Since the 2008 financial crisis the price of gold has sky rocketed from around 800 an ounce in August of that year to a peak of around 1700 an ounce Fortunes have been made and this has kicked off an unprecedented gold mining and prospective boom around the world In this book Matthew Hart takes readers on a journey around the world and through history to tell the story of how gold became the world's most precious commodity the highlights of its dramatic tempestuous history and the behind the scenes intrigue of the current boom He ends this controversial rollercoaster story by revealing what the experts are saying about the profound changes underway in the gold market and the prospects for the future      THE ARTFUL LODGERS Lord Reginald Quinton Leary, 2012-12-13 I begin with a disclaimer Should you not be up for exploring a coup de litterature then simply stop right here If you are curious enjoy an outrageous story bizarre characters and tons of giggles press on May I introduce myself I am Lord Reginald Quinton Leary the author and the one to blame I was faced with a unique almost insoluble problem I had a wonderfully strange and funny little caper peopled with outrageous characters that begged to be shared My problem was how to get the story on paper You see I am just short of a hundred and seventy five years old That is correct dear reader I am a full fledged card carrying member of the spirit world Now you understand my problem How does a spectral presence write a book I made feeble attempt after feeble attempt I needed help One of our little gang was Clive Brigham a very successful English author intelligent handsome witty and terminally horny Naturally I turned to him for help Wrong He was much too concerned with the visions of merkins that danced in his head The next most obvious choice for assistance in our gang was a very successful Irish publisher Seamus Cullen Again wrong He was far too busy with his delusions of grandeur and being a professional Irishman I was ready for a padded room Then suddenly a Zen moment Tradition and redundancy be damned I will be my own ghost writer There always has to be a first So I began with a vengeance my reinvigorated effort I will do the bloody thing myself Ghost writer Hmmm I like the sound of that Let's begin with my favorite subject me I was born in England into the titled Leary family Some distant relative supposedly fought in the Norman Conquest and was awarded English land for his faithful service Castle Leary was built and the noble Leary lineage had begun Generations later when I was a mere puppy in residence pater was off fighting with Wellington at Waterloo He was unfortunately standing too close to his battery of cannon when a volley completely scrambled his marbles He returned from the wars with an undiagnosed medical condition almost continual sexual arousal He remained into his dotage an aberrant drooling over sexed war hero with a bulge in his baggy tweeds About this time more be damned I decided to wear one of Mother's lovely frocks to a royal ball at Balmoral Castle in Scotland The Empire almost collapsed I would have been racked in the Tower were it not for mater and pater's influence in the closet of the House of Lords Mercifully I was exiled to Glen Leary in Ireland to watch over the Leary estate I still think all the fuss was because I was the prettiest one at the ball One weekend long after I should have ceased such faldral I climbed on the back of a great bay brute and rode off to the music of the hounds At the first fence the bay and I parted company Yours truly made a balloon ascension and then attempted to lunch on the stone fence time for the big dirt nap When I came around I realized as Seamus is fond of saying I had taken up residence among the Banshees I lingered and became GlenLeary s famous or infamous depending on your point of view spectral resident GlenLeary lingered as well and it was a race to see which of us could use the most patching plaster Finally and gratefully the fourth member of our gang arrived on the scene a rich American business woman Hanna Denning She suggested to the Georgian Society and the National Trust that a bed and breakfast would help save the grand old place and make it pay Today we are one of Ireland s most popular tourist accommodations The next step was the Georgian Society s wisdom in sending us the final member of our merry little band James O Brian He is a handsome young Irish Concierge who as it turned out is not only a wonderful chef oenophile and gentleman b

Art Theft and the Case of the Stolen Turners Sandy Nairne, 2011-09-15 In 1994 two important paintings by J M W Turner then valued at twenty four million pounds were stolen from a German public gallery while on loan from Tate Britain. In this vivid personal account Sandy Nairne who was then Director of Programmes at the Tate and became centrally involved in the pursuit of the paintings and the negotiations for their return retells this complex 8 year cloak and dagger story which finally concluded in 2002 with the pictures returning to public display at the Tate. In addition to this thrilling narrative Nairne unravels stories of other high value art thefts puzzling what motivates a thief to steal a well known work of art that cannot be sold even on the black market. Nairne also examines the role of art theft within the larger underworld of international looting and illicit deals among art and antique collectors. The art heist of course is a popular theme of crime novels and films and Nairne considers these depictions as well investigating the imaginative construction of the art thief the specialist detective and the mysterious collector. Art Theft and the Case of the Stolen Turners is a compelling real life detective story that will keep both art and mystery lovers eagerly turning pages. Talking Book Topics, 2008 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006

The Woman Who Stole Vermeer Anthony M. Amore, 2020-11-10 The extraordinary life and crimes of heiress turned revolutionary Rose Dugdale who in 1974 became the only woman to pull off a major art heist. In the world of crime there exists an unusual commonality between those who steal art and those who repeatedly kill they are almost exclusively male. But as with all things there is always an outlier someone who bucks the trend defying the reliable profiles and leaving investigators and researchers scratching their heads. In the history of major art heists that outlier is Rose Dugdale Dugdale's life is singularly notorious Born into extreme wealth she abandoned her life as an Oxford trained PhD and heiress to join the cause of Irish Republicanism While on the surface she appears to be the British version of Patricia Hearst she is anything but Dugdale ran head first towards the action spearheading the first aerial terrorist attack in British history and pulling off the biggest art theft of her time In 1974 she led a gang into the opulent Russborough House in Ireland and made off with millions in prized paintings including works by Goya Gainsborough and Rubens as well as Lady Writing a Letter with her Maid by the mysterious master Johannes Vermeer Dugdale thus became to this day the only woman to pull off a major art heist And as Anthony Amore explores in The Woman Who Stole Vermeer it's likely that this was not her only such heist The Woman Who Stole Vermeer is Rose Dugdale's story from her idyllic upbringing in Devonshire and her presentation to Elizabeth II as a debutante to her university years and her eventual radical lifestyle Her life of crime and activism is at turns unbelievable and awe inspiring and sure to engross readers
