CBHFL Exam PDF-Cent Bank Home Finance Ltd Sr Officer-Officer Exam eBook Chandresh Agrawal, Nandini Books, 2024-05-05

SGN The CBHFL Exam PDF Cent Bank Home Finance Ltd Sr Officer Officer Exam eBook Covers All Sections Of The Exam Cash Flow Statement - English Navneet Singh, Cash Flow Statement

The cash flow statement is a financial statement that provides an overview of a company's cash inflows and outflows during a specific period. It is divided into three main sections: operating activities, investing activities, and financing activities.

Operating Activities: This section reports cash flows from the company's core business operations. It includes transactions such as revenue from sales, payment to suppliers, salaries to employees, and taxes paid. Operating cash flow indicates how much cash the company generates or consumes from its normal business operations.

Investing Activities: This section covers cash flows related to the purchase and sale of long-term assets and investments. It includes expenditures on property, plant, and equipment, capital expenditures, purchases or sales of securities, and acquisitions or divestitures of subsidiaries or other businesses. Investing cash flow shows how the company is investing in its future growth or divesting assets.

Financing Activities: This section accounts for cash flows related to the company's financing activities. It includes transactions such as issuing or repurchasing stock, borrowing or repaying loans, and payment of dividends. Financing cash flow reflects how the company raises capital and manages its debt.

By analysing the cash flow statement, investors can assess a company's ability to generate cash, its liquidity, and its financial flexibility. It complements the income statement and balance sheet by providing insights into the actual cash movements within the business, which may differ from reported profits due to non-cash items such as depreciation and amortization.
