Limpopo Life Anneli Ekblom, Michel Notelid, 2025-06-20 Limpopo Life introduces the reader to the material culture oral histories and the negotiation of conservation and landscape in an area now known as Limpopo National Park Introducing the archaeology of a region that has not been surveyed or discussed this book connects to the archaeology history heritage and conservation discussions in the southern African region as a whole Vegetation history and paleoecology are combined with archaeological surveys and excavations written sources oral histories and travelogues to draw a picture of the diverse landscape of the Limpopo region Intermixed within this narrative are sections that focus on an individual species a life history or an event providing a view of the complex and dynamic interactions The role of humans in this diverse environment and how they have co evolved with other species shaping each other s destinies in a consequential and accidental way is outlined This book will be of interest to researchers and students interested in the archaeology heritage and conservation of Mozambique Zimbabwe and northern South Africa It will also be of relevance to readers interested in the social history of the Limpopo and Kruger National Parks and this cross border area Annual Report ... South Africa. Department of Higher Education and Training, 2016

In Pursuit of Epistemic Healing in South African Universities Wanelisa Xaba, 2025-09-30 This book demonstrates the epistemic challenges in the South African education system and asks readers to think critically about the university s role in a decolonial future Wanelisa Xaba reveals how Western colonial educational models severed indigenous ways of knowing and learning across the Global South and settler colonial contexts Presenting narratives capturing ongoing histories of violence this book shows how Black South African students navigate intersecting identities of race class gender and spirituality within university settings It shows how racial discrimination from fellow students academics and staff coupled with discriminatory language policies financial exclusion and violent colonial curricula affects Black students wellbeing on university campuses Xaba argues that these intersecting colonial violences mirror spiritual violence hinder their holistic citizenship in South African universities and result in psycho spiritual disease By centring Black students voices this book provides crucial insights for educators policymakers activists healers and institutions committed to creating affirming academic spaces and epistemic healing It is an insightful read for scholars researching decoloniality in higher education as well as students of feminist studies decolonial theory educational justice and critical university studies From Parchment to Practice Tom Ginsburg, Aziz Z. Huq, 2020-04-30 Asks how the parchment promises of a written constitution are translated into political practice working through the many problems of constitutional implementation after adoption

The Report: South Africa 2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-12-08 Indeed since the end of apartheid in 1994 South Africa has become a major diplomatic player both on the African continent as well as further afield Despite the size of South Africa s economy the country currently faces a number of major economic challenges As of the end of July 2014 the unemployment rate was at 25.5% according to data from Statistics South Africa which was among the highest in the world While the government s long term development plans are generally highly regarded delivery and execution has occasionally been problematic While there are major hurdles that must be cleared given the country s strong institutions and the rapid pace of economic expansion over the past two decades South Africa should be able to look forward to 20 more years of peace and steady sustained economic growth      Whites and Democracy in South Africa Roger Southall,2022-02-24 What is the place and role of whites in South African political life today Are whites genuinely willing participants in a non racial democracy willing to forego the racial privileges of the past or despite legal equality have they proved reluctant to relinquish power and continue as black activists assert to dominate many aspects of South African society Building upon the burgeoning body of work on whiteness this book focuses on how whites have adapted politically to the arrival of democracy and sweeping political change in South Africa Outlining a variety of responses in how white South Africans have sought to grapple with apartheid s brutal history the author shows how their memories of the past have shaped their reactions to political equality Although the majority feared the coming of democracy only a right wing minority actively resisted its arrival Others chose and are still choosing to emigrate used democracy to defend minority rights or have withdrawn into psychologically or physically demarcated social enclaves Challenging much current thinking Southall argues that many whites have chosen to embrace the freedoms that democracy has offered or to adapt to its often disconcerting realities pragmatically Examining this crucial issue against the historical context of minority rule and its defeat the author presents a new dynamic to the continuing debate on whiteness in Africa and globally      The World Guide ,2001      Hunger and Poverty in South Africa Jacqueline Hanoman,2017-09-01 Hunger and Poverty in South Africa The Hidden Faces of Food Insecurity explores food insecurity as an issue of socioeconomic political cultural and environmental inequity and inequality Based on extensive original research in Free State Province South Africa the book explores how people living in poverty make meaning of their food circumstances within the socio cultural political and economic contexts of post apartheid South Africa how they view the government s food security policies and programs and their perceived agency to affect change The personal narratives contained in the book show that food insecurity is shaped by many issues among which are structural poverty racism attempts or non attempts at reconciliation during and after apartheid public health issues such as HIV AIDS and environmental circumstances At a time when most discourse around food insecurity focuses on how to provide more food to people facing hunger this book s multidimensional approach is a valuable contribution to the contemporary dialogue on poverty food security insecurity sustainability and democratic agency both within South Africa and around the world This book will be of interest to researchers in the areas of food security multidimensional poverty democratic agency and sustainable development both in South Africa and internationally
