The Dark Province William H. Johnson, 2010-03-03 Sitting in the honored stalls of the Crystal Sanctuary Calvin Gooding should be rejoicing in the message he receives from the Holy King of Duprin But his heart is heavy He awaits the carriage in which he must ride to deliver the fated news to his family Time has run out In the midst of this sorrow exhaustion and uncertainty a sorceress from the Dark Province appears to Calvin She promises to make his terminally ill twin sister Marilyn well again As twins Calvin and Mari share a special bond and Calvin will do almost anything to save his sisters life But in order to free Mari from death's grip the sorceress claims that Calvin must travel to the Dark Province a land where souls and flesh are devoured by the lawless and the spirit of man is bound in shackles Its a reckless land dominated by morally corrupt warlords and open sexuality Wrapped tightly in his religion Calvin must make a life altering decision He can choose to follow the sorceress into the sinful abyss to save his sister or he can accept a life of guilt and certain torment over Mari's death
