River Town Peter Hessler, 2013-12-19 When Peter Hessler went to China in the late 1990s he expected to spend a couple of peaceful years teaching English in the town of Fuling on the Yangtze River But what he experienced the natural beauty cultural tension and complex process of understanding that takes place when one is thrust into a radically different society surpassed anything he could have imagined Hessler observes firsthand how major events such as the death of Deng Xiaoping the return of Hong Kong to the mainland and the controversial construction of the Three Gorges Dam have affected even the people of a remote town like Fuling Poignant thoughtful and utterly compelling River Town is an unforgettable portrait of a place caught mid river in time much like China itself a country seeking to understand both what it was and what it will one day become

The "Inscrutably Chinese" Church Nathan Faries, 2010-09-23 The first half of the twenty first century promises to be a time of great change for the Christian church in the People's Republic of China The situation is complex and fluid and the information gap between those on the inside and those outside of China is still significant though shrinking The Inscrutably Chinese Church moves readers nearer to the Chinese Christian experience as Nathan Faries helps foreign readers to see with greater clarity just how Chinese Christians view their government and themselves in relation to those ruling powers There still exists a measure of inscrutability about China and its complex relationship with religion that must be explained to the outsider It is this gap in understanding between insider points of view within China and those outsiders seeking knowledge about the Christian faith in China that Faries seeks to close

Three Gorges, Xi'an and the Terracotta Warriors Simon Foster,Vivien Loughheed,2009-10-15 This guide is based on our much larger 530 page guide to Bolivia Here we zero in on La Paz the capital and all of the nearby attractions La Paz is not a big city on the world scale but it is certainly one of the more interesting ones Built in a bowl created by the Choqueyapu River the upper parts of the city stand 1 645 ft 500 m above the lower sections Unlike any other city in the world the richer neighborhoods are located at the lower levels This is partly due to the fact that it is warmer and easier to breathe at the lower altitudes Also the pinnacles and spires of conglomerate rock and clay that have been sculptured by wind and water make a dramatic backdrop for those living below them The higher up the bowl one goes the more unstable the land becomes and the more likely a landslide will occur The plazas squares and Prado are well kept in La Paz and even in the depth of winter plants are tended to help make the city attractive Street cleaners are out every day and local merchants regularly wash the area in front of their shops On a clear day Mount Illimani a snow covered monolith can be seen as a sentry towering over the city Valley of the Moon is six miles 10 km from the center of La Paz and can be reached by joining a tour or by taking micro bus 11 or minibus 231 or 273 to Mallasilla The hillside features a maze of clay canyons and pinnacles that have been sculpted by wind and rain Narrow trails through the landscape take about an hour to walk There is also a cactus park just before the entrance The park overlooks a gorge and has paths leading around numerous types of cacti As you continue up the road you will come to Parque National Mallasa with its bird observatory and across the road the zoo area The road passes under natural stone bridges and past Chulpani s Red Hill There is no mistaking which hill this is From Mallasa one
