Egalitarian Strangeness Edward J. Hughes, 2021-04-15 Shortlisted for the 2022 R Gapper book prize The formulation egalitarian strangeness is a direct borrowing from Courts voyages au pays du peuple Short Voyages to the Land of the People 1990 a collection of essays by the contemporary French thinker Jacques Rancière Perhaps best known for his theory of radical equality as set out in Le Maître ignorant The Ignorant Schoolmaster 1987 Rancière reflects on ways in which a hierarchical social order based on inequality can come to be unsettled In the democracy of literature for example he argues that words and sentences serve to capture any life and to make it available to any reader The present book explores embedded forms of social and cultural apportionment in a range of modern and contemporary French texts including prose fiction socially engaged commentary and autobiography while also identifying scenes of class disturbance and egalitarian encounter Part One considers the refrain of class audible in works by Claude Simon Charles Péguy Marie Ndiaye Thierry Beinstingel and Gabriel Gauny and examines how these authors practices of language connect with that refrain In Part Two Hughes analyses forms of domination and dressage with reference to Simone Weil's mid 1930s factory journal Paul Nizan's novel of class alienation Antoine Bloy from the same decade and Pierre Michon's Vies minuscules Small Lives 1984 with its focus on obscure rural lives The reflection on how these narratives draw into contiguity antagonistic identities is extended in Part Three where individual chapters on Proust and the contemporary authors François Bon and Didier Eribon demonstrate ways in which enduring forms of cultural distribution are both consolidated and contested

Introduction to French Literature Brian Nelson,2015-06-11 An engaging highly accessible and informative introduction to French literature from the Middle Ages to the present Masters and Servants Pierre Michon,2013-10-28 One of Pierre

Michon s most powerful works this book imagines decisive moments in the lives of five artists of different times and places Vincent van Gogh Francisco Goya Antoine Watteau Claude Lorrain and Lorentino a little remembered disciple of Piero della Francesca Michon focuses on particular moments when artist and model collide whether that model is a person or a landscape inner or outer In the five separate tales he evokes the full passion of the artist s struggle to capture the world in images even as the world resists capture Each story is a small masterpiece that transcends national boundaries and earns its place among the essential works of world literature One for the Books Joe Queenan,2012-10-25 One of America s leading humorists and author of the bestseller Closing Time examines his own obsession with books Joe Queenan became a voracious reader as a means of escape from a joyless childhood in a Philadelphia housing project In the years since then he has dedicated himself to an assortment of idiosyncratic reading challenges spending a year reading only short books spending a year reading books he always suspected he would hate spending a year reading books he picked with his eyes closed In One for the Books Queenan tries to come to terms with his own eccentric reading style how many more books will he have time to read in his lifetime Why does he refuse to read books hailed by reviewers as astonishing Why does he refuse to lend out books Will he ever buy an e book Why does he habitually read thirty to forty books simultaneously Why are there so many people to whom the above questions do not even matter and what do they read Acerbically funny yet passionate and oddly affectionate One for the Books is a reading experience that true book lovers will find unforgettable Transnational Perspectives on Artists' Lives Marleen Rensen,Christopher Wiley,2020-10-06 This book demonstrates the significance of transnationality for studying and writing the lives of artists While painters musicians and writers have long been cast as symbols of their associated nations recent research is increasingly drawing attention to those aspects of their lives and works that resist or challenge the national framework The volume showcases different ways of treating transnationality in life writing by and about artists investigating how the transnational can offer intriguing new insights on artists who straddle different nations and cultures It further explores ways of adopting transnational perspectives in artists biographies in order to deal with experiences of cultural otherness or international influences and analyses cross cultural representations of artists in biography and biofiction Gathering together insights from biographers and scholars with expertise in literature music and the visual arts Transnational Perspectives on Artists Lives opens up rich avenues for researching transnationality in the cultural domain at large Literature and Geography Emmanuelle Peraldo,2016-01-14 In a period marked by the

Spatial Turn time is not the main category of analysis any longer Space is It is now considered as a central metaphor and topos in literature and literary criticism has seized space as a new tool Similarly literature turns out to be an ideal field for geography This book examines the cross fertilization of geography and literature as disciplines languages and methodologies In the past two decades several methods of analysis focusing on the relationship and interconnectedness between literature and geography have flourished Literary cartography literary geography and geocriticism Westphal 2007 and Tally 2011 have their specificities but they all agree upon the omnipresence of space place and mapping at the core of analysis Other approaches like ecocriticism Buell 2001 and Garrard 2004 geopoetics White 1994 geography of literature Moretti 2000 studies of the inserted map Ljunberg 2012 and Pristnall and Cooper 2011 and narrative cartography have likewise drawn attention to space Literature and Geography The Writing of Space Throughout History following an international conference in Lyon bringing together literary academics geographers cartographers and architects in order to discuss literature and geography as two practices of space shows that literature along with geography is perfectly valid to account for space Suggestions are offered here from all disciplines on how to take into account representations and discourses since texts including literary ones have become increasingly present in the analysis of geographers

Repair the World

Alexandre Gefen, 2024-08-19 Talk of repair has become ubiquitous in recent years In the age of trauma culture art and literature have a new purpose to do justice to console comfort and heal Drawing on works of twenty first century French language literature this monograph shows how literature can not only serve as a means of personal development but expand our capacity for empathy help repair the brokenness implied in victimhood and redress individual and collective traumas Centered on a critical reflection on discourses of repair and reparations it questions the canonical theories on the functions of literature and proposes a new way of writing and reading literary history Praise Repair the World is an invigorating and essential call to arms The modern category of the literary it declares is being outpaced by the contemporary uses of literature as a medium of exorcism empathy reparation testimony commemoration existential renewal and ethical or political connectivity Neither celebrating nor condemning such uses Gefen models a much needed style of criticism interdisciplinary pragmatic relational that comes to grips with their importance Rita Felski the John Stewart Bryan Professor and Professor of English at the University of Virginia USA In an era where self help memoir and autobiography command more than their fair share of publisher s lists in France it s tempting some fifty years after post structuralism s heyday to ascribe an impending death of literature to a taste for narcissistic exhibitionism in French literary culture But why bemoan the waning relevance of the question what is literature asks Alexandre Gefen when evidence abounds in the new century that literary writing increasingly posits itself as a restorative reparative act In the best instances authors who give form to embodied experience imaginatively forge with their readers empathetic bonds of the sort that secular and religious institutions long sustained Repair the World is not only a capacious study of writers who hail from surprisingly broad sectors of French society from health and social workers to skilled laborers journalists and educators it's a situated call for a pragmatics of reading that makes of each book an intervention into the fabric of the real Harnessing sources in affect theory trauma studies ethics and cognitive science Alexandre Gefen performs a critically reparative act all his own reminding us that the notion of literature as autonomous object was itself a historical construct in short an ideology Reading and writing have always conjoined care for the self and care for others and it's upon that reciprocity that the communities of sense of tomorrow can flourish in a spirit of reparative humanism Derek Schilling Professor of French Director of the Centre Louis Marin Department of Modern Languages and Literatures Johns Hopkins University USA Alexandre Gefen's wide ranging thought provoking study takes stock of a paradigm shift in contemporary French literature away from a model of autonomy and intransitivity to ways of writing and reading that seek to repair restore reassure and rebuild From the varied forms of expressivity found in self narratives to the empathetic projections of fiction Repair the World maps out an expanding literary territory that seeks not critical negativity but rather the power to intervene for good in individual and collective life While reserving judgment on the actual extent of literature's effects Gefen demonstrates that contemporary projects and discourses undeniably center the therapeutic and remedial uses of literature With its nuanced readings and keen insights Repair the World has been rightly influential in France its powerful diagnosis of contemporary sensibilities resonates far beyond revealing both the promises and predicaments of literature in the twenty first century Alison James Professor of French and Chair of the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures at the University of Chicago USA What would it mean to ask Sartre's post war question What is literature in the 21st century In this wonderful essay Alexandre Gefen argues convincingly that the main purpose of literature today is to repair a broken world and memorialise forgotten lives Taking examples from predominantly contemporary French literature he proposes that literature as therapy has replaced religions of salvation a politics of emancipation and formal experimentation Today literature's mission is to heal traumatised individuals and communities resurrect the lives of the vulnerable and commemorate their deeds in the face of the forces of oblivion For Gefen Patrick Modiano's Dora Bruder 1997 is the contemporary literary archetype of these lost identities to be rehabilitated and reinhabited Gefen describes this new role for literature without taking sides the writing is lucid compelling and non partisan In an age of victimhood testimony empathy self expression and identity Gefen's reparative paradigm is as persuasive as Sartre's political version in the age of ideology Max Silverman Professor of Modern French Studies University of Leeds UK

Little Dancer Aged Fourteen Camille Laurens, 2018-11-20 This absorbing heartfelt work uncovers the story of the real dancer behind Degas's now iconic sculpture shedding light on the struggles of late nineteenth century Parisian life She is famous throughout the world but how many know her name You can admire her figure in Washington Paris London New York Dresden or Copenhagen but where is her grave We know only her age fourteen and the work that she did because it was already grueling work at an age when children today are sent to school In the 1880s she danced as a little rat at the Paris

Opera and what is often a dream for young girls now wasn't a dream for her. She was fired after several years of intense labor; the director had had enough of her repeated absences. She had been working another job even two because the few pennies the Opera paid weren't enough to keep her and her family fed. She was a model posing for painters or sculptors among them Edgar Degas. Drawing on a wealth of historical material as well as her own love of ballet and personal experiences of loss, Camille Laurens presents a compelling, compassionate portrait of Marie van Goethem and the world she inhabited that shows the importance of those who have traditionally been overlooked in the study of art.
