

ANDROCLES AND THE LION

A long time ago, in Rome there lived a slave called Androcles, who had a cruel master. Androcles was very unhappy with his life as a slave, and he often thought of freedom outside the city. One day he decided to run away, so when the opportunity came, he scaped to the forest and hid there. Life in the forest was very hard for Androcles because he had to hunt for his food like the animals. Also he was always afraid that his master would find him and take him back to Rome.

One day when Androcles went out to look for food, he met a huge lion. At first he was very scared because he was sure that the lion would eat him. Then Androcles noticed that the lion's paw was sore and bleeding and there was big thorn in one of his toes. Androcles took the thorn out of the lion's foot, and said to him, "Your foot will get better now, in a few days will be able to walk again". The lion was so grateful to Androcles for what he had done that he took the slave to his cave and let him hide there. Androcles had shelter from the rain and cold wind, and every day the lion brought him fresh meat to eat.

Everything was all right until the king sent soldiers into the forest to look for lions for the arena in Rome. The soldiers captured both, Androcles and the lion, and took them back to Rome. They were going to feed Androcles to a lion that hadn't eaten anything for several days. The king came to the arena to watch the fun. Then the soldiers put the slave and the lion in the arena in front of the king's seat, but as soon as the lion came near to Androcles, he knew he had found his old friend. To the surprise of everyone, the hungry lion laid down at Androcles feet.

The king asked Androcles why the lion would not eat him, and after Androcles had told him the whole story; the king gave the slave his freedom and let the lion return to the forest.
