Betwixt And Between Patterns Of Masculine And Feminine Initiation:

Betwixt & Between Louise Carus Mahdi, Steven Foster, Meredith Little, 1987 Betwixt and Between offers new insights into the basic elements of initiations and rites of passage The absence of these traditional supports creates problems in the lives of those who are caught in the void and lack definite expectations at various times of their lives The chapters on masculine and feminine initiation provide new and creative concepts and practical possibilities for each of us Initiation has been a missing component in the modern world and needs to be re introduced with new understanding and consciousness

Horror Films James B. Weaver, Ron Tamborini, 2013-11-05 Why do so many of us enjoy being told frightening stories What are some of the consequences that result from such exposure In light of the considerable popularity of horror films over the last three decades these questions have become the focus of growing attention for many scholars However research on audience preferences for and reactions to horror films has been performed eclectically by investigators from varied theoretical and methodological backgrounds As a result the information has not been effectively integrated This volume was written to address this problem and to position the study of audience responses to frightening fiction as a significant research topic

The Odyssey Experience Neil J. Smelser,2009-03-05 The Odyssey Experience puts forward the view that a journey as encapsulated by the journey of Odysseus provides a fundamental and archetypal human experience and develops a theory of this experience through personal experiences and a wide range of salient phenomena There is a vast literature inspired by The Odyssey but the way that Smelser approaches the subject is entirely unique Yiannis Gabriel University of London Smelser draws together studies of an astonishing range of diverse topics and subsumes them under a single coherent powerful overarching concept the odyssey experience I believe his book will lead to the establishment of an entirely new field of study in the social and behavioral sciences that will open up new and promising lines of theory and research that until now have not been possible Robert Scott Associate Director emeritus Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences

Jung, Jungians and Homosexuality Robert H. Hopcke,2002-01-09 In an effort to provide the first coherent theory of sexual orientation in the tradition of analytical psychology Robert Hopcke examines the way in which Jung and Jungians have regarded homosexuality both clinically and theoretically demonstrating that within a great diversity of opinion there exist many ways to deepen an understanding of the lives and loves of gay men and lesbians Hopcke proposes a view of homosexuality that is archetypally based empirically supportable psychologically profound and spiritually evocative Becoming and Being a Camp Counsellor Mandi Baker, 2019-11-22 This book explores the complexities of the recreational summer camp experience and its reliance on the expertise and emotion work of young people. Drawing on post structural theory Baker illustrates the discourses power relations and emotional demands that shape camp counsellor employment experiences and well being. Through analysis of everyday experiences and interactions Baker unpicks the power nexus between counsellors campers peers and camp management offering a deeper understanding of camp counsellor employment and the challenges for camp employees and employers. As such this book raises a call for camp researchers and industry leaders to engage in rethinking how camp counsellor roles are understood shaped and embodied and how they might be ethically supported through reflexive management practices. Becoming and Being a Camp Counsellor will be of interest to scholars and students across the fields of leisure outdoor recreation youth studies and sociology.

A Jungian Approach to Coaching Laurence Barrett, 2022-09-29 Winner of the Henley Business School Coaching Book of the Year 2023 Award. In an increasingly superficial and disconnected world Jungian psychology offers a more soulful alternative. It provides a frame within which we can more easily notice and understand the voice of the unconscious and its implications allowing us to build deeper relationships and lead more meaningful lives. In this book Laurence Barrett explores the fundamental principles and structures of Jung's model of the mind and considers ways in which these may be applied and extended to a modern coaching and consulting practice. It offers a deep but accessible insight to Jungian theory supported by a wealth of source materials and rich examples from the author's own work and experience. A Jungian Approach to Coaching will help experienced coaches to better support individuals groups and organizations in a rediscovery of their humanity and their potential. It will help turn leaders into people.

Entrepreneurial Goals Itamar Dubinsky, 2022-07-26 The idea that the African private sector will generate economic prosperity and social wealth an objective many governments and foreign charitable organizations have failed to achieve continues to attract attention in business and policy circles. Yet little research has actually been conducted on Africapitalist endeavors. With the immense popularity of sports and the many aspirations they foster the successes and shortcomings of soccer academies have kicked their way into the spotlight. Entrepreneurial Goals breaks away from studies that focus on the international relations consequences of soccer ventures which are often rebuked as extended forms of European colonialism and exploitation of local talent and instead centers Ghanaian establishments and the opportunities they create for local development within their surrounding communities. Itamar Dubinsky's extensive ethnographic research offers an innovative theoretical approach by assessing three institutions: Mandela Soccer Academy, Kumasi Sports Academy and Unistar Soccer Academy through an Africapitalist prism. He demonstrates that these business endeavors when viewed from the perspective of local interests realize many of the educational financial and community building ambitions of the region. This pioneering examination of locally owned academies in Ghana reflects Dubinsky's aim of illuminating the entrepreneurs and programs whose success passes to participating youth and their families while also exposing the contradictions of for profit development initiatives that purport to reap collective social benefits

Masculinity and Identity in Irish Literature Cassandra S. Tully de Lope, 2024-03-25 This book addresses Irish identity in Irish literature especially masculinity in some of its forms through an interdisciplinary methodology The study of language performance through literary analysis and corpus studies will enable readers to approach literary texts from both quantitative and qualitative perspectives to take advantage of the texts full potential as well as examining these same texts through the perspective of gender identity This will be carried out through a specialised corpus composed of 18 novels written by twentieth and twenty first century male Irish authors Thus the language and behaviour patterns of contemporary Irish masculinity can be found as part of these male characters performance of identity This book is primarily aimed at undergraduate and graduate students who wish to introduce themselves in the study of gender and identity in an Irish context as well as researchers looking for interdisciplinary methodologies of study What is more it can present researchers with varied options of analysis that corpus studies have not yet touched upon so thoroughly such as masculinity and Irish literature As a monograph meant to show analysts new fields of study in Irish literature this book will sell to academic libraries and can be used in MA courses

Creating Culture in (Post) Socialist Central Asia Ananda Breed, Eva-Marie Dubuisson, Ali Iğmen, 2020-11-24 This book brings together historical and ethnographic research from Kyrgyzstan Kazakhstan and Xinjiang in order to explore how individuals and communities work to create and maintain forms of culture in contexts of ideological repression and erasure Across Inner Central Asia in both China and the Soviet Union while ethnic culture was on one hand lauded and promoted it was simultaneously folklorized in the face of broader projects of socialist modernity How do local intellectuals cultural organizers and performers work to negotiate their own forms and understandings of cultural meaning within the institutions and frameworks of a long twentieth century How does scholarly attention to cultural production tradition and performance help to inform our understanding of ethnic nations not as given but as coming into being

Ritual Performance in the Fiction of Flannery O'Connor Cynthia Seel, 2001 The study begins with an exploration of O'Connor's Southern milieu a survey of relevant scholarship particularly feminist theory and a clarification of essential terms and concepts surrounding ritual The remaining chapters are then dedicated to the six short stories each of which depicts certain ritual patterns and archetypal models In this way the study furnishes a prototype that can be applied to O'Connor's entire oeuvre Ritual Performance in the Fiction of Flannery O'Connor is an excellent resource for teachers and students of American literature Southern Studies feminist theory and ritual studies Because it is story centered rather than theory driven it will appeal to those who are looking for ways to read and teach O'Connor's astonishing stories more deeply

BOOK JACKET
Depth Psychology, Cult Survivors, and the Role of the Daimon Linda R. Quennec, 2024-06-10 This book explores the possibilities that exist for navigating out of and away from multiple levels of oppression through memoir based research It considers how those raised in oppressive high demand communities colloquially referred to as cults can emancipate themselves from controls and expectations inculcated from early childhood and examines processes surrounding the psychological reclamation of self Exploring and metaphorically tending to an orienting psychological dynamic that the ancient Greeks related to as the daimon and using the perspectives of Jungian and post Jungian depth psychology the author investigates how subjects can reclaim agency and avoid excessive control over their thoughts attention and life s intentions They suggest that depth psychologically oriented modes can be used to this attunement and explore this notion through a study of memoirs of individuals who were raised in cults Suggesting a more aligned approach to working with varying levels of psychological constraint and utilizing a phenomenological hermeneutic study it will appeal to scholars and professionals in depth psychology and other psychological orientations as well as individuals who are interested in more deeply understanding the psychological mechanisms involved in leaving a high demand group or other oppressive situations
