Irving's Existentialist Heroes Mathias Sajovitz, 2012-09-23 The aim of the analysis at hand is to refer to existentialist philosophy as a framework through which it becomes possible to successfully attempt a breakdown of Irving's protagonists' lives in an absurd world and demonstrate that the narrative and the characters follow an existentialist pattern. By doing so, the analysis aims to demonstrate that most of John Irving's protagonists can be seen as existentialist heroes per se and that their behavior and their actions could subsequently be referred to as existentialist exploits.

Das Hotel New Hampshire John Irving, 1999-04-01 The first of my father's illusions was that bears could survive the life lived by human beings and the second was that human beings could survive a life led in hotels. So says John Berry, son of a hapless dreamer, brother to a cadre of eccentric siblings and chronicler of the lives lived, the loves experienced, the deaths met, and the myriad strange and wonderful times encountered by the family Berry. Hoteliers, pet bear owners, friends of Freud, the animal trainer and vaudevillian that is, and playthings of mad fate, they dream on in a funny, sad, outrageous and moving novel by the remarkable author of A Widow for One Year and The Cider House Rules.

Critical Children's Rights Studies Valeria Llobet, Didier Reynaert, Afua Twum-Danso Imoh, Wouter Vandenhoe, 2025-06-13 The field of children's rights studies is well established and largely dominated by a top-down approach that considers these rights as objective standards requiring implementation in practice or policy. This book argues for a critical perspective which views the area as contested terrain with conflicting normative foundations and traditions. The collection brings together established and rising scholars whose work has been central to not only challenging mainstream children's rights discourses but also provides alternative pathways to conceptualizing children's rights. It moves beyond critiques of these dominant discourses and sets out the emerging paradigm of Critical Children's Rights Studies, drawing on contexts in both the Global North and Global South. It proposes new pathways and subjects these to scrutiny, illuminating the importance of contextual situatedness and acknowledging the need to consider researchers' own positionality when outlining their stance on children's rights. Containing both empirical and theoretical scholarship, the book will be an essential resource for students, academics, researchers, and policy makers working in the multidisciplinary areas of childhood studies, children's rights studies, and international human rights.
