Shadow Country By Peter Matthiessen:

Shadow Country Peter Matthiessen, 2010-07-01 Inspired by a near mythic event of the wild Florida frontier at the turn of the twentieth century Shadow Country reimagines the legend of the inspired Everglades sugar planter and notorious outlaw E J Watson who drives himself to his own violent end at the hands of his neighbours His son Lucius investigates the killing which has come to obsess him In this bold new rendering of the Watson trilogy Matthiessen has deepened the insights and motivations of his characters consolidating his fictional masterwork into a poetic compelling novel of a monumental scope and ambition with breathtaking accomplishment Peter Matthiessen and Ecological Imagination Intaek Oh, 2010 Peter Matthiessen and Ecological Imagination offers an ecocritical reading of the Watson Trilogy Killing Mister Watson 1990 Lost Man s River 1997 and Bone By Bone 1999 which draws together themes Matthiessen has been exploring both in his fiction and nonfiction While this study argues that his ecological imagination comes from his unique experience as a novelist naturalist environmentalist social activist and a student of Zen it also illustrates that for Matthiessen economic political social racial psychological epistemological and ecological issues are all inseparably interconnected Set in the Everglades frontier in the formative era of American industrial capitalism Matthiessen s novels are his grand attempt to reexamine the root causes of ecological disaster in the region and the costs to the people and the land that accompanied the conquering of the frontier

True Nature Lance Richardson, 2025-10-14 The first biography of Peter Matthiessen the novelist naturalist and Zen roshi whose trailblazing work championed Native American rights and helped usher in the modern environmental movement by award winning writer Lance Richardson A stunning formidable achievement by a brilliant biographer Lance Richardson takes his readers on a wild ride with Peter Matthiessen Kai Bird Pulitzer Prize winning co author of American Prometheus Peter Matthiessen 1927 2014 a towering figure of twentieth century American letters achieved so much during his lifetime in so many different areas that people have struggled to pin him down While ambivalent about his WASP privilege as a teenager he demanded that his name be removed from the New York Social Register he attended Yale and cut his teeth in postwar Paris co founding The Paris Review as he worked undercover for the CIA But then after a rebellious stint as a Long Island fisherman he escaped into a series of wild expeditions floating through the Amazon to recover a prehistorical fossil embedding with a tribe in Netherlands New Guinea swimming with sharks off the coast of Australia His novels inspired by his travels were unclassifiable meditations about Caymanian turtle hunters and frontier outlaws in the Florida Everglades Meanwhile his nonfiction became legendary nature books like Wildlife in America key parts of the canon of emergent environmental writing says Bill McKibben as well as advocacy journalism supporting Cesar Chavez Leonard Peltier and Native American land claims Underlying all Matthiessen s disparate pursuits was the same existential search to find a cure for deep restlessness This search was most profoundly articulated in The Snow Leopard his famous account of a 250 mile wildlife survey across the Himalayas In True Nature Lance Richardson reconstructs the full scope of a spiritual quest that ultimately led Matthiessen even as he inflicted great pain on his family to the highest ranks of Zen Drawing on rich primary sources and hundreds of interviews Richardson depicts Matthiessen's life with page turning immediacy while also illuminating how the writer's uncanny gifts enabled him to sense connections between ecological decline racism and labor exploitation to express eloquently and presciently that in a damaged human habitat all problems merge Companion to Literature Abby H. P. Werlock, 2009 Praise for the previous edition Booklist RBB Twenty Best Bets for Student Researchers RUSA ALA Outstanding Reference Source useful Recommended for public libraries and undergraduates

Encyclopedia of the American Short Story Abby H. P. Werlock, 2015-04-22 Two volume set that presents an introduction to American short fiction from the 19th century to the present Kim Stanley Robinson Andrew Rowcroft, 2024-05-03 Kim Stanley Robinson remains one of the most progressive writers working today His novels and short stories have mapped cycles of capitalist violence economic expansion and material despoliation in turn proposing radical visions of social and economic justice through cooperatives collective agreements and stewardship of the environment But if Robinson is readily considered a political author less attention has been paid to his craft and composition This book examines Robinson's concern with literary apprenticeship In novels such as the post apocalyptic The Wild Shore the intergenerational star ship narrative Aurora and the tale of Ice Age hunters Shaman Robinson creates characters who struggle with and against storytelling In these fictions apprentices battle against the limits of their interpretative powers as they come to recognise the real pleasures and the intense hardships of art and narrative Imperial Intimacies Hazel V. Carby, 2021-10-12 Winner of the British Academy's Nayef Al Rodhan Prize for Global Cultural Understanding 2020 Highly commended for PEN Hessell Tiltman Prize 2020 A haunting and evocative history of British empire told through one woman's family story Where are you from was the question hounding Hazel Carby as a girl in post war London One of the so called brown babies of the Windrush generation born to a Jamaican father and Welsh mother Carby's place in her home her neighbourhood and her country of birth was always in doubt Emerging from this setting Carby untangles the threads connecting members of her family in a web woven by the British Empire across the Atlantic We meet Carby's working class grandmother Beatrice a seamstress challenged by poverty and disease In England she was thrilled by the cosmopolitan fantasies of empire by cities built with slave trade profits and by street peddlers selling fashionable Jamaican delicacies In Jamaica we follow the lives of both the white Carbys and the black Carbys including Mary Ivey a free woman of colour whose children are fathered by Lilly Carby a British soldier who arrived in Jamaica in 1789 to be absorbed into the plantation aristocracy And we discover the hidden stories of Bridget and Nancy two women owned by Lilly who survived the Middle Passage from Africa to the Caribbean Moving between Jamaican plantations the hills of Devon the port cities of Bristol Cardiff and Kingston and the working class estates of South London Carby's family story is at once an intimate personal history and a sweeping summation of the violent entanglement of two islands In charting British empire's interweaving of capital and bodies public language and private feeling Carby will find herself reckoning with what she can tell what she can remember and what she can bear to know
