Unreasonable Faith James Fodor, 2022-06-29 He has written or edited more than 30 books his arguments for God and Jesus are frequently cited by Christian apologists around the world and he has severely overstated his case through a series of blatant mischaracterizations and philosophical blunders You may have heard of William Lane Craig a professor of philosophy at Talbot School of Theology who is known for debating atheists but even if you haven't you have probably heard his arguments through followers and fans He is known for painting faith as the reasonable road and falsely claiming that he can prove the validity of his religion From his work attempting to show evidence for Jesus resurrection to his development of the Kalam cosmological argument for the existence of God Craig is respected among his peers on the Christian side of the religious spectrum But is that deserved What's at the core of these arguments Are they philosophically sound More importantly is this Unreasonable Faith an excellent destruction of W L Craig's entire apologetics Cogently argued and factually accurate this is required reading for anyone keen to question the soundness of anything W L Craig has argued over the decades Which makes it an invaluable resource for refuting Christian apologetics generally Richard Carrier author on the historicity of Jesus This book should be required reading for anyone who is proposing to debate William Lane Craig on the existence of God It should also be something that those who debate Craig on that topic advertise this book gives an accurate idea of the amount of material that needs to be provided to begin to address the usual panoply of arguments that Craig puts forward in a debate Professor Graham Oppy Monash James Fodor has a graduate degree in physics at the University of Melbourne and is a research assistant in structural biology at Monash University With a keen interest in philosophy he writes for the Rationalist magazine on various subjects in religion and epistemology As president of the University of Melbourne Secular Society he has engaged in numerous discussions and public debates concerning religion with a focus on secular morality and the evidence for the resurrection of Jesus He also has a keen interest in effective altruism and computational neuroscience

Trinitarian Interpretation in Light of the Identity of YHWH as the Triune God Alias K. Eldhose, 2024-01-10 Have you ever wondered how to maintain an understanding of monotheism in light of the Christian understanding of the triune Godhead Have you ever wondered about the identity of YHWH in the Old Testament Have you identified YHWH as the first person of the Trinity as many in the Christian tradition have If so this book is for you Many of the early Trinitarian heresies stemmed from a misunderstanding of YHWH in the Old Testament especially identifying YHWH as one person and not multiple persons This book addresses issues relating to the identity of YHWH in the Old Testament and makes the bold claim that YHWH is multiple persons in the OT and therefore Father is YHWH Jesus is YHWH and the Holy Spirit is YHWH This conclusion is based on sound exegesis of OT NT passages the early Christian understanding of God in the Old Testament and the New Testament's identification of Jesus in the identity of YHWH If identified thus a Christian reading of the entirety
