American Universities and Colleges ,1987 Field Geology Education Steven J. Whitmeyer,David W. Mogk,Eric J. Pyle,2009-01-01 Field instruction has traditionally been at the core of the geoscience curriculum The field experience has been integral to the professional development of future geoscientists and is particularly important as it applies to student understanding of spatial temporal and complex relations in the Earth system As important as field experiences have been to geosciences education and the training of geoscientists the current situation calls for discipline wide reflection of the role of field experiences in the geoscience curriculum in light of practical and logistical challenges evolution in employment opportunities for geoscientists and changing emphases in the geoscience curriculum This volume seeks to broaden participation in field instruction by showcasing diverse approaches to teaching in the field across the many geo disciplines encompassed by GSA books google Independent Schools ,1992 Blessed Assurance: A Postmodern Midwestern Life Marcelline Hutton,2019-10 In this book a historian of women s lives turns the lens on her own experience Her story is Midwestern for its work ethic modesty faith and resilience postmodern for its sudden changes strange juxtapositions and retrospective deconstruction of the ideologies that shaped its progress It describes a life in and out of academia and a search for acceptance recognition equality and freedom The author of three books on women s experiences in Russia and Europe Dr Marcelline Hutton traces her personal journey from traditional working class La Porte Indiana through college graduate school marriage motherhood divorce and independence in Iowa City Southampton Kansas City El Paso and ultimately Lithuania She arrives at a place of blessed assurance recognizing who she was what she has done and what she most valued The book is a testimony of life found and treasured and shared We are privileged to see her world through this honest perceptive and insightful recollection Time To Know Them Marilyn S. Sternglass,2017-09-25 In a time of declining resources in institutions of higher education we grapple with how priorities are to be set for the limited resources available Most vulnerable are those students labeled underprepared by colleges and universities Should we argue that the limited resources available ought to be used to support these students through their undergraduate years And if we decide that we want to do that what evidence of their potential for success can we provide that will justify the use of these resources Through longitudinal research that follows students who have been so labeled over all their college years we can begin to find answers to these questions Time to Know Them is the first book that follows the experiences of a group of students over their entire academic experience No previous studies have brought together the factors incorporated in this study examining writing and learning on a true longitudinal basis studying a multicultural urban population investigating the relationship between writing and learning by examining papers written over time for regularly assigned academic courses across a range of disciplines and taking into consideration non academic factors that influence academic performance such as race gender socio economic status and ideological orientation Through interviews twice a semester over six years the collection of papers written for all courses observations of instructional settings and analysis of required institutional tests of writing the author has been able to pull together a more complete picture of writing and intellectual development over the college years than has previously been available in any study Students are seen to acquire the ability to handle more complex reasoning tasks as they find themselves in more challenging intellectual settings and where risk taking and exploration of new ideas are valued

The integration of students previous life experiences into their academic studies allows them to analyze critique modify and apply their previously held world views to their new learning These changes are seen to occur over time with instructional settings and support providing key roles in writing development Personal factors in students lives present difficulties that require persistence and dedication to overcome Never before have the complexities of real individual lives as they affect academic performance been so clearly presented
