Interethnic Relations in Post-communist Romania Lucian Nastasă, Levente Salat, 2000 Holocaust Public Memory in Postcommunist Romania Alexandru Florian, 2018-01-24 How is the Holocaust remembered in Romania since the fall of communism Alexandru Florian and an international group of contributors unveil how and why Romania a place where large segments of the Jewish and Roma populations perished still fails to address its recent past These essays focus on the roles of government and public actors that choose to promote construct defend or contest the memory of the Holocaust as well as the tools the press the media monuments and commemorations that create public memory Coming from a variety of perspectives these essays provide a compelling view of what memories exist how they are sustained how they can be distorted and how public remembrance of the Holocaust can be encouraged in Romanian society today Nationalist Politics and Everyday Ethnicity in a Transylvanian Town Rogers Brubaker, Margit Feischmidt, Jon Fox, Liana Grancea, 2018-06-05 Situated on the geographic margins of two nations yet imagined as central to each Transylvania has long been a site of nationalist struggles Since the fall of communism these struggles have been particularly intense in Cluj Transylvania s cultural and political center Yet heated nationalist rhetoric has evoked only muted popular response The citizens of Cluj the Romanian speaking majority and the Hungarian speaking minority have been largely indifferent to the nationalist claims made in their names Based on seven years of field research this book examines not only the sharply polarized fields of nationalist politics in Cluj Transylvania and the wider region but also the more fluid terrain on which ethnicity and nationhood are experienced enacted and understood in everyday life In doing so the book addresses fundamental questions about ethnicity where it is when it matters and how it works Bridging conventional divisions of academic labor Rogers Brubaker and his collaborators employ perspectives seldom found together historical and ethnographic institutional and interactional political and experiential Further developing the argument of Brubaker s groundbreaking Ethnicity without Groups the book demonstrates that it is ultimately in and through everyday experience as much as in political contestation or cultural articulation that ethnicity and nationhood are produced and reproduced as basic categories of social and political life Peace Psychology in the Balkans Olivera Simić, Zala Volčič, Catherine R. Philpot, 2012-03-06 The volume covers the development of peace psychology in the Balkans The Balkans is a region marked by post communist and post conflict transitional turmoil and this book provides a comprehensive introduction to research in peace psychology in this part of the world written by scholars primarily working in the Balkan area It brings together innovative scholarship that examines interdisciplinary aspects of peace psychology researched and written by scholars from Kosovo Serbia Bosnia Bulgaria Romania Macedonia Croatia and Slovenia as well as presenting research that responds to contemporary global issues by tracking the ways in which peace psychology is developing and implementing in the Balkans Taming Ethnic Hatred Patrice C. McMahon, 2007-04-05 With its unique emphasis on ethnic cooperation rather than discord this work provides insights into how the international community can help to restrain ethnic conflict in the Twenty First century By examining the construction of ethnic peace in post Soviet Eastern Europe Patrice McMahon accurately describes how the international community worked to quell growing tensions in the East Key was a network of public and private organizations whose goal it was to work in overlapping ways to manage inter ethnic relations which in turn kept ethnically charged clashes far below levels forecast Inspired by the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe CSCE this network included Western governments intergovernmental organizations as well as non governmental organizations Although each actor had its own reason for involvement in this network she highlights the shared principles and overlapping strategies actors used and how their interaction translated into a modern form of decentralized governance This book addresses these issues by considering ethnic relations in Romania and Latvia In so doing it brings to the fore important stories too long ignored by the West and academic research Writing in a direct readable fashion the author connects her subject to a larger review of changes in global governance
