The Enchanted April By Elizabeth Von Arnim:

The Enchanted April Elizabeth von Arnim, 2021-01-01 A 1922 women's adventure and travel novel by British American novelist Elizabeth von Arnim. It is said to be the author's lightest and most refreshing novel. The novel follows four dissimilar women in 1920s England who leave their rainy grey environments to go on holiday in Italy. Mrs Arbuthnot and Mrs Wilkins, who belong to the same ladies club but have never spoken, become acquainted after reading a newspaper advertisement for a small medieval castle on the Mediterranean to be let furnished for April. They find some common ground in that both are struggling to make the best of unhappy marriages. The four women come together at the castle and find rejuvenation in the tranquil beauty of their surroundings, rediscovering hope and love.

when the letter had been posted in the letter box in the hall and actually was beyond getting back again both she and Mrs Wilkins felt the same sense of guilt. It only shows said Mrs Wilkins in a whisper as they turned away from the letter box how immaculately good we've been all our lives. The very first time we do anything our husbands don't know about we feel guilty. I'm afraid I can't say I've been immaculately good gently protested Mrs Arbuthnot a little uncomfortable at this fresh example of

A lovely tale of enticing figures that turn themselves into an enchanting location during their holiday. With idyllic depictions of spring in Italy, this is delightfully amusing and observant. With its well-drawn female characters, magical atmosphere, and happy ending for everyone, it led to action by the monotony of their lives in London. Two not quite friends resolve to rent a medieval Italian castle for a month in the hopes of seeking revival. They are accompanied by two other ladies, a socialite and a dowager, searching for a solution to their problems. As the quartet finally settles in together, though not always gracefully, they share the charm and pleasure of their springtime castle, and each of them rediscovers the selves they had lost. The concern is whether the magic will be carried over into their lives and loves in the real world. This is a timeless classic that inspired the film of the same name. The book is full of reflective and informative introspection and significant character interaction that turns the characters from traditional archetypes to more thoroughly fleshed-out women. The book's structure and vocabulary are poetic and romantic, which acts as a fun backdrop for the development we witness in character. The book contains a biography of one of the most famous British writers, Elizabeth von Arnim.

Four women, all strangers, escape the dismal English weather for a month-long retreat in an Italian villa. Once there, the company of the other women, along with the wisteria and sunshine, brings each character to a heartening realization about herself. First published in 1922, The Enchanted April was a best seller in both England and the United States. It was made into a major motion picture in 1992.

thematically Maddison's book is informed by unpublished material from the British and Huntington Libraries including correspondence between von Arnim her publishers and prominent contemporaries such as H G Wells Bertrand Russell and her cousin Katherine Mansfield whose early modernist prose is seen as indebted to von Arnim's earlier literary influence Maddison's exploration of the novelist's critical reception is situated within recent discussions of the middlebrow and establishes von Arnim as a serious author among her intellectual milieu countering the misinformed belief that the author of such novels as Elizabeth and Her German Garden The Caravaners The Pastor's Wife and Vera wrote light hearted fiction removed from gritty reality On the contrary various strands of socialist thought and von Arnim's wider political beliefs establish her as a significant author of British anti invasion literature while weighty social issues underpin much of her later writing

The Enchanted April Elizabeth Von Arnim, 2021-09-06 Elizabeth von Arnim born Mary Annette Beauchamp was an Australian born British novelist She married a German aristocrat and her best known works are set in Germany The exact right words she presently discovered after trying various ones about living for others and prayer and the peace to be found in placing oneself unreservedly in God's hands to meet all these words Mrs Wilkins had other words incoherent and yet for the moment at least till one had had more time difficult to answer the exact right words were a suggestion that it would do no harm to answer the advertisement Non committal Mere inquiry And what disturbed Mrs Arbuthnot about this suggestion was that she did not make it solely to comfort Mrs Wilkins she made it because of her own strange longing for the mediaeval castle
