Between Nowhere Never Photographs Forgotten:

Between Nowhere & Never Reginald Van De Velde, Mirna Pavlovic, 2015-10 Reginald Van de Velde takes photos of forgotten places of abandoned spaces where time has ground to a halt His haunting photos are simply breathtaking Many exclusive locations that have never been photographed before The unknown and the unseen have always held an undeniable appeal to the human nature In a world that is ever growing and changing there are places that inevitably slip out of memory and out of sight Reginald Van de Velde's Between Nowhere Never shows the past splendor of derelict hospitals mothballed monasteries defunct power stations crumbling castles and many other dormant structures As a devoted traveller he journeys into forsaken places all over the world trying to capture the momentum of a fragile abandonment the result of an intangible desire to explore what mankind has left behind The chapters written by Mirna Pavlovic weave the photographs together into a larger narrative providing an insight into the photographer's thoughts and motivations and breathe in new life to places desperately searching for it With the reverberation of time as a vantage point this book will take you on a journey to places that exist between nowhere and never

Between Nowhere and Lost Alexandra Christle, 2017-01-17 Bridges of Madison County meets Norma Rae No one can understand Helen Hodges's burning need to have a child a need she's abandoned in her childless marriage But when David Drummond the local textile mill's owner visits her small South Carolina town those repressed yearnings come forth again deepening her discontent as she falls in love with him David's appearance brings escalating union and racial tensions to the town and Helen is torn between her Catholic faith her duty to her husband and her growing desire to be with David Overrun with guilt over her feelings she renounces her lover and chooses to remain with her husband until she learns some life-changing news and rushes to tell David before he leaves town and her life forever

Forgetting Douwe Draaisma, 2015-03-01 In his highly praised book The Nostalgia Factory renowned memory scholar Douwe Draaisma explored the puzzling logic of memory in later life with humor and deep insight In this compelling new book he turns to the miracle of forgetting Far from being a defect that may indicate Alzheimer's or another form of dementia Draaisma claims forgetting is one of memory's crucial capacities In fact forgetting is essential Weaving together an engaging array of literary historical and scientific sources the author considers forgetting from every angle He pierces false clichés and asks important questions Is a forgotten memory lost forever What makes a colleague remember an idea but forget that it was yours Draaisma explores first memories of young children how experiences are translated into memory the controversies over repression and recovered memories and weird examples of memory dysfunction He movingly examines the impact on personal memories when a hidden truth comes to light In a persuasive conclusion the author advocates the undervalued practice of the art of forgetting a set of techniques that assist in erasing memories thereby preserving valuable relationships and encouraging personal contentment

Lost Souls Sun-wŏn Hwang, 2010 These captivating short stories portray three major periods in modern Korean history the forces of colonial modernity during the late 1930s the postcolonial struggle to rebuild society after four decades of oppression emasculation and cultural exile 1945 to 1950 and the attempt to reconstruct a shattered land and a traumatized nation after the Korean War Lost Souls echoes the exceptional work of China's Shen Congwen and Japan's Kawabata Yasunari Modernist narratives set in the metropolises of Tokyo and Pyongyang alternate with starkly realistic portraits of rural life Surrealist tales suggest the unsettling sensation of colonial domination while stories of the outcast embody the thrill and terror of independence and survival in a land dominated by tradition and devastated by war Written during the chaos of 1945 Booze recounts a fight between Koreans for control of a former Japanese owned distillery Toad relates the suffering created by hundreds of thousands of returning refugees and stories from the 1950s confront the catastrophes of the Korean War and the problematic desire for autonomy Visceral and versatile Lost Souls is a classic work on the possibilities of transition that showcases the innovation and craftsmanship of a consummate and widely celebrated storyteller

In Search of Lost Futures Magdalena Kazubowski-Houston, Mark Auslander, 2021-02-16 In Search of Lost Futures asks how imaginations might be activated through practices of autoethnography multimodality and deep interdisciplinarity each of which has the power to break down methodological silos cultivate novel research sensibilities and inspire researchers to question what is known about ethnographic process representation reflexivity audience and intervention within and beyond the academy By blurring the boundaries between the past present and future between absence and presence between the possible and the impossible and between fantasy and reality In Search of Lost Futures pushes the boundaries of ethnographic engagement It reveals how researchers on the cutting edge of the discipline are studying absence and grief and employing street performance museum exhibit anticipation or simulated reality to research and intervene in the possible the impossible and the uncertain
