The Macroeconomics Anti-Textbook Tony Myatt, 2022-10-20 Mainstream textbooks present economics as an objective science free from value judgements This book demonstrates this to be a myth one which serves to make such textbooks not only off puttingly bland but also dangerously misleading in their justification of the status quo and neglect of alternatives In this much needed companion volume to the popular Microeconomics Anti Textbook Tony Myatt reveals how the blind spots and methodological problems present in microeconomics continue to exert their influence in mainstream macroeconomics From a flawed conception of the labour market to a Pollyanna view of the financial sector macroeconomic principles as they are set out in conventional undergraduate textbooks consistently fail to set out a realistic useful or equitable framework for understanding the world By summarising and then critically evaluating the major topics found in a typical macroeconomics textbook the Anti Textbook lays bare their sins of omission and commission showing where hidden value judgements are made and when contrary evidence and alternative theories are ignored The Macroeconomics Anti Textbook is the student s essential guide to decoding mainstream macroeconomic textbooks and demonstrating how real world economics are much more interesting than most economists are willing to let on

Microeconomics Avinash Dixit, 2014-04 The issues of microeconomics including individuals financial choices and firms decisions about hiring and firing have a large impact on the economic world arguably as much if not more than macroeconomics In this Very Short Introduction Avinash Dixit clearly explains what microeconomics is by using examples from around the world

Lives of the Laureates, sixth edition Roger W. Spencer, David A. Macpherson, 2014-12-05 Autobiographical accounts by Nobel laureates reflect the richness and diversity of contemporary economic thought and offer insights into the creative process Lives of the Laureates offers readers an informal history of modern economic thought as told through autobiographical essays by twenty three Nobel Prize laureates in Economics The essays not only provide unique insights into major economic ideas of our time but also shed light on the processes of intellectual discovery and creativity The accounts are accessible and engaging achieving clarity without sacrificing inherently difficult content This sixth edition adds four recent Nobelists to its pages Eric Maskin who illustrates his explanation of mechanism design with an example involving a mother a cake and two children Joseph Stiglitz who recounts his field s ideological wars linked to policy disputes Paul Krugman who describes the insights he gained from studying the model of the Capitol Hill Babysitting Coop and the recession it suffered when more people wanted to accumulate babysitting coupons than redeem them and Peter Diamond who maps his development from student to teacher to policy analyst Lives of the Laureates grows out of a continuing lecture series at Trinity University in San Antonio which invites Nobelists from American universities to describe their evolution as economists in personal as well as technical terms These lectures demonstrate the richness and diversity of contemporary economic thought The reader will find that paths cross in unexpected ways that disparate thinkers were often influenced by the same teachers and that luck as well as hard
