Interethnic Relations In Postcommunist Romania:

- Interethnic Relations in Post-communist Romania Lucian Nastasă, Levente Salat, 2000
- Holocaust Public Memory in Postcommunist Romania Alexandru Florian, 2018-01-24 How is the Holocaust remembered in Romania since the fall of communism Alexandru Florian and an international group of contributors unveil how and why Romania a place where large segments of the Jewish and Roma populations perished still fails to address its recent past These essays focus on the roles of government and public actors that choose to promote construct defend or contest the memory of the Holocaust as well as the tools the press the media monuments and commemorations that create public memory Coming from a variety of perspectives these essays provide a compelling view of what memories exist how they are sustained how they can be distorted and how public remembrance of the Holocaust can be encouraged in Romanian society today
- Nationalist Politics and Everyday Ethnicity in a Transylvanian Town Rogers Brubaker, Margit Feischmidt, Jon Fox, Liana Grancea, 2018-06-05 Situated on the geographic margins of two nations yet imagined as central to each Transylvania has long been a site of nationalist struggles Since the fall of communism these struggles have been particularly intense in Cluj Transylvania s cultural and political center Yet heated nationalist rhetoric has evoked only muted popular response The citizens of Cluj the Romanian speaking majority and the Hungarian speaking minority have been largely indifferent to the nationalist claims made in their names Based on seven years of field research this book examines not only the sharply polarized fields of nationalist politics in Cluj Transylvania and the wider region but also the more fluid terrain on which ethnicity and nationhood are experienced enacted and understood in everyday life In doing so the book addresses fundamental questions about ethnicity where it is when it matters and how it works Bridging conventional divisions of academic labor Rogers Brubaker and his collaborators employ perspectives seldom found together historical and ethnographic institutional and interactional political and experiential Further developing the argument of Brubaker s groundbreaking Ethnicity without Groups the book demonstrates that it is ultimately in and through everyday experience as much as in political contestation or cultural articulation that ethnicity and nationhood are produced and reproduced as basic categories of social and political life
- Peace Psychology in the Balkans Olivera Simić, Zala Volčič, Catherine R. Philpot, 2012-03-06 The volume covers the development of peace psychology in the Balkans The Balkans is a region marked by post communist and post conflict transitional turmoil and this book provides a comprehensive introduction to research in peace psychology in this part of the world written by scholars primarily working in the Balkan area It brings together innovative scholarship that examines interdisciplinary aspects of peace psychology researched and written by scholars from Kosovo Serbia Bosnia Bulgaria Romania Macedonia Croatia and Slovenia as well as presenting research that responds to contemporary global issues by tracking the ways in which peace psychology is developing and implementing in the Balkans
- Taming Ethnic Hatred* Patrice C. McMahon, 2007-04-05 With its unique emphasis on ethnic cooperation rather than discord this work provides insights into how the international community can help to restrain ethnic conflict in the Twenty First century By examining the construction of ethnic peace in post Soviet Eastern Europe Patrice McMahon accurately describes how the international community worked to quell growing tensions in the East Key was a network of public and private organizations whose goal it was to work in overlapping ways to manage inter ethnic relations which in turn kept ethnically charged clashes far below levels forecast Inspired by the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe CSCE this network included Western governments intergovernmental organizations as well as non governmental organizations Although each actor had its own reason for involvement in this network she highlights the shared principles and overlapping strategies actors used and how their interaction translated into a modern form of decentralized governance This book addresses these issues by considering ethnic relations in Romania and Latvia In so doing it brings to the fore important stories too long ignored by the West and academic research Writing in a direct readable fashion the author connects her subject to a larger review of changes in global governance

Ethnic Minorities and Politics in Post-Socialist

Southeastern Europe Sabrina P. Ramet, Marko Valenta, 2016-09-22 Southeast European politics cannot be understood without considering ethnic minorities This book is a comprehensive introduction to ethnic political parties Questions of Civil Society Adam Jarosz, 2014-07-03 This book is devoted to questions and research problems generated by the issue of civil society It contains contributions from mostly young scientists who develop various approaches to the position and functionality of civil society examining different examples from both the past and the present based on theoretical approaches to this concept As a result the volume adopts an interdisciplinary perspective which allows the identification of various levels of the concept of the civil society and insight into its multiformity in terms of its reality and its interpretation and depiction as a means of political and social self determination The book provides fluid interpretation patterns and avoids working with the term civil society in any fixed definitional mode The editors and authors aim as well as the main objective of the volume is to refresh and stimulate the discussion and point out exemplary fields of research which will bring interesting explanations and impulses to the formulation of innovative research questions regarding the concept of civil society Finally the book explains and underlines the pivotal role of the civil society in the upheavals of the 21st century as well as provides an understanding of it as a fundamental structural element of the necessary renegotiation of the relations between the state and society

Post-Communist Romania at Twenty-Five Lavinia Stan, Diane Vancea, 2015-06-24 2014 marked the 25th anniversary of the collapse of communist regimes in Eastern Europe The events of 1989 are widely seen as having ushered in new all encompassing reforms in almost all areas of life In few other places were reforms more contested and divisive than in Romania a country that suffered greatly under the sultanistic cum totalitarian dictatorship of Nicolae Ceausescu faced the region's only bloody anti communist revolt and as such had the longest to travel on the road from communism to democracy We now have a generation's worth of experience with these wrenching reforms that have deeply affected Romania's political institutions and political culture and ultimately allowed it to become a member of the coveted European Union club This volume gathers key lessons for democratic theory and practice from Romania's first twenty five years of post communist transformation Written by leading experts in the field of Romanian Studies the chapters focus on the most important factors that have shaped the country's political transformation during the first 25 years of post communism

Ethnicity and Intercultural Dialogue at the European Union Eastern Border Mircea Brie, Sorin Sipos, 2014-09-26 Ethnicity and religious confession are concepts around which discussion and controversy arise generating emotions and feelings of extreme intensity Each of us belongs to such a community By default there is pressure on us to be subjective Intercultural dialogue can be successfully provided where a community that is aware of the Other comes to communicate cooperate and build the structure of a multicultural society Diversity throughout Central and South Eastern Europe can lead to either cooperation or conflict Presently we face discrimination marginalization low status minorities peripheral societies and the inequitable distribution of resources that leads to unequal distribution of authority and power

Problems of Post-communism, 2005 The Bibliography of Romanian Nationalism & Ethnicity in Western Languages Sorin Mitu, 2008 Exchange, Dialogue, New Divisions? Sonja Schöler, 2016 The countries of the larger region of Eastern Europe pass through change and modernization processes with ambivalent effects This book tackles aspects of cultural diversity and change in the Baltic States in Southeast Europe and in the Southern Caucasus These regions are diverse not only with regard to their historical political and religious traditions but also with regard to their status as EU members or non members The articles focus on the situation of ethnic minorities and related political and public discourses as well as on aspects of political cultures The anthology also raises the topic of cleavages between geographic Eastern Europe and Europe's reunited part Sonja Schöler is a Research and Teaching Assistant at the Department of Social Sciences Social Anthropology of the University of Fribourg Switzerland Series Freiburg Studies in Social Anthropology Freiburger Sozialanthropologische Studien Vol 45 Subject Eastern European Studies Sociology

Bringing the Dark Past to Light John-Paul Himka, Joanna Beata Michlic, 2013-07-01 Despite the Holocaust's profound impact on the history of Eastern Europe the communist regimes successfully repressed public discourse about and memory of this tragedy Since the collapse of communism in 1989 however this has changed Not only has a wealth of archival sources become available but there have also been oral history projects and interviews recording the testimonies of eyewitnesses who experienced the Holocaust as children and young adults Recent political social and cultural developments have facilitated a more nuanced and complex understanding of the continuities and discontinuities in representations of the Holocaust People are beginning to realize the significant role that memory of Holocaust plays in contemporary discussions of national identity in Eastern Europe This volume of original essays explores the memory of the Holocaust and the Jewish past in postcommunist Eastern Europe Devoting space to every postcommunist country the essays in Bringing the Dark Past to Light explore how the memory of the dark pasts of Eastern

European nations is being recollected and reworked In addition it examines how this memory shapes the collective identities and the social identity of ethnic and national minorities Memory of the Holocaust has practical implications regarding the current development of national cultures and international relationships

Democratic Consolidation and Europeanization in Romania Sergiu Mişcoiu, 2021-09-07 This volume is a multi dimensional analysis of Romania s political economic cultural and societal transformation after 1989 It synthetically depicts the main stages of the processes of democratic transition and consolidation as well as the subsequent phenomena of Europeanization but also the series of more recent democratic setbacks that affected the Romanian society The overall perspective is integrative providing the reader with a balanced and complete understanding of Romania s post communist challenges without being spared of the most sensitive aspects The volume gathers the contributions of some of the most distinguished experts in different sub fields of transition studies including political systems societal transformations minority rights macro economic dynamics and foreign policy

The Balkans Mark Biondich, 2011-02-17 The Balkans has long been a place of encounter among different peoples religions and civilizations resulting in a rich cultural tapestry and mosaic of nationalities But it has also been burdened by a traumatic post colonial experience The transition from traditional multinational empires to modern nation states has been accompanied by large scale political violence that has resulted in the deaths of hundreds of thousands and the permanent displacement of millions more Mark Biondich examines the origins of these conflicts while treating the region as an integral part of modern European history shaped by much the same forces and intellectual impulses It reminds us that political violence and ethnic cleansing have scarcely been unique to the Balkans As Biondich shows the political violence that has bedevilled the region since the late nineteenth century stemmed from modernity and the ideology of integral nationalism employed by states that were dominated by democratizing or authoritarian nationalizing elites committed to national homogeneity Throughout this period the Balkan proponents of democratic governance civil society and multiculturalism were progressively marginalized The history of revolution war political violence and ethnic cleansing in the modern Balkans is above all the story of this tragic marginalization

Post-Communist Romania D. Light, D. Phinnemore, 2001-02-02 Drawing on contributions from various disciplines this up to date collection analyses Romania s experiences of the transition from the harsh realities of the Ceausescu dictatorship to the uncertainties of the efforts to consolidate democracy and introduce a market economy With its focus on Romania s progress in coming to terms with the legacy of its communist past the realities of pluralism the introduction of a market economy and the challenge of European integration the volume will be key reading for academics students and practitioners interested in transition and Romania

Diversity in the European Union Elisabeth Prügl, Markus Thiel, 2009-12-07 This volume provides an overview of EU actions seeking to manage diversity introduces a conceptual framework to think about diversity in the European Union and provides a tapestry of cases that illustrate minority politics and activism contestations over identity and difference and the construction of new meanings of European citizenship

Religion and Politics in Post-Communist Romania Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2007-10-25 Stan and Turcescu examine the complex relationship between church and state in the new Romania providing analysis in key areas church collaboration with communist authorities post communist electoral politics nationalism and ethno politics and religious education among other areas

Mothers, Families or Children? Tomasz Inglot, Dorottya Szikra, Cristina Raț, 2022-10-11 Mothers Families or Children is the first comparative historical study of family policies in Poland Hungary and Romania from 1945 until the eve of the global pandemic in 2020 The book highlights the emergence consolidation and perseverance of three types of family policies based on mother orientation in Poland family orientation in Hungary and child orientation in Romania It uses a new theoretical framework to identify core and contingent clusters of benefits and services in each country and trace their development across time and under different political regimes before and after 1989 It also examines and compares policy continuity and change with special attention to institutions ideas and actors involved in decision making and reform As family policies continue to evolve in the era of European Union membership and new governmental and societal actors emerge this study reveals mechanisms that help preserve core family policy clusters while allowing reform in contingent ones in each country

The Politics of National Minority Participation in Post-communist Societies: State-building, Democracy and Ethnic Mobilization Jonathan Stein, 2019-07-23 With the upsurge of nationalist sentiment in post communist societies the problem of political rights for ethnic minorities became a dangerous flashpoint The introduction of electoral competition the rewriting of constitutions the breakup of federations the weakness of civic institutions and the social and economic dislocations associated with marketization have all contributed to the salience of majority minority relations This collection systematically analyzes different models of minority politics in Eastern Europe in an effort to understand why tensions are manageable in some contexts uncontainable in others Anchoring the volume are essays by Carlos Flores Juberias on electoral systems and Janusz Bugajski on national minority parties Six case studies examine the interaction of different types of institutional arrangements which structure political participation and different demographic conditions ethnic balances and territorial concentrations in Albania Bulgaria Croatia Estonia Latvia and Romania Framing these studies are overviews by the editors and by Jack Snyder
