuminating the complex interplay of travel politics and history the book sheds light on the dynamics of representation and British Empire and the Literature of Rebellion Sheshalatha narrative construction within the travel genre Reddy, 2017-10-14 This book examines imperial and nationalist discourses surrounding three contemporaneous and unsuccessful mid nineteenth century colonial uprisings against the British Empire the Sepoy Rebellion 1857 in India the Morant Bay Rebellion 1865 in Jamaica and the Fenian Rebellion 1867 in Ireland In reading these three mid century rebellions as flashpoints for the varying yet parallel attempts by imperialist colonialists nationalists and socialists to transform the oppressed colonized worker the subjected laborer into one whose identity is created and limited by labor a laboring subject this book also tracks varying modes of resistance to those attempts in all three colonies In drawing from a range of historical literary and visual sources outside the borders of the Anglophone literary canon this book contends that these texts not only serve as points of engagements with the rebellions but also constitute an archive of oppression and Britain and Islam Martin Pugh, 2019-01-01 An eye opening history of Britain and the Islamic world a resistance thousand year relationship that is closer deeper and more mutually beneficial than is often recognized In this broad yet sympathetic survey ranging from the Crusades to the modern day Martin Pugh explores the social political and cultural encounters between Britain and Islam He looks for instance at how reactions against the Crusades led to Anglo Muslim collaboration under the Tudors at how Britain posed as defender of Islam in the Victorian period and at her role in rearranging the Muslim world after 1918 Pugh argues that contrary to current assumptions Islamic groups have often embraced Western ideas including modernization and liberal democracy He shows how the difficulties and Islamophobia that Muslims have experienced in Britain since the 1970s are largely caused by an acute crisis in British national identity In truth Muslims have become increasingly key participants in mainstream British society in culture sport politics and the economy Rethinking a Millennium Rajat Datta, 2008 This book is a collection of essays by eminent historians exploring a millennium of India s history between the eighth and the eighteenth century conventionally understood as early medieval and medieval India Though these terms are subjected to critical
