Asger Jorn Louisiana Library:

Asger Jorn Helle Brøns, 2009 Asger Jorn: Louisiana Library Helle Brøns, 2009 The second publication in the Louisiana Library series from Denmark's Louisiana Museum of Modern Art is an in depth look at that institution's impressive Asger Jorn collection. Jorn, a founding member of COBRA, an acronym for Copenhagen, Brussels, and Amsterdam, remains one of Denmark's most influential painters. He was also a founding member with Guy Debord of the Situationist International (SI). There has been a tendency to view Debord as the sole motivating figure behind the SI, but while Debord's role was indisputably central, Jorn's influence should not be underestimated. In his four years of activity with the group (1957-1961), Jorn not only continued to make some of his best paintings; he also assisted in the editing of the movement's journal Internationale Situationniste. This volume provides an introduction to the life and work of this key figure of the European postwar art scene and is illustrated with color reproductions of the museum's entire Jorn collection. The Art and Politics of Asger Jorn Karen Kurczynski, 2017-07-05 A leading figure of the postwar avant garde, Danish artist Asger Jorn has long been recognized for his founding contributions to the Cobra and Situationist International movements, yet art historical scholarship on Jorn has been sparse, particularly in English. This study corrects that imbalance, offering a synthetic account of the essential phases of this prolific artist's career. It addresses his works in various media alongside his extensive writings and his collaborations with various artists' groups from the 1940s through the mid 1960s. Situating Jorn's work in an international post-Second World War context, Karen Kurczynski reframes our understanding of the 1950s away from the Abstract Expressionist focus on individual expression toward a more open-ended conception of art as a public engagement with contemporary culture and politics. Kurczynski engages with issues of interest to twenty-first century artists and scholars, highlighting Jorn's proposition that the sensory address of art and its complex relationship to popular media can have a direct social impact. Perhaps most significantly, this study foregrounds Jorn's assertion that creativity is crucial to subjectivity itself in our increasingly mediated Society of the Spectacle. Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1972 Beginning with 1953 entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips, Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue. Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately, 1953-1955. The Beach Beneath the Street McKenzie Wark, 2015-04-07 Over fifty years after the Situationist International appeared, its legacy continues to inspire activists, artists, and theorists around the world. Such a legend has accrued to this movement that the story of the SI now demands to be told in a contemporary voice capable of putting it into the context of twenty-first century struggles. McKenzie Wark delves into the Situationists' unacknowledged diversity, revealing a world as rich in practice as it is in theory. Tracing the group's development from the bohemian Paris of the 50s to the explosive days of May 68, Wark's take on the Situationists is biographically and historically rich, presenting the group as an ensemble creation rather than the brainchild and dominion of its most famous member, Guy Debord. Roaming through Europe and the lives of those who made up the movement, including

Constant Asger Jorn Mich le Bernstein Alex Trocchi and Jacqueline De Jong Wark uncovers an international movement riven with conflicting passions Accessible to those who have only just discovered the Situationists and filled with new insights The Beach Beneath the Street rereads the group s history in the light of our contemporary experience of communications architecture and everyday life The Situationists tried to escape the world of twentieth century spectacle and failed in the attempt Wark argues that they may still help us to escape the twenty first century while we still can National Union Catalog ,1983 Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Fine Arts Library, 1976 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress, 1976 Asger Jorn, the Crucial Years 1954-1964 Guy Atkins, 1977 Comparative Vandalism Peter Shield, 2018-10-26 First published in 1998 this volume is a study of Asger Jorn's attempt to formulate the first complete revision of the existing philosophical system from the standpoint of the artist in the period 1961-67 The Danish artist Asger Jorn 1914-73 painter draughtsman potter and sculptor was one of the most prominent figures of his generation in Europe His characteristic paintings were spontaneous using energetic brushstrokes splashing and spotting with a wide ranging palette Jorn's eclectic intellect absorbed an astonishing range of influences and involved him in many causes including an ambitious programme to re-publish with commentary material vital to Scandinavian cultural history He was also a founder member of Cobra 1948-51 and subsequently several other international groupings which coalesced in 1957 in the setting up of the Situationist International with French and Italian writers and artists Fascinated by the philosophical debate on the position of the artist in contemporary life and the artist's relationship to the past. Jorn broke with the Situationist International in 1961 over the issue of whether an artist is an instigator of cultural change or only an instrument of political change. For the next four years he committed himself to a first complete revision of the existing philosophical system with the intention of placing the artist at the centre. Many of his ideas were first tried out in French in various Situationist publications and have since stirred considerable debate. His much more comprehensive texts in Danish of 1961-67 have never been made available in English. In Comparative Vandalism Peter Shield offers the first detailed study of Jorn's revision of modern philosophy exploring the origins and formulation of his ideas. The book includes colour and black and white reproductions chosen from his mature work to illustrate the connection between his writing and painting.
