Between God and Man Francesco Buranelli, Marco Bussagli, Cecilia Sica, Roberta Bernabei, 2007 How Italian artists have represented one of the most revered religious images the angel Between God and Man Francesco Buranelli, Mississippi museum of art (Jackson, Miss.), 2007 Conversations with Angels J. Raymond, 2011-08-09 Based on refractions of earlier beliefs modern angels at once terrible and comforting frighteningly other and reassuringly beneficent have acquired a powerful symbolic value This interdisciplinary study looks at how humans conversed with angels in medieval and early modern Europe and how they explained and represented these conversations Angels: A Very Short Introduction David Albert Jones, 2011-10-27 What are angels Where were they first encountered Can we distinguish angels from gods fairies ghosts and aliens And why do they remain so popular This Very Short Introduction investigates stories and speculations about angels in religions old and new in art literature film and the popular imagination Angels in Islam Stephen Burge, 2015-12-22 Angels are a basic tenet of belief in Islam appearing in various types and genres of text from eschatology to law and theology to devotional material This book presents the first comprehensive study of angels in Islam through an analysis of a collection of traditions had th compiled by the 15th century polymath Jal l al D n al Suy t d 911 1505 With a focus on the principal angels in Islam the author provides an analysis and critical translation of hadith included in al Suyuti s al Haba ik fi akhbar al mala ik The Arrangement of the Traditions about Angels many of which are translated into English for the first time The book discusses the issues that the had th raise exploring why angels are named in particular ways how angels are described and portrayed in the had th the ways in which angels interact with humans and the theological controversies which feature angels From this it is possible to place al Suy t s collection in its religious and historical milieu building on the study of angels in Judaism and Christianity to explore aspects of comparative religious beliefs about angels as well as relating Muslim beliefs about angels to wider debates in Islamic Studies Broadening the study of Islamic angelology and providing a significant amount of newly translated primary source material this book will be of great interest to scholars of Islam divinity and comparative religion Caravaggio David M. Stone, 2017-07-05 As this collection of essays makes clear the paths to grasping the complexity of Caravaggio s art are multiple and variable Art historians from the UK and North America offer new or recently updated interpretations of the works of seventeenth century Italian painter Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio and of his many followers known as the Caravaggisti The volume deals with all the major aspects of Caravaggio s paintings technique creative process religious context innovations in pictorial genre and narrative market strategies biography patronage reception and new hermeneutical trends The concluding section tackles the essential question of Caravaggio s legacy and the production of his followers not only in terms of style but from some highly innovative strategies concettismo art marketing and the price of pictures self fashioning and biography and the concept of emulation From Memory to Marble Elizabeth Rankin, Rolf Michael Schneider, 2020-02-10 For the first time the 92 metre frieze of the

Voortrekker Monument in Pretoria one of the largest historical narratives in marble has been made the subject of a book The pictorial narrative of the Boer pioneers who conquered South Africa's interior during the Great Trek 1835-52 represents a crucial period of South Africa's past Conceptualising the frieze both reflected on and contributed to the country's socio-political debates in the 1930s and 1940s when it was made The book considers the active role the Monument played in the rise of Afrikaner nationalism and the development of apartheid as well as its place in post-apartheid heritage The frieze is unique in that it provides rare evidence of the complex processes followed in creating a major monument Based on unpublished documents drawings and models these processes are unfolded step by step from the earliest discussions of the purpose and content of the frieze through all the stages of its design to its shipping to post-war Italy to be copied into marble from Monte Altissimo up to its final installation in the Monument The book examines how visual representation transforms historical memory in what it chooses to recount and the forms in which it is depicted The second volume expands on the first by investigating each of the twenty-seven scenes of the frieze in depth providing new insights into not only the frieze but also South Africa's history Françoise van Schalkwyk of African Minds co-publisher with De Gruyter writes From Memory to Marble is an open access monograph in the true sense of the word Both volumes of the digital version of the book are available in full and free of charge from the date of publication This approach to publishing democratises access to the latest scholarly publications across the globe At the same time a book such as From Memory to Marble with its unique and exquisite photographs of the frieze as well as its wealth of reproduced archival materials demands reception of a more traditional kind that is on the printed page For this reason the book is likewise available in print as two separate volumes The printed and digital books should not be seen as separate incarnations each brings its own advantages working together to extend the reach and utility of From Memory to Marble to a range of interested readers For more material you can browse at Stanford's database Voortrekker Monumentality a digital archive

Studies in Italian Art Andrew Ladis, 2001-12-31 Andrew Ladis is Franklin Professor of Art History at the University of Georgia Over the course of the last twenty years he has written extensively on Italian art In addition to books on Taddeo Gaddi and on the Brancacci Chapel he has made notable contributions to the study of early Italian painting and sculpture with essays on such figures as Giovanni Pisano Giotto Jacopo del Casentino Ambrogio Lorenzetti and Niccolò di Tommaso But the range of his interests made apparent by this collection extends far beyond fourteenth-century Florence and Siena to encompass Tuscan painting of the fifteenth century Renaissance maiolica the writings of Giorgio Vasari biography and modern historiography Further the assembled essays and book reviews embrace a wide array of art historical problems such as connoisseurship patronage workshop procedure and the relationship between form and meaning Of particular note is a major interpretive essay on one of the key monuments of the Renaissance the mural decoration of the Brancacci Chapel painted by Masaccio Masolino and Filippino Lippi Appearing here in revised form this study is newly accompanied by a copious number of illustrations including some never before
