Lerner, Cheryl A. (Cheryl Ann) Kier, Jason Brown, 2005

Adolescence Richard M. Lerner, 2006 Adolescence Richard M. Lerner, 1999 Conflicting Identities and Multiple Masculinities takes as its focus the construction of masculinity in Western Europe from the early Middle Ages until the fifteenth century crossing from pre Christian Scandinavia across western Christendom The essays consult a broad and representative cross section of sources including the work of theological scholastic and monastic writers sagas hagiography and memoirs material culture chronicles exempla and vernacular literature sumptuary legislation and the records of ecclesiastical courts The studies address questions of what constituted male identity and male sexuality How was masculinity constructed in different social groups How did the secular and ecclesiastical ideals of masculinity reinforce each other or diverge These essays address the topic of medieval men and through a variety of theoretical methodological and disciplinary approaches significantly extend our understanding of how in the Middle Ages masculinity and identity were conflicted and multifarious Adolescence, 19?? Handbook of Psychology, Developmental Psychology Irving B. Weiner, Donald K. Freedheim, 2003-01-03 This work provides an overview of cognitive intellectual personality and social development across the lifespan with attention to infancy early childhood middle childhood adolescence and early middle late adulthood Chapters cover a broad range of core topics including language acquisition identity formation and the role of family peers school and workplace influences on continuity and change over time The Concise Corsini Encyclopedia of Psychology and Behavioral Science W. Edward Craighead, Charles B. Nemeroff, 2004-04-19 Edited by high caliber experts and contributed to by quality researchers and practitioners in psychology and related fields Includes over 500 topical entries Each entry features suggested readings and extensive cross referencing Accessible to students and general readers Edited by two outstanding scholars and clinicians Handbook of Adolescent Psychology Richard M. Lerner, Laurence Steinberg, 2004-04-26 The study of adolescence in the field of psychology has grown tremendously over the last two decades necessitating a comprehensive and up to date revision of this seminal work This multidisciplinary handbook edited by the premier scholars in the field Richard Lerner and Laurence Steinberg and with contributions from the leading researchers reflects the latest empirical work and growth in the field Adolescent Health Lynn Rew, 2005 Covering social morbidities and mortalities of adolescents including suicide smoking high risk sexual activity eating disorders mental health problems and interpersonal violence this volume consolidates multiple theoretical perspectives The Oxford Handbook of Evolutionary Psychology and Parenting Viviana A. Weekes-Shackelford, Todd K. Shackelford, 2021 The Oxford Handbook of Evolutionary Psychology and Parenting provides a comprehensive resource for work on how our evolutionary past informs current parenting roles and practices It features chapters from leaders in the field covering state of the art research The Handbook is designed for advanced undergraduates graduates and professionals in psychology anthropology biology sociology and demography as well as many other social and life science disciplines It is the first resource of its kind that brings together empirical and theoretical contributions from scholarship at the intersection of evolutionary psychology and parenting Each of the authors has a Ph D in evolutionary psychology and much of their research focuses on violence and conflict in families and romantic relationships Adolescent Risk and Vulnerability National Research Council, Institute of Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, 2001-10-08 Adolescents obviously do not always act in ways that serve their own best interests even as defined by them Sometimes their perception of their own risks even of survival to adulthood is larger than the reality in other cases they underestimate the risks of particular actions or behaviors It is possible indeed likely that some adolescents engage in risky behaviors because of a perception of invulnerability the current conventional wisdom of adults views of adolescent behavior Others however take risks because they feel vulnerable to a point approaching hopelessness In either case these perceptions can prompt adolescents to make poor decisions that can put them at risk and leave them vulnerable to physical or psychological harm that may have a negative impact on their long term health and viability A small planning group was formed to develop a workshop on reconceptualizing adolescent risk and vulnerability With funding from Carnegie Corporation of New York the Workshop on Adolescent Risk and Vulnerability Setting Priorities took place on March 13 2001 in Washington DC The workshop's goal was to put into perspective the total burden of vulnerability that adolescents face taking advantage of the growing societal concern for adolescents the need to set priorities for meeting adolescents needs and the opportunity to apply decision making perspectives to this critical area This report summarizes the workshop Families with Adolescents Stephen M. Gavazzi, Ji-Young Lim, 2023-10-06 The second edition of this book offers an expanded and updated blueprint for more consistently improved practice emphasizing family process and structure instead of only individual developmental stages Its chapters deftly summarize the recent knowledge base about families with adolescents and explains how to apply these results across mental health and social services disciplines The new edition clearly illustrates family concerns and theoretical perspectives through real world vignettes and cogent use of family assessment measures Chapters offer a broad understanding of how diversity in all its forms including race ethnicity culture religion and sexual orientation has created a much more nuanced understanding of how families with adolescents are able to function within their environment Both major challenges to families and communities form the backdrop of the second edition s focus on forecasting in which the theoretical empirical and intervention literatures necessarily move in service to the health and well being of families with adolescents Featured topics include Central concepts of family development family systems ecological attachment and social learning theories in relation to families with adolescents Influence of the family on adolescent problem behavior mental health concerns substance use issues educational attainment and social competence outcomes Selected studies on parenting behaviors conflict resolution and other major aspects of families with adolescents Application topics in family based intervention and prevention programs Integrating theory research and applications to create a triple threat model Diversity issues surrounding race ethnicity culture religion and sexual orientation Families with Adolescents Second Edition is an essential resource for researchers professors and graduate and advanced undergraduate students as well as professionals and other mental health clinicians practitioners and therapists in clinical child and developmental psychology family studies human development sociology social work education and all allied disciplines Adolescent Diversity in Ethnic, Economic, and Cultural Contexts Raymond Montemayor, Gerald R. Adams, Thomas P. Gullotta, 2000-01-24 How do adolescents who hail from non white poor or rural backgrounds reconcile their ethnic or traditional heritage with the largely white middle class urban world of modern America How does this issue impact their development and behavior This volume in the Advances in Adolescent Development series addresses these questions by focusing on how demographic diversity defined by race ethnicity community size region and wealth shape adolescent experiences and development With contributions by recognized experts in their field the book explores competence among urban adolescents living in poverty rural youth and how their experiences differ from other adolescents the development of contemporary Appalachian youth how Native American youth negotiate the challenges of adolescent development Asian American adolescents from the perspectives of academic achievement ethnic identity and psychological adjustment poor versus positive functioning among African American adolescents and the factors that produce these outcomes and a phenomenological variant of ecological systems theory as a framework to review research on American adolescent diversity that goes well beyond the traditional focus on minorities

Mobilizing Adults for Positive Youth Development E. Gil Clary, Jean E. Rhodes, 2006-09-24 Perhaps no other challenge is more pressing in creating developmentally tentative community and society the theme of this book series than mobilizing adultstoplayactive constructiverolesinthelivesofchildrenandadolescents In a society that too easily defaults to designing programs as cure alls for meeting young people s needs particular attention must be paid to understanding and mobilizing the kind of positive relational energy that prepares each successive generation to assume its place in society Although programs and institutions certainlyplayimportantroles thekeyliesinthepersonalcommitment invol ment and investment of adults in young people s lives In Mobilizing Adults for Positive Youth Development Strategies for Closing the Gap between Beliefs and Behaviors E Gil Clary and Jean E Rhodes have ass bled the insights of leading scholars from multiple disciplines and contexts for engaging a broad cadre of adults as allies for youth development As the editors write thequestionguidingthebookis Howcanwemosteffectivelyencourage adults both individually and collectively to begin to behave differently with spect to the young people of a community to do so consistently and to do so in a variety of ways What is being proposed then is nothing less than a social movement that engages individuals small groups neighborhoods workplaces schools faith communities and broader social institutions in attending to the well being and healthy development of young people

Adolescence in America Jacqueline V. Lerner Ph.D., Richard M. Lerner, Jordan Finkelstein, 2001-06-04 An authoritative broad and practical survey of the social psychological and physical development of American teenagers In Adolescence in America more than 100 leading experts from the fields of biology medicine behavioral and social science law education and the humanities piece together the puzzle of adolescence In readable accessible language they analyze the explosion of research that has reshaped the study of adolescence in the last 30 years and explain how today s leading scientists and practitioners view the challenges of this developmental period Best of all they show parents how to apply the latest scientific knowledge such as the 40 developmental assets that predict a child s behavior to their own family situation

Concepts and Theories of Human Development Richard M. Lerner, 2013-05-13 A classic in the field this third edition will continue to be the book of choice for advanced undergraduate and graduate level courses in theories of human development in departments of psychology and human development This volume has been substantially revised with an eye toward supporting applied developmental science and the developmental systems perspectives Since the publication of the second edition developmental systems theories have taken center stage in contemporary developmental science and have provided compelling alternatives to reductionist theoretical accounts having either a nature or nurture emphasis As a consequence a developmental systems orientation frames the presentation in this edition This new edition has been expanded substantially in comparison to the second edition Special features include A separate chapter focuses on the historical roots of concepts and theories of human development on philosophical models of development and on developmental contextualism Two new chapters surrounding the discussion of developmental contextualism one on developmental systems theories wherein several exemplars of such models are discussed and a corresponding chapter wherein key instances of such theories life span life course bioecological and action theoretical ones are presented A new chapter on cognition and development is included contrasting systems approaches to cognitive development with neo nativist perspectives A more differentiated treatment of nature oriented theories of development is provided There are separate chapters on behavior genetics the controversy surrounding the study of the heritability of intelligence work on the instinctual theory of Konrad Lorenz and a new chapter on sociobiology A new chapter concentrates on applied developmental science

Community Youth Development Francisco Villarruel, 2003-01-23 This edited text focuses on positive approaches to youth development that are rapidly supplanting the traditional deficit oriented problem reduction approach The book addresses the question what does it take to create a community that will promote the positive opportunities that can optimize the development of all young people The book draws together the perspectives of top names and programs in positive youth development thus assuring readers of authoritative cutting edge coverage

Advanced Introduction to Youth Studies Williamson, Howard, Côté, James E., 2022-10-07 The Advanced Introduction to Youth Studies analyses the historical development of the sociology of youth in the context of changing population demographics Howard Williamson and James C t explore competing paradigms underlying current understanding of youth with reference to key philosophical theoretical and methodological debates Young people s transitions to adulthood and youth cultural behaviour are then explored The authors conclude with a consideration of youth policies and how in the future these may be better informed by sociological research
