Why Don't You Just Talk to Him?

Kathleen R. Arnold, 2015 Why Don t You Just Talk to Him looks at the broad political contexts in which violence specifically domestic violence occurs Kathleen Arnold argues that liberal and Enlightenment notions of the social contract rationality and egalitarianism the ideas that constitute norms of good citizenship have an inextricable relationship to violence According to this dynamic targets of abuse are not rational make bad choices are unable to negotiate with their abusers or otherwise violate norms of the social contract they are thus second class citizens In fact as Arnold shows drawing from Nietzsche and Foucault s theories of power and arguing against much of the standard policy literature on domestic violence the very mechanisms that purportedly help targets of domestic abuse actually work to compound the problem by exacerbating or ignoring the power differences between the abuser and the abused The book argues that a key to understanding how to prevent domestic violence is seeing it as a political rather than a personal issue with political consequences It seeks to challenge Enlightenment ideas about intimacy that conceive of personal relationships as mutual equal and contractual Put another way it challenges policy ideas that suggest that targets of abuse can simply choose to leave abusive relationships without other personal or economic consequences or that there is a clear and consistent level of help once they make the choice to leave Asking Why Don t You Just Talk to Him is in reality a suggestion riven with contradictions and false choices Arnold further explores these issues by looking at two key asylum cases that highlight contradictions within the government s treatment of foreigners and that of long term residents These cases expose problematic assumptions in the approach to domestic violence more generally Exposing major injustices from the point of view of domestic violence targets this book promises to generate further debate if not consensus Public Opinion ,1882 The Electrical Review ,1898 My Perspective Nidhika Dhir, My Perspective is a non fiction novel This book is the work of creativity and is written by nidhika at the age of 17 2013 This book is based on her personal experiences which she had given a different turn and made it her perspective The novel is about the school students and their perspective In order to see life from a child s point of view one should get down on their knees and look up at the adults towering above you The Chemical Trade Journal and Oil, Paint and Colour Review ,1893 The Fishing Gazette ,1879 *The Christian spectator. New ser.
